DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: On the record.

PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. Good morning. I'm Commissioner Barton and this is the 15th subsequent life parole consideration hearing for Mr. Sirhan CDCR number B as in Boy, 21014. Today is August 27th, 2021, the time is approximately 8:45. He's located at the Richard J. Donovan State Prison. The rest of us are joining via audio video conferencing on Microsoft Teams. We have, uh, several victim family members, as well as a surviving victim, as well as representatives and support persons, as well as some observers and staff members that are attending the hearing, so we're going to do a voice identification for everyone. This hearing is being recorded and there is going to be a transcript that will be created subsequently and be available as a public record upon request. It will also be provided to Mr. Sirhan regardless of the outcome, free of charge. As far as everyone else, no one else is allowed to record either audio or video or take pictures of the screen or anything of that nature without prior authorization, which to my knowledge there has been none. Also, I would ask everyone you, the people that are in the call now are authorized to attend, but if someone else were to enter the room that you're in, uh, coming or going, I would need to be advised

1 of that or you would need to ask them to leave because 2 they would not be authorized to attend. So those are sort
3 of the ground rules. I'm going to start with myself 4 stating my first name, last name, spelling my last name,
5 and then I'll prompt each person in turn and I'll go 6 through my list and if I miss anybody, I don't intend to, 7 but if I do, I'll ask at the end if anyone is still in 8 attendance that has not been identified. So, starting with 9 myself, my name is Robert Barton, B-A-R-T-O-N. I'm the 10 Presiding Commissioner for this hearing. Next will be our 11 Deputy Commissioner.

12 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Good morning, everyone.
13 My name is Teresa Meighan, last name is spelled M-E-I-G-H-
14 A-N. I am the Deputy Commissioner for Board of Parole
15 Hearings appearing by Microsoft Teams.

16 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Next will be Inmate 17 Counsel.

18 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Good morning to the 19 Commissioner and -- and Deputy Commissioner, Mr. Sirhan
20 and attendees. I am Angela Berry, B-E-R-R-Y.

21 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. And Mr.
22 Sirhan, first name, last name, spell your last name
23 please.

24 INMATE SIRHAN: I am Sirhan Sirhan, S-I-R-H-A-N.

25 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. And did I

1 get your CDCR number, correct?

2 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes. B21014.

3 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Thank you. All right, 4 next. I'm just gonna go in the order that I have on my 5 list, Mr. Schrade.

6 VICTIM SUPPORT/ATTORNEY BOHDAN: Good morning. Paul, 7 this is Denise Bohdan, Attorney for Mr. Paul Schrade. Paul 8 has just stepped away from the camera, but he is present
9 and we will both be appearing by Teams today.

10 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Will you spell his 11 last name for me please?

12 VICTIM SUPPORT/ATTORNEY BOHDAN: Certainly. S-C-H-R-A-13 D-E.

14 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And would you state 15 your first name, last name and spell your last.

16 VICTIM SUPPORT/ATTORNEY BOHDAN: Denise Bohdan, B
17 like Boy, O-H-D-A-N like Nancy.

18 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. And I'll 19 continue with his representatives. Uh, next, Ms. Abreu.

20 VICTIM'S REPRESENTATIVE ABREU: Hi, good morning. Um, 21 first name is Jennifer, last name is Abreu, A-B as in Boy, 22 R-E-U and I'm, uh, joining via Teams.

23 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And you're listed as 24 a representative from Mr. Schrade, correct?

25 VICTIM'S REPRESENTATIVE ABREU: That is correct, yes.

1 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And Ms. Bohdan, I
2 don't know if you said this, but you're a support person
3 for Mr. Schrade, correct?

4 VICTIM SUPPORT/ATTORNEY BOHDAN: That is correct. I'm 5 also his Attorney, um, for purposes of the hearing.

6 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: That's fine. I don't 7 think Mr. Schrade needs an Attorney for this hearing. As 8 far as next representative we have Mr. Groubert.

9 VICTIM'S REPRESENTATIVE GROUBERT: Uh, yeah, Mark
10 Groubert, Uh, M-A-R-K, uh, G-R-O-U-B-E-R-T. I am a support
11 person for, uh, Mr. Schrade.

12 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. And just 13 because it has a legal distinction, we have you listed as 14 a representative, victim representative.

15 VICTIM'S REPRESENTATIVE GROUBERT: That's true.

16 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. Thank you. All
17 right. Now we'll go to victim family members. Um, Mr.
18 Robert Kennedy, could your first name, last name?

19 VNOK ROBERT KENNEDY: Uh, yeah, Robert Kennedy III, 20 uh, K-E-N-N-E-D-Y.

21 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And Douglas. You're 22 on mute. You're on mute, sir. I need you to take, your off 23 mute.

24 VNOK DOUGLAS KENNEDY: Douglas Kennedy, K-E-N-N-E-D-
25 Y.

1 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right.

2 UNKNOWN: Oh my God.

3 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And we have both of 4 them attending as family members of victim Robert Kennedy.
5 Also, and I appreciate everyone doing this. I noticed 6 people have been doing it, when you're not speaking or 7 being asked to speak if you go back on mute that really 8 helps us with our recording cause we don't get background 9 feedback. All right, next, I'll go to observers and we 10 have a Mr. Deble, first name, last name, spell your last 11 please.

12 OBSERVER DEBLE: Sure, my name is Professor Paul 13 Deble and my last name is D as in <inaudible>, E as in 14 Edward, B as in <inaudible>

15 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: You came in really 16 faint, could I have you do that again louder so we get the 17 recording.

18 OBSERVER DEBLE: Absolutely. My name is Professor 19 Paul Deble, D-E-B-L-E and I am joining via on Teams.

20 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. And next 21 observer we have is Julie Watson.

22 OBSERVER/REPORTER WATSON: Oh, yes, uh, sorry, sorry.
23 Hello, yes, sorry, uh, this is Julie Watson, can you hear 24 me?

25 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: I can. First name,

1 last name, spell your last name please.

2 OBSERVER/REPORTER WATSON: Sure. It's, um, my last
3 name is Watson, W-A-T-S-O-N. My first name is Julie, J-U-
4 L-I-E and I am a reporter for the Associated Press.

5 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And my understanding 6 is you're serving in the capacity of pool reporter,
7 correct?

8 OBSERVER/REPORTER WATSON: Yes, that is correct.

9 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. And then we 10 have an observer from Board of Parole Hearings, Mr.
11 Mahoney.

12 OBSERVER CHIEF DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MAHONEY: Steven 13 Mahoney, M-A-H-O-N-E-Y, Associate Chief Deputy 14 Commissioner from Board of Parole Hearings observing only 15 today.

16 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And for your benefit
17 and Ms. Berry's and everyone else's, Mr. Mahoney is simply 18 a staff member with our office who's here as an observer.
19 He is not taking part in the decision. He will not take 20 part in the questioning of Mr. Sirhan. The only persons 21 that will be doing that from the Board is myself and Ms.
22 Meighan. Okay, let's see. I think I have identified 23 everyone. Is there anyone else on the hearing who I have 24 not had identify themselves? Good. All right. Thank you 25 everyone. Once again, Commissioner Meighan, do you want to 1 check the recording and make sure that we are.

2 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Yes, Commissioner.

3 Brief recess.

1 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: On the record.

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: This is Commissioner
3 Barton. We are back on the record. It's 8:54 AM. We have 4 all the parties previously identified for the subsequent 5 parole consideration hearing for Mr. Sirhan. We have 6 checked the recording; it appears to be working so we will 7 continue. I'm going to set the record first with some 8 administrative matters and, uh, before we get started with 9 anything substantive. The record shows that Mr. Sirhan was 10 received in 1969 from Los Angeles County for conviction of 11 first-degree murder and five counts of assault with intent 12 to commit murder for the killing of Senator Kennedy, as 13 well as the, uh, assault with intent to kill Mr. Schrade, 14 Mr. Stroll, Mr. Weisel, Ms. Evans and Mr. Goldstein, which 15 occurred on June 6th, 1968. He was originally sentenced to 16 the death penalty that was later modified in 1972 to life 17 in prison. That is the term that he's currently serving.
18 That is the sentence that he's currently serving, life 19 with the possibility of parole. He also, uh, this has 20 changed since his 2016 hearing, we now have Penal Code, 21 Section 3051 which qualifies Mr. Sirhan as a youth 22 offender as being someone, uh, 25 years of age or younger 23 at the time of the offense, so he now qualifies for what 24 we call youth parole eligibility. Um, and in deciding the 25 issue of suitability, this Panel is required to give great

1 weight to the youth offender status. In addition to which 2 he is over 60 and has served more than 25 years and 3 therefore qualifies for elderly parole consideration, 4 which we also will be extending in this hearing. The 5 hearing, as I stated before, is audio recorded. No one
6 else is allowed to record. Uh, I say this not because I
7 expect it to happen, but if for some reason there was a 8 disruption or there was a problem impacting our ability to 9 conclude the hearing, and what I mean by that someone 10 going off mute and either, um, interjecting or causing 11 feedback, uh, unless it's one of the essential parties 12 that I previously described, um, I will excise them from 13 the meeting basically, um, signing them off from the 14 meeting. I don't expect that to happen, but just letting 15 people know. There will be, the way the hearing works, 16 there will be, uh, some questioning initially between 17 myself and Mr. Sirhan and Ms. Berry regarding some 18 administrative matters and then myself and the Deputy 19 Commissioner would be questioning Mr. Sirhan. Uh, if at 20 any time anyone needs a, uh, break, again, with the 21 exception of the observers who are free to come and go 22 from the room that they're in if they choose to, if anyone 23 else however needs a break and wants us to stop the 24 proceedings to take a break, you simply need to let me
25 know and as long as it's reasonable and we're not doing it

1 every 10 minutes, um, I will accommodate that. In addition
2 to which, as I previously stated, if everyone is mindful 3 of, uh, remaining on mute, unless you are actually 4 speaking, that helps us with the recording as well. So let 5 me finish with the administrative issues. First thing I
6 need to do is swear you in Mr. Sirhan. Would you raise 7 your right hand, please? Do you solemnly swear or affirm 8 any testimony you give today is the truth, the whole truth 9 and nothing but the truth?

10 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, I do, sir.

11 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Thank you. Okay. I 12 show sir, a date of birth of March 19th, 1944. Is that 13 correct?

14 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, it is.

15 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: So that makes you 77
16 years old today?

17 INMATE SIRHAN: And a half, yes.

18 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. What my 19 daughters used to say when they were 6. I imagine that 20 half-years mean more to you at the beginning and at the 21 end, right, as we get older and when we're young. All 22 right. And I do show that again, based upon the date of 23 the crime, you would have been 24 at the time.

24 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes. Yes, sir.

25 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. All right. I

1 show that there is an education score of 8.5. I know you
2 got your high school diploma in 1963. You've also taken
3 college courses. I think you achieved an AA and at one 4 point they talked about you working towards a Bachelor's 5 degree. Did you ever get that?

6 INMATE SIRHAN: No, not yet. I've had, uh, I've been 7 too -- too involved in fulfilling my obligations to you 8 suggestions since last, uh, meeting by attending all 9 these, um -- um, self-help, uh, programs.

10 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: The reason I'm asking 11 right now, Mr. Sirhan really doesn't have to do with, um, 12 the rehabilitative aspects of your time, it's really just 13 so I can establish that you have the ability to understand 14 what we're doing today, and that you can effectively
15 communicate in English, reading and writing. And I know 16 they asked you this in 2016 when you said, even though 17 it's your second language, you're perfectly comfortable
18 and fluent in English, correct?

19 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, sir. I am.

20 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. And I know that 21 you have multiple health issues, I've read the entire 22 file. Trust me, I read lots of pages of files in this 23 case. So, um, I'm aware of all your health issues and then 24 your Attorney also submitted your medical records with 25 your permission, is that correct?

1 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, yes sir, she did.

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And the reason I
3 state that is under elderly parole we do consider 4 debilitating physical aspects of inmates, um, but only 5 with their permission. Because this is a public record, 6 once you start talking about them, you're waiving any 7 objection to those being public. In other words, you're 8 the one putting them out there for our consideration. So, 9 in looking through those it's apparent to me that you 10 would be on various medications, but listen to the 11 question I'm about to ask. What I need to know is are 12 there any medications that you're taking, and you don't 13 have to tell me what they are, that currently make you 14 unable to understand things. In other words, they impair 15 your ability to participate?

16 INMATE SIRHAN: No, sir.

17 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay.

18 INMATE SIRHAN: None at all.

19 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Good. And then I also 20 show that after, um, the incident in 2019, where your 21 throat was cut, you, it said you briefly attended CCCMS 22 with the therapist, is that correct?

23 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, I did. Uh, she -- she was the Ad
24 -- Ad Seg, uh, --

25 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay.

1 INMATE SIRHAN: psychologist.

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: It's just a yes or 3 no, that's fine.

4 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, sir.

5 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And the only reason I 6 asked that is if you're currently in treatment I need to 7 know if you're taking any medications for mental health 8 reasons. Are you?

9 INMATE SIRHAN: No, sir, I'm not.

10 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. Thank you.

11 INMATE SIRHAN: <inaudible>

12 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. And you've been 13 able to hear everything okay?

14 INMATE SIRHAN: Uh, for the most part, yes.

15 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, what's 16 important is that you hear me? Have you been able to hear
17 everything I've said?

18 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, sir. Yes, sir. I hear it
19 clearly.

20 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: So, you're not 21 wearing hearing aids? You don't need help hearing? Nothing 22 like that?

23 INMATE SIRHAN: No. No. No.

24 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. What about your 25 vision? Are you able to read without assistance?

1 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, I can. I -- I do that, yes.

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. You don't need 3 glasses or anything like that?

4 INMATE SIRHAN: No.

5 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. What about 6 sitting in the chair? Do you, are you able to sit in the 7 chair for the hearing?

8 INMATE SIRHAN: I'm right here. <inaudible>

9 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well sometimes 10 people, you know, they sit for a while and then they have 11 to move around or they have to stand up or they have 12 issues with back or legs or things like that. So, I know 13 you can sit in it right this moment, but if you need a 14 break at some point, uh, to stand up or something along 15 those lines, you need to let me know because I'm not there 16 in the room with you, I can't see that, okay?

17 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, sir. Thank you. Yes.

18 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Right. And were you 19 able to walk to the room on your own without help?

20 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, sir.

21 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: So, you --

22 INMATE SIRHAN: I was alone.

23 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: <inaudible> or 24 anything like that.

25 INMATE SIRHAN: No, no.

1 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. So, it
2 appears to me that we've accommodated any requirements you
3 would have to participate today, and it does not appear 4 that there's any issues, any other issues I need to 5 accommodate. Ms. Berry, are you aware of any others?

6 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: I am not.

7 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. Thank you. All
8 right, sir. We're gonna talk about your rights now. You 9 signed a Notice of Hearing Rights with Counselor Flores on 10 October 6th of 2020. I recognize that this case got, um, 11 postpone at your request once back in March, so some of 12 these things took place before that, but it looks like 13 your interview with Dr. Cirimele, that's spelled C-I-R-I-14 M-E-L-E, the forensic psychologist from the Board, took 15 place on December 28th of 2020 and it looks like they gave 16 you copies of that report. Uh, have you been able to 17 review that report? I'm talking about your most --

18 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes.

19 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: recent one.

20 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, I did read it, yes.

21 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. And it rates
22 you as a low risk. You also had an opportunity to view 23 your Central File on April 8th of 2021, which you 24 declined. You're not required to do so, I just have to put 25 on the record that you had that opportunity, okay?

1 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, sir. Thank you. Yes.

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. You have 3 one more right that, um, I'm assuming you talked to your 4 Attorney about, but I'm going to ask her as well, and that 5 is the right to an in-person hearing. You have a right to 6 have your Attorney sitting next to you, to have the 7 Commissioners in the room, because of the pandemic we're 8 not able to do that, um, I think that's obvious to 9 everyone. So, we're doing this hearing virtually, and 10 we've been doing hearings virtually since the beginning of 11 the pandemic. However, as a matter of due process, because 12 we can't afford you an in-person, we're also allowing 13 inmates to postpone if they'd like to request an in-person 14 hearing. That would mean to the next available date, which 15 right now is running between five and seven months. All I 16 could guarantee is that it would be between six and eleven 17 months. Um, I don't have a crystal ball, I can't say that 18 for sure. You know, that'll be happening in December, 19 January, we're being told that, we're planning for it, but 20 no guarantees. Have you talked to your Attorney about that 21 option?

22 INMATE SIRHAN: I believe I have, and I would leave 23 it up to her to make that decision, sir.

24 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, it's your 25 decision, not hers, but let me ask her. Have you consulted

1 with your client on what would be in his best interest?

2 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Uh, yes. Commissioner, we 3 have discussed this and in light of the extension of 4 Executive Order N2620, uh, we are prepared to go forward
5 today.

6 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. All right. So,
7 what that means, and I need your answer to this, Mr.
8 Sirhan, Ms. Berry can't waive your rights for you, what 9 that means is if you don't like the outcome of this 10 hearing, you can't come back later and object and say that 11 I didn't get my hearing in-person, I want a brand new one 12 right now, you can't do that, okay?

13 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

14 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay, so by going 15 forward you're accepting that this format satisfies your 16 rights to a hearing, correct?

17 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, sir.

18 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay.

19 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Uh, may I interject
20 Commissioner?

21 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Sure.

22 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Thank you. Um, and of course, 23 uh, prior to this starting, um, you had indicated that if 24 at any time Mr. Sirhan and I need to have a confidential 25 communication that, um, when the time is right you will

1 allow us to take that break to be able to do that.

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: I'm -- I'm not there
3 yet, but you just said what I was --

4 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Oh --

5 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: about to say.

6 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: sure -- sure, okay. So -- so 7 -- so our agreement was contingent upon that. Thank you.

8 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Yeah. I'm -- I'm 9 moving in that direction, give me a minute. When I
10 actually, say we're starting to hearing, if I haven't 11 covered anything by then -- then by all means let me know.
12 All right. So that was the next matter. And I said that 13 for everyone's entitled to a break if they need one. Um, 14 obviously again, we don't have the ability for your 15 Attorney to sit there next to you or confer with you, uh, 16 or, you know, have a separate room or meeting place, so if 17 for some reason, either you or she feels it's necessary to 18 have a confidential conference, what we would do is take a 19 recess, your camera and video and audio would be put on 20 mute as would Ms. Berry's and the prison officials would 21 put you in touch with one another. One of the other things
22 I'm going to put on the record, because I just now 23 realized I didn't state it on the record is that we do not 24 have a representative of the Los Angeles DA's office 25 joining us, uh, prosecutor as we have in the past pursuant

1 to their memo to the Board and so they're not attending.
2 However, we do have prior transcripts, we do have prior 3 arguments of the prosecutor's office to whatever degree 4 they remain relevant is yet to be seen, and we also have,
5 um, a letter in opposition from, uh, the Los Angeles Law 6 Enforcement that was submitted. So, all of that gets 7 considered along with other letters from the public and 8 other letters from family members, et cetera, that we 9 received, even though they may not be here with us. In 10 addition to that, I need to, uh, advise you that if for 11 some reason, um, there's a break or we lose somebody from 12 the hearing, I'm trying to pay attention to that, but I 13 have, I think, 12 people on my screen, so I may miss it.
14 Um, and if myself or the, uh, Deputy Commissioner, um, 15 spots that, we'll immediately stop and give the person a 16 little while to reconnect, uh, unless again, it's one of 17 the observers, in which case we won't wait as long, um, 18 but we'll do our best, okay? So that's for everyone's 19 <inaudible> -

20 INMATE SIRHAN: Okay.

21 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: - Uh, as we've 22 been receiving new documents up until yesterday, Ms.
23 Berry, um, I confirmed with you that we did have all of 24 the latest documents from you. I'm assuming that Mr.
25 Sirhan did not bring anything with him to the room today

1 that's new, is that correct?

2 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: I have nothing further.

3 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Nothing further. He 4 said nothing further. Okay. All right. Now, Ms. Berry, do 5 you have any objections that you want to state for the 6 record before we get started or have ruled on before we 7 get started?

8 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Um, I would just make a note
9 Commissioner and Deputy Commissioner with all due respect 10 that PC, uh, 3041, um, requires that a Board member from 11 the previous hearing be present, unless it is not 12 feasible. And, um, I would simply in -- invite, um, uh, 13 Commissioner, um, you to state for the record, uh, why 14 it's not feasible so that we can have a complete record.

15 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, okay. Um, I'm 16 gonna amend that slightly. First of all, Commissioner 17 Roberts, who was the prior Commissioner is no longer on 18 the Board, so he's unavailable to conduct this hearing.
19 Uh, secondly, as far as your request, are you requesting 20 that this hearing be postponed so that Deputy Commissioner 21 Stanton can be appointed to hear the case?

22 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Uh, no, I understand that, 23 um, that it is not feasible based on the conversations we 24 had off the record. I'm just trying to make --

25 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well --

1 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: a complete record here, so.

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: and -- and I guess my 3 point would be, if -- if it's an objection without a 4 remedy, then it's really not an objection. I mean, you're 5 willing to go forward without Deputy Commissioner Stanton, 6 is that correct?

7 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: I am willing to go forward.

8 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. And Mr. Sirhan, 9 you heard what your Attorney said, do you agree with that 10 clearly?

11 INMATE SIRHAN: Fully, yes, sir. Yes, sir, I do.

12 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. Okay. So, 13 with that stated, no other objections, correct?

14 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: That's correct.

15 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. So let me 16 again, for the record, indicate that we have your Central 17 File, we have all your prior transcripts, all your prior 18 Risk Assessments, all your prior testimony. This hearing 19 is not about retrying the case, and obviously that some 20 issues in terms of the case facts and your responsibility 21 for them and how that's changed over the years may become 22 relevant to our decision at the end of the day, if we have 23 to make a decision regarding, uh, implausible or plausible 24 denial and how that bears on someone's suitability, we'll 25 cover that when we get to it. Um, however, what I show is

1 that you appeared last in front of the Board in February
2 of 2016, and it was Commissioner Roberts and Stanton. At 3 that time, you were given a five-year denial and then as I 4 said, there was a request to postpone in March so your 5 Attorney could, uh, help prepare you for the hearing, uh, 6 that has all now come to fruition and we're here now for 7 the hearing. You've been to many hearings, Mr. Sirhan, but 8 I'm obligated to ask you if you have any questions about 9 the process that we follow.

10 INMATE SIRHAN: None at all, nothing so far.

11 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. All right. And 12 again, I need you to tell me if you don't understand 13 something or if you, um, can't hear me, I need you to tell 14 me that, okay?

15 INMATE SIRHAN: Will do. Thank you.

16 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. So, there 17 are some things, we're not gonna go over necessarily every 18 factor or every single thing in your file, first of all it 19 would take us days. But secondly, because what the purpose
20 for myself and Commissioner Meighan today is, to determine 21 whether or not you're currently posing any unreasonable
22 risk to public safety. And in doing that, we rely on a lot 23 of different things, a lot of risk factors and other 24 protective factors and various things that we've been 25 trained based on the research and our own experience to

1 evaluate. And as you may recall from your last hearing, 2 we're not necessarily here about the guilt or innocence or 3 legitimacy of your conviction. We are required to accept 4 as true the conviction until some other court overturns it 5 if that were to ever happen. So, at this point, that's 6 what we're proceeding on those convictions and those 7 facts. That said, um, in the past, you've chosen to talk 8 about some aspects of the crime, talk about limited 9 aspects of the crime, talk about it on a question-by-10 question basis. Um, today, are you willing to talk about 11 the crime or is there going to be some limitation on 12 questions you choose to answer or not answer because you 13 have that right.

14 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: May I, um, answer that in 15 lieu of Mr. Sirhan?

16 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, you can 17 certainly tell me what you've advised him, but he's gonna 18 ultimately have to affirm that.

19 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Yes, of course. Yes. So, he 20 and I have discussed this and we would prefer to do it on 21 a question-by-question basis and of course, feel free to 22 ask.

23 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. Well, that 24 makes it actually a little more laborious, but we'll do it 25 that way.

1 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Um, my, so this is my concern
2 Commissioner. I, as you indicated, we are not here to re-
3 litigate and so I don't want to get caught up too much on 4 pressing him for details that he has claimed he doesn't 5 remember. So that --

6 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Yeah --

7 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: that's where I'm trying to 8 avoid.

9 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And we are mindful of 10 his prior testimony and I doubt someone's memory got 11 better over five years, uh, most likely it's gotten worse.
12 However, just so you know, and in all transparency, Mr.
13 Sirhan, one of the reasons for, well, let me ask you, why 14 do you think you were denied last time? What were the 15 reasons?

16 INMATE SIRHAN: Well, the -- the -- the last reason
17 that Mr. Robert said I stated was that I expressed none, 18 no remorse and I felt that I did. And that --

19 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay.

20 INMATE SIRHAN: that's what he, that's the reason 21 that he hung his hat on for the most part, exc -- in 22 addition to saying that, uh, I, uh, lacked, uh, obtaining, 23 uh, life skills and, uh, and familiarity with, uh, anger 24 issues and, uh, and similar topics.

25 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Right.

1 INMATE SIRHAN: He -- he denied --

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: So, so I have five --

3 INMATE SIRHAN: <inaudible>

4 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: I have five.

5 INMATE SIRHAN: I'm sorry.

6 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: You -- you just told 7 me two, I had five things that they, as you said, hung
8 their hat on. Okay. Two of them you got. He felt that you
9 were lacking in remorse. If you recall, Commissioner 10 Stanton, one of his issues was he felt the lack of 11 credibility in claiming selective memory, that you can 12 remember some things before, can remember some things 13 after, but you just couldn't remember what happened during 14 the shooting. Um, he didn't find that to be credible. Uh, 15 and in the sense that you went from at the trial admitting 16 culpability, and I understand your testimony, that was 17 based upon what you felt your Attorney was telling you you 18 did, I've heard you testify, or not heard you I've read 19 you testified to that in the past. And then there was a 20 time when you admitted to basically what Mr. Schrade's, 21 uh, belief is, and that is that you fired your weapon 22 several times and may have hit other persons, uh, other 23 than, uh, Senator Kennedy and that he was shot by someone 24 else not you. And then your last hearing, one of the 25 concerns was that you had regressed from that and said,

1 you're not responsible for anything, you don't believe you 2 shot anybody. And that was based on what people are 3 telling you, you know, that based on other outside 4 investigations I suppose into different things. All of 5 that being the case, that was Commissioner Stanton's issue
6 in terms of credibility. And the reason that becomes 7 important is because when someone denies either in part or 8 in full committing the crime, what Commissioner Roberts 9 talked about was a lack of insight, a lack of personal 10 responsibility. And if you then don't know why you did 11 something and circumstances were to reoccur, the concern 12 would be you would do those things again. Okay? That's 13 what I got out of that transcript. Does any of that sound 14 familiar?

15 INMATE SIRHAN: It sounds familiar, but I would want 16 to disagree with his -- with his, the final decision that 17 I would repeat and reoffend. I have no such intention 18 whatsoever.

19 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And that is what -- 20 that is what I'm gonna focus on with you, okay? So, let's 21 start there. Obviously in the last hearing, you're, what 22 some could consider an unstable social history, certainly 23 a dysfunctional childhood growing up in a war-torn zone 24 and moving to a whole another country when you're 11 year, 25 12 years old is not the normal childhood, would you agree?

1 INMATE SIRHAN: Definitely, yes. It was is not --

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: At the time --

3 INMATE SIRHAN: healthy --

4 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay.

5 INMATE SIRHAN: childhood.

6 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Not at all. And at 7 the time of the crime, you said you were sort of wayward, 8 you didn't have a job, even though you took care of your 9 sister for a while, um, her death was a blow to you. You 10 had, um, kind of this, not sure what you were doing with 11 your life, right?

12 INMATE SIRHAN: Pretty much, yes. Yes.

13 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. And in the 14 past, that's been an aggravating factor in the sense that 15 it shows what we call lack of offender, well, an unstable
16 social history. However, under the youth offender law 17 which has come into play since your last hearing, that is 18 now viewed as something that is part of youth offender 19 factors, so it's no longer an aggravating factor as we 20 look at someone's crimes at that age, um, but actually a 21 factor that we consider in -- in the backdrop of what was 22 going on. So, in that sense, what was your plan for your 23 life at 24? What did you see yourself doing or becoming?

24 INMATE SIRHAN: I was trying I think to put myself in 25 that, in a -- in a position where I can develop a career

1 and maybe go back to school and -- and get a -- a -- a 2 more, you know, meaningful job and, uh, you know, get 3 married and settled down and, you know, be a -- a regular, 4 you know, a family man and -- and -- and a good solid
5 member of the community. And that's really what -- what I
6 looked, uh, forward to and, uh, dreamed about doing and I 7 hope that I can have a -- a chance to do that with 8 whatever's left in my life when I do get out of prison.

9 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: So, what were you
10 doing in that regard? What were you doing to get to there?

11 INMATE SIRHAN: I was -- I was just trying to get 12 myself ready to do that, by going to -- to school, by -- 13 by starting to go back to school and, uh, and learning 14 some trade or maybe some academic courses. I like foreign 15 languages, that might've been one of my favorite, uh, 16 topics and, uh, careers if, uh, if I had that chance. If 17 that, if it turned out that I, you know, if this isn't, if 18 this nightmare didn't happen.

19 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, what I'm asking 20 you is in June of 1968, were you signed up for school, 21 were you in summer school classes, were you gonna sign up 22 in the Fall? What was the plan?

23 INMATE SIRHAN: No, I wa --, no I had noth -- nothing 24 definite at -- at that ti -- at that time, no.

25 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay.

1 INMATE SIRHAN: No, I was just a -- a, yeah. I had 2 nothing planned as of that time, no.

3 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. At that time, 4 were you still having, um, questions or problems with the 5 Israeli-Arab conflict? Is that something that you've 6 followed at the time?

7 INMATE SIRHAN: I didn't really follow it -- it came 8 to me, you know. The -- the war itself and the coverage of 9 that war and watching the -- the sadness of the victims of 10 that war, the refugees and just the people, because I put 11 myself in those people.

12 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: The inmate appears to 13 be emotional.

14 INMATE SIRHAN: <inaudible> it could have been me.

15 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. It could have 16 been you. Take a deep breath. I'm not trying to revisit 17 your trauma.

19 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Take a deep breath.

20 INMATE SIRHAN: <inaudible>

21 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Take a deep breath --
22 take a deep breath. Force yourself to breathe. Take a few 23 deep breaths. The reason I asked the question is, one of 24 the concerns, okay, one of the concerns would be, how do 25 you feel now because that conflict has not gone away.

1 There's still conflicts in the Middle East involving the 2 same parties. How do you feel about that today? You
3 obviously are -- are still able to touch a nerve cause you 4 just got very emotional talking about it.

5 INMATE SIRHAN: Um, empathy -- empathy caused this 6 sir, not -- not just outright to sadness about it. I 7 sympathized. I see the -- the misery that those people are 8 experiencing and it's painful and they're my kindred -- 9 they're my kindred and I -- I wouldn't be a human being if 10 I just ignored their misery and their misfortunes in this 11 life. Although --

12 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: I understand that --

13 INMATE SIRHAN: -- although whatever I would want to 14 do in the future, it would be towards resolving that 15 problem peacefully --

16 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well and that was the 17 next --

18 INMATE SIRHAN: and helping.

19 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: that's the next line 20 of inquiry, okay? Because no one expects you to not have 21 empathy, regardless which side. I mean, I would hope that 22 you would have empathy for both sides. Anybody who's a 23 victim of a bombing regardless of their side, right?

24 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, sir. True.

25 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: I mean, do children

1 of Israelis deserve to be bombed? No. No, more than 2 children of Palestinians.

3 INMATE SIRHAN: True -- true, but again, when I was a 4 -- when I was a little boy experiencing that we -- we 5 didn't, we didn't have a chance to observe the Israelis
6 children. We had enough problems watching our own, you 7 know, kindred, our own children, our own --

8 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Let --

9 INMATE SIRHAN: - neighbors.

10 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: let me ask you this - 11 - let me ask you this. You are now 77, right?

12 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes.

13 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Been through what 14 you've been through. What would you go back and tell your 15 24-year-old self about viewing what was happening or 16 acting about it?

17 INMATE SIRHAN: I would see it in a historical persp 18 -- from a historical perspective as this is a part of 19 human life, that conflicts occurred, not just between the 20 Palestinians and -- and Israelis, but throughout the -- 21 the world where there's a, you know, dissension and 22 disagreements and, uh, and, uh, just you know, people
23 fighting each other, countries fighting each other. So, it 24 -- it -- it's a part of the -- it's a part of human nature
25 and it's -- it's - it's history really and I would really

1 dis --, uh, disengage from that myself because I'm too old 2 and I'm just interested in doing other things than being 3 involved with all the politics of this world. There are -- 4 there are other peoples who are doing that and I feel that 5 they're doing a good job at it without my interference in 6 that area.

7 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Yeah. And I'm not 8 saying you would go become some spokesperson for the UN or 9 something. My questions are more hypothetical, okay, so I
10 need you to think abstractly. In other words, for example, 11 if you were to go back to Jordan, you said you're too old 12 to do anything anyway, but what if there were young people 13 that wanted to make you, their hero? Because you acted 14 against the United States who was helping Israel and they 15 wanted to make you a hero. I know it happened once a long 16 time ago, and you said your mother put an end to it, but 17 if it were to happen now, what would you tell those young 18 men?

19 INMATE SIRHAN: I -- I -- I think that the peaceful 20 means are -- are the best way to resolve that conflict in 21 the Middle East by meeting and by -- by -- by, uh, give 22 and take pro --, uh, procedure, proc -- processes between 23 us and the Israelis. Uh, eh, yes, that's all I would say 24 that, uh, that there are other ways than violence to 25 resolve conflicts and, uh, I --

1 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay.

2 INMATE SIRHAN: endorse think about it.

3 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And similarly, if you
4 were, um, to stay in the United States, and I have no
5 idea, and just so you know, and maybe for your Attorney's 6 benefit cause she's submitted some paperwork from 7 immigration which really doesn't have a bearing on us, we 8 don't have any control. This -- this Panel has no control
9 whether you get deported or not. Whether you voluntarily
10 deport or whether, uh, Immigration Services ends up 11 deporting you. I know your Attorney made a public records
12 request, apparently nothing came of that. I know we show a 13 detainer in your record from sometime back, so whatever 14 happens with that happens. But what you need to understand 15 is as a Panel, we're concerned about public safety. That's 16 not just American safety, that's anybody's safety. So, for 17 us, the questions when it comes to for parole plans or for 18 whether or not you pose an unreasonable risk to public 19 safety, it doesn't matter whether that you ended up 20 paroling here or in Jordan or any other country. To me, 21 the concern would be that you would become some type of,
22 you know, symbol or lightening rod to ferment more 23 violence.

24 INMATE SIRHAN: I can see that. I -- I -- I see that 25 point, but I discount that wholeheartedly. The same -- the

1 same argument can be said or made that I can be a 2 peacemaker and a contributor to, uh, a friendly non-3 violent way of resolving the issues. And that's, if I -- 4 if I do do that, which is really unlikely because my -- my 5 whole orientation right now is to be with my younger 6 brother who needs my help. He's -- he's medically, eh, 7 pretty much incapacitated vision-wise and he needs my 8 help. I want to be there for him as -- as -- as my main 9 goal once I'm out and I hope that you would seriously 10 consider that and I beg you to consider.

11 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well -- well, and -- 12 and I appreciate that. And certainly, that's a strong 13 motivation for you to do so, but I think we, you would be 14 naive and I would certainly be more naive if I didn't 15 think that were you to be released people weren't gonna 16 request to interview you and that if either one of us 17 would think that the topic of the modern conflict wouldn't 18 be raised with you.

19 INMATE SIRHAN: It -- it -- it, I, it's - it's hard
20 to foresee, I don't expect it, but if it does come, it 21 does occur, I would be more of a peacemaker than a -- then 22 a rebel or a troublemaker over there and here.

23 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. All right. So, 24 I do have, um, a few other questions for you. There was 25 discussion last time and you've admitted and, uh, and tell

1 me if you changed your mind, that there was for you on 2 that evening, um, a period, and I -- I couldn't really 3 tell, looking back through the records I was trying to set 4 a time period, but I couldn't really tell if it was just 5 shortly before or within the four or five hours before 6 that you drank the four Tom Collins. Do you remember 7 talking about that?

8 INMATE SIRHAN: I remember talking to about that and 9 I discussed it with the -- with the psychologist hired by 10 my Attorneys who spent some 70 hours with me <inaudible>.

11 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Yeah, I read it -- I
12 read it, you don't have to tell me, I read Dr. Brown's 13 report. That's what I'm saying. You can rest assured that 14 I have read everything in your file, trust me.

15 INMATE SIRHAN: Okay. Thank you.

16 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And so as far as, you 17 know, stuff that's there, what I want you to focus on is 18 the questions I'm asking you because they have a specific 19 purpose. As I told you at the beginning, we have plenty of 20 records of what you said in the past, plenty of records of 21 what act, what has happened, what you've been convicted 22 of. What I'm trying to determine today is whether you 23 currently pose an unreasonable risk to public safety, so 24 that's what my questions are geared toward. And I'm 25 looking at risk areas. One was your attitude towards the 1 conflict and how you would approach that if you were 2 paroled and you're saying that you would do what you could 3 to advocate peace, right?

4 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes.

5 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: This next area is 6 one, I may not be as concerned as some of the last Panels
7 that told you to go to substance abuse programming. I 8 don't think there's anything wrong with going to that 9 programming. I don't think that it's gonna hurt you 10 necessarily because I think any programming, um, can help.
11 You can take things from it that benefit. But my 12 understanding is that you were not a, uh, a steady 13 drinker, that it was a social occasional thing for you.

14 INMATE SIRHAN: I -- I -- I, ye--, I could count the 15 number of times that I drank liquor maybe on -- on -- on 16 my hand.

17 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Me too. So that makes 18 two of us. But here's the thing. I also know that that 19 means your tolerance was very low.

20 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, yes, I, yes. I again --

21 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: So that -- that's a 22 yes, that's fine. And then the other thing that you said
23 last time was that you came to an understanding, and I 24 don't know if this was from one of your classes or what, 25 that at least to the degree that you had those drinks, it

1 impaired your judgment and ability to function.

2 INMATE SIRHAN: That night -- that night, it must 3 have. Something must have influenced me to -- to -- to 4 shoot, to fire those two shots. And I -- I, the liquor was 5 a part of it. It must have been that, just there's a part 6 of me --

7 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: So, help me with that 8 -- help me with that part of it. When, how long do you 9 think it was before the shooting that you had the first 10 drink?

11 INMATE SIRHAN: Oh my gosh --

12 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Ballpark.

13 INMATE SIRHAN: An hour or two hours.

14 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay.

15 INMATE SIRHAN: Maybe longer.

16 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: That's what I'm 17 trying to figure out.

18 INMATE SIRHAN: Yeah, it -- it -- that night was a 19 very hot night, it was a June night, it was summer. There 20 were a lot of people there. There's a lot of, the area was 21 very warm, very, you know, it's -- it was warm. And there 22 was nothing, you know, there were, I couldn't find any, 23 uh, sodas or drinks or Cokes or anything else to drink.
24 And, and, and, and I could, I knew I could consume these 25 what's the name of it, Tom Collins because -- because they

1 were easy -- they were easy to -- to -- to drink. They 2 reminded me of a -- of a cool -- of, uh, lemonade instead
3 of hard liquor. If it's hard, if it was hard liquor, none 4 -- none of this, not the, I wouldn't have been involved in 5 the in -- in -- in this, uh, situation because I --

6 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, I mean it was 7 hard liquor. That's what Tom Collins has in it --

8 INMATE SIRHAN: But -- but see, that's -- that's how 9 much, that's -- that's how little I know about liquor.

10 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay --

11 INMATE SIRHAN: but it was easier for me to swallow.
12 It was easier to drink then -- then hard liquor.

13 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: I'm not asking you
14 why you drank, I, that's not the point of the question.
15 What I'm trying to figure out, and again, maybe this is 16 just my experience. I've been a police officer. I've given 17 people tests, you know, I've been a prosecutor, I've 18 prosecuted many -- many drunk driving cases, cases 19 involving alcohol. So, I'm trying to get a sense of how 20 inebriated you were. And I know basically how much alcohol 21 is in Tom Collins, not because I drink them, but because 22 I've handled those cases. So, you've already testified in 23 the past, you felt you were too impaired to drive, right?

24 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes.

25 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: So, you knew that,

1 you knew at the time that you were off, in other words,
2 you weren't of, you know, functioning the way you normally 3 would function.

4 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, sir. I was impaired in that -- 5 that sense.

6 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And you also said 7 that you had training as far as shooting goes, prior to 8 going to the range you said you were a cadet or something?

9 INMATE SIRHAN: You, I was in the Cadet Corps in -- 10 in, uh, in high school?

11 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay.

12 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes.

13 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And there's a safety 14 portion of that, right?

15 INMATE SIRHAN: There's a --

16 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Gun safety. When 17 you're in the Cadet Corps, there's a gun safety.

18 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, yes, yes.

19 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: What do they say 20 about alcohol and guns?

21 INMATE SIRHAN: They don't mix. They don't --

22 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Yeah.

23 INMATE SIRHAN: - mix.

24 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Did you think about 25 that? I mean, did you carry your gun, uh, and it was a

1 revolver. Did you have a holster for it or did you carry 2 it in a jacket, well it was summer, did you put it in your 3 pants loop, in your pocket? Where'd you carry it?

4 INMATE SIRHAN: I kept it in his original purchase 5 box.

6 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. But when you
7 carried it around, like that evening, how did you carry 8 it?

9 INMATE SIRHAN: That's the thing that I honestly 10 don't remember.

11 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, it had to be in 12 your waistband or your pocket. Those are the only choices.

13 INMATE SIRHAN: I -- I must have brought it in, but I
14 don't remember having it and I would take responsibility 15 for bringing it in and I take responsibility for firing 16 the -- the shots in there.

17 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay.

18 INMATE SIRHAN: but, uh, and --

19 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: We've covered that.
20 I'm at, I'm trying to get you to back up. At some point, 21 you know you got a gun and you know you've been drinking.
22 Right? But it didn't occur to you at that point, Gee, my 23 training should kick in and I -- I should not even touch 24 the gun while I've been drinking.

25 INMATE SIRHAN: At that time, I was chasing that

1 girl.

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Right. So, were you
3 gonna impress her? Was that the idea?

4 INMATE SIRHAN: She was, she was my number one, uh, 5 <inaudible> attraction at that -- at that period of time.

6 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, I've known guys
7 who try to impress girls by saying, Hey, I've got a gun, 8 like somehow that's impressive.

9 INMATE SIRHAN: I don't remember doing that, no.

10 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay.

11 INMATE SIRHAN: I don't remember saying that or 12 talking to her in that regard.

13 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. But you do 14 remember, um, drinking and you do remember that you had 15 the gun and you're telling me right now that you did not 16 follow what you'd been trained, which is not to mix guns 17 and alcohol.

18 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes. But again, the, you're right -- 19 you're right.

20 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. And then as far 21 as your feelings aside and I'm, it -- it may not be 22 evident to you, but what I'm doing is going through the 23 very risk factors that were identified last time, okay, in 24 terms of whether or not I feel those are still risks. So, 25 we talk about the alcohol. I'm assuming at this point,

1 you've been 55 years alcohol-free, what would your plan be 2 if you were released, would you ever drink again?

3 INMATE SIRHAN: I want to remain alcohol-free and I
4 will never be around liquor or beers even, or anything
5 like that. I would never even look at liquor, uh, 6 advertisement.

7 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. And then the 8 second, uh, the second concern they had, and I think it's 9 at page, it's one of the transcript notes that I wrote 10 down, is whether or not you had coping skills for anger 11 management.

12 INMATE SIRHAN: At the -- at the time, I didn't 13 understand that anger is such a complicated mode of 14 behavior. What I've, eh, since then, with all the reading 15 and the research and the study that I have done of -- of 16 anger, it, uh, it became clear that it's a process. It's a 17 continuum, the, uh, continuum of activity and interactions
18 with -- within myself and with others. And, uh, it -- it -
19 - it was -- it was a, in fact -- in fact I have a whole 20 pamphlet over here just to show you that, uh, it was --

21 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Here's the thing I 22 can read the pamphlet. I -- I know what -- what the 23 courses teach. What I'm trying to figure out is what 24 you've learned. And you're right, there's a continuum. It 25 starts out, you can be annoyed. I drove to work today,

1 somebody cut me off. Sure, I got upset, frustrated with 2 it. But I have two choices, right, on how to deal with 3 that. A good one and a bad one --

4 INMATE SIRHAN: Exactly.

5 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Right?

6 INMATE SIRHAN: Exactly. Exactly.

7 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Right.

8 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes.

9 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: So, what do you think 10 the good choice would be --

11 INMATE SIRHAN: The good choice would --

12 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: in my situation.

13 INMATE SIRHAN: is -- is to -- to -- to relax, to 14 leave the scene and to think about it and to try to 15 resolve whatever is outstanding in your thinking process, 16 that would, uh, either lead to violence or discord or cou 17 -- or lead to peace and, uh, and safety for yourself and 18 for others.

19 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: I -- I turned on the 20 radio and I changed lanes, okay, exactly what you're 21 saying. But I had to first recognize that I was angry in 22 the first place, right? Cause the bad choice is to go up 23 and tailgate the guy, or try to cut him off or flip him 24 off or beat my horn or all of that stuff that's only gonna 25 make the situation worse. So, what I'm trying to figure

1 out is whether you've developed that, it's a phrase we use 2 called emotional intelligence.

3 INMATE SIRHAN: Okay. I have conditioned myself now 4 and abstracted from all this information that I have 5 research this tactic, that whatever, if it is negative, if 6 it's gonna lead to any form of a conflict with anyone, 7 that I just cease and desist and walk away from the 8 situation and avoid it.

9 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay.

10 INMATE SIRHAN: And no matter what it is, who it is 11 involving and anything that would cause me to re-offend 12 and that's --

13 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay, so that's -- 14 that's step one.

15 INMATE SIRHAN: - that's why you have my word on that 16 -- you have my word on that.

17 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. Mr. Sirhan,
18 that's step 1, okay. But emotional intelligence actually 19 has four steps. Okay. The first one is, and you kind of 20 skipped over it, the first one is to be aware that you're 21 in a situation like that, or you're getting angry. A guy 22 cuts in front of you for the phone or cuts in front of you 23 at chow, what are -- what are the physical symptoms that 24 you feel, and I know it happens every day in prison, I was 25 also the inspector general for six years, I -- I know what

1 happens in prisons. So that happens, how do you recognize 2 physically or physiologically in yourself that you're 3 getting upset? What -- what do you feel?

4 INMATE SIRHAN: I would -- I would feel that -- that 5 the indignation that a person would want to cut into the 6 phone line. But again, I would also empathize with him and 7 see what problems he might be suffering from what urgency 8 he might have in wanting to, uh, get on the phone that 9 quickly or in front of, uh, another person so that maybe - 10 - maybe he has a legitimate, you know, need to -- to get 11 on that phone. So, I have to give and take like, you know, 12 pretty much in -- in that -- in that situation, given what 13 the other person, uh, what his needs are and what the, 14 what -- what -- what the circumstances are <inaudible>

15 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: So that's -- that's 16 the definition of empathy, putting yourself in their 17 shoes, trying to see things from a different perspective.
18 You didn't do that when you were 24, did you?

19 INMATE SIRHAN: Well, I was young. I was imp -- imp -
20 - impulsive. I, you know, it, and -- and -- and I wish I
21 was -- I wish I had the maturity then that I have now --

22 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: I agree.

23 INMATE SIRHAN: with the -- the -- the perspective
24 inside then what happened.

25 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. Let's get back

1 -- let's get back to what we were talking about, because I 2 want to finish on this topic. So, the first step is to 3 recognize, you said that you're indignant or you're upset
4 about it. The second one is to avoid the conflict, right?
5 Not -- not -- not engage. What's the third one?

6 INMATE SIRHAN: I would relax. I would rethink about 7 it and I would, uh, return to the guy and -- and see what, 8 uh, how --

9 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, that's down the 10 road -- that's down the road. The third one, you, like you 11 started, you said, you'd relax. You have to do coping 12 skills. If in the past your coping skill was, you just 13 said to act impulsively or selfishly cause you were young, 14 now, what are your coping skills? If you feel, because 15 even though I got cut off, even though I changed lanes, I 16 still wasn't happy about it, right, so I gotta find some 17 way to release that negative emotion, because if you keep 18 it bottled up inside what happens?

19 INMATE SIRHAN: It -- it's gonna explode. It's gonna 20 raise --

21 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Yeah.

22 INMATE SIRHAN: -- it's gonna, you know, build --

23 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And all of your 24 feelings about the unrest in the Middle East exploded in a 25 terrible way that night, right?

1 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes. Yes.

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: So, I need to know
3 that you

4 INMATE SIRHAN: <inaudible>

5 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: -- developed emotional 6 intelligence.

7 INMATE SIRHAN: I -- I agree.

8 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: So how do you cope?
9 How do you relieve stress? How do you, after you avoid the 10 conflict, that doesn't mean that you're still not upset 11 that the guy took your place, how do you get rid of that?

12 INMATE SIRHAN: I would really detach myself from it 13 now. I would --

14 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Yeah <inaudible> how?

15 INMATE SIRHAN: I would <inaudible>.

16 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Give me -- give me 17 physical examples of -- of what you would do instead of -- 18 of reacting, what would you do instead?

19 INMATE SIRHAN: I would -- I would, uh, observe it, I 20 would analyze it, I would think it through and see how 21 who's right and who's wrong, make my own judgment and 22 reason about it.

23 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: What if you're right
24 -- what if you're right and he's wrong?

25 INMATE SIRHAN: If I am right -- if I am right, then,

1 uh, it -- it -- it would be a process within my own mind,
2 rather than, uh, extended to others in -- in a violent 3 way. I would never --

4 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: How do you let it go 5 --

6 INMATE SIRHAN: - do that --

7 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: - how do you let it 8 go?

9 INMATE SIRHAN: I would -- I would let it go by just 10 -- just, uh, let, eh, dismissing it, just dropping it from 11 my consciousness, don't think about it.

12 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: That's very hard to 13 do. I mean, there is some people that can do that -- that 14 can redirect cognitively, but I doubt you or I are those 15 people. You know maybe there's some Buddhist monks out 16 there that could do that, but I think as human beings
17 we're still going to have those emotions. What I'm trying 18 to figure out is if you figured out other things that you 19 can do, other, um, activities you could involve yourself
20 in that would take you away from thinking that way. Like I 21 said, I turned on the radio.

22 INMATE SIRHAN: I can go back to doing some hobbies, 23 I can read. I can go for a walk.

24 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Now we're getting 25 <inaudible>

1 INMATE SIRHAN: Exactly. Exactly. I don't see it as a
2 -- as a, I'm not going to be locked into that kind of a --

3 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Mr. Sirhan, you're on 4 the right track. I want you to give me that list. You gave 5 me two, you could go for a walk, you could read. What else 6 could you do?

7 INMATE SIRHAN: Oh, I can go, I can read a book. You
8 know, I can get on the phone, I can go on a date or I can, 9 you know, I can cook dinner to distract myself and to, or 10 just to, just -- just to do something else rather than to 11 sit there and dwell -- and dwell -- and dwell on a -- on a 12 -- on a -- a painful experience or -- or a painful scene, 13 that's, uh, that's beyond my control.

14 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, and so you 15 finally got to my point is I'm trying to see if you 16 develop techniques to relieve yourself of the stress or 17 the negative emotion that you're feeling and you finally 18 gave me four or five things that you could do instead. I'm 19 looking at, um, your latest Risk Assessment. You said that 20 you read it, correct?

21 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes.

22 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. And this is not 23 a closed book. Do you have it there with you or something?

24 INMATE SIRHAN: No, I didn't bring it. No.

25 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. Well, you're

1 not required to, I just thought maybe you were looking for 2 it. I was gonna say I don't have any problem if you wanted 3 to look at it because there were a couple of comments, and 4 these are things that were discussed with you a year ago, 5 right, uh, less than a year ago, I guess. December of last 6 year. Yes?

7 INMATE SIRHAN: Okay. Okay.

8 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. And there
9 were few things that I pulled out that I wanted to ask you 10 questions about, um, because these reports are not 11 verbatim. It's not everything that you've said, right, in 12 the past and they try to get pieces of it, um, but one of 13 the things that, uh, you talked about, um, that I thought 14 was, um, not really fleshed out I guess, you said that now 15 you go to church, do you remember saying that?

16 INMATE SIRHAN: Oh, that --

17 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: You said you reported 18 your participation in church groups has been most 19 beneficial, citing it adjusted your perceptions, refined 20 your spirituality, us that correct?

21 INMATE SIRHAN: Yeah. Uh -- uh, that -- that's been 22 an ongoing, uh -- uh, activity for me, going to church and 23 attending services.

24 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: What I was going to 25 ask is, here's the thing. The Board doesn't require

1 anybody to have any spiritual conversion or any spiritual 2 faith to be paroled, but when someone makes that claim, we 3 recognize that it can be beneficial in a couple of ways.
4 Number one, as a support community. You -- you only have 5 your brother out there now, but we know that if someone 6 has plans of a particular faith, and we don't care what it 7 is, but whatever it is, if they have a particular faith, 8 sometimes that can be a support community. Um, and then we 9 also recognize that most faiths, I'd say the vast majority 10 of them have basic principles of being good to our fellow 11 man, right?

12 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes. Yes.

13 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: So, what did you mean 14 by your participation in church groups? Do you go to 15 different groups? Do you attend a particular one? What?

16 INMATE SIRHAN: I -- I -- I subscribed to a specific 17 group, but if I'm invited or if there - there's -- there 18 are other people who were inviting me to -- to their 19 church I attend, uh, to, uh, other groups and other and I
20 speak with other, you know, chaplains rather than one 21 specific, uh, chaplain that com -- that, uh, visits from 22 the other side.

23 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well and -- and the 24 prison chaplains are unique in that they tend to be more 25 universal. Right? They'll talk --

1 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes.

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: -- to anyone of any 3 faith, even if they may be an Imam or they may be a Rabbi,
4 or they may be a Priest, or they may be a -- a Protestant 5 Pastor, they'll talk to inmates of any faith about their 6 issues, right?

7 INMATE SIRHAN: Just to let you know, Mr. Barton, I
8 was born in the Christian faith. My family was Christian.
9 And I've been since, I've been in that religion, in -- in 10 that faith, uh, all my life, I'm not a -- a Muslim, I'm 11 not asso -- associated with any of the, you know, the --

12 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Mr. Sirhan, that, I - 13 - I read your history. I know that's what your history
14 was. Okay. As I said, we're not making a distinction 15 necessarily, the only -- the only way that even mattered 16 ultimately is if you went to Jordan, even though my 17 understanding is there's certain protections for 18 Christians there, it certainly isn't the majority view and 19 it certainly isn't easy to be a Christian in Jordan or 20 anywhere in the Middle East, right?

21 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes. But I have a claim to -- to 22 being in the hol --, to having been born <inaudible> right 23 next door --

24 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Right.

25 INMATE SIRHAN: Jesus was born and to where he

1 preached, where he ministered.

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Sir, I am not at all
3 questioning your faith or that, what I'm trying to point 4 out are practicalities. Okay?

5 INMATE SIRHAN: Okay.

6 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Because that's what I
7 have to deal with. And so, the reason I asked about this, 8 is little while ago when we talked about, you know, what 9 would you do to relieve, you know, negative tension or 10 negative emotions or things like that, you didn't mention 11 prayer, or, you know, anything along those lines. Does 12 that provide any type of outlet for you?

13 INMATE SIRHAN: Meditation and solitude and spiritual 14 thinking is a -- is a -- is a constant part of my, you 15 know, activities. Every morning that I do that -- I do
16 that, I pray --

17 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: So is there -- is 18 there a --

19 INMATE SIRHAN: But I --

20 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: community out there 21 that if you paroled and, you know, ultimately, he got back 22 to Pasadena, I'll just be honest with you. If you ever are 23 found suitable and you are paroled because of the years 24 been down, I don't think any Commissioner is going to 25 allow you parole directly to your brother's house. Odds

1 are, you would be paroled to some transitional housing at 2 least for six months. But my question is, again, one of a
3 practical nature. Is there some faith community out there 4 that would be a support network for you?

5 INMATE SIRHAN: I believe that there would be, and my 6 bro - and -- and my brother would help me do that because 7 we are in contact with, uh, with, uh, religious, uh, 8 supporters. And there is, in -- in -- in neg --, it's very 9 close by our home there is a transitional, uh, housing 10 facility that can -- that can -- that we can use, you 11 know, uh, enroll in, when, if when, if and when I am 12 paroled to -- to Pasadena.

13 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. You also said 14 in this Risk Assessment, I'm looking now at page 8 of the 15 Risk Assessment, that's more for your Attorney's benefit 16 than yours, but it said that you recognize your childhood
17 must have at least indirectly and subconsciously played a 18 significant role in, um, your anger in the commitment 19 offense and basically you had had thoughts, um, against 20 Robert Kennedy because of his support for Israel at the 21 time. You've admitted that in the past, right?

22 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes. And -- and it's, uh, it's part 23 of this insight process, you know, developing your 24 insight, viewing it and seeing who is involved in -- in -- 25 in your -- in your problem in life. And, uh, and -- and --

1 and, uh, I -- I wasn't even aware of this youthful 2 offender, um, Franklin type hearing in preparation for 3 these kind of hearings. So, I -- I --

4 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, it's the --

5 INMATE SIRHAN: I thought about it before.

6 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Yeah, that -- that -- 7 that's all relatively new, but insight's not new. They've 8 been talking to you about insight for many years, and you 9 have to admit early on, you know, in the late 80s, early 10 90s, you were just angry.

11 INMATE SIRHAN: Well, they, the, I nev -- I never 12 knew that these kinds of, uh, disciplines and these kinds 13 of, uh, scientific, uh, processes are existed then in the 14 -- in the 1980s or utilized by the Board. They, I don't 15 remember ever --

16 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: They weren't -- they 17 weren't, that's my point. What I'm saying is I'm trying to 18 gauge offender change. That's one of the factors that we 19 look at, and you said that you were upset by what was 20 happening at the time, you were angry about it, there was 21 a certain amount of national pride. You talked about today
22 these are your kindred that you're seeing that are, you 23 know, having these devastating effects. You said you were 24 impulsive, you were, didn't think about the consequences, 25 you had poor judgment. We talked about the alcohol and the 1 gun, right? So those are all --

2 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes.

3 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: what we call 4 underlying causative factors. That's the person you were 5 at 24. I've been trying to establish by asking you
6 questions if you're still that person. We talk about --

7 INMATE SIRHAN: No, I am not. I'm not.

8 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. Well, and -- 9 and everyone tells me that, Mr. Sirhan, so understand 10 that, you know, we can say, no, I'm not all day long, but 11 that's why I'm trying to figure out what you've done to 12 address these. And you've talked about, --

13 INMATE SIRHAN: Okay.

14 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: you know, some of 15 them so far, we've gone through, um, and some of them we 16 can see too from behavior, but as far as prior planning, 17 you've always said that you didn't plan it. You, uh, 18 denied the writings that were found and again, it was 19 found to be evidence, whether you believe a handwriting
20 expert would validate it or not is neither here nor there 21 for this Panel. Okay? But if you're taking responsibility 22 today for your overall anger towards what was happening, 23 what I have to determine is whether or not that anger 24 would resurface, if you were released.

25 INMATE SIRHAN: Right now, it doesn't even exist.

1 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay.

2 INMATE SIRHAN: There's always a pot -- speaking
3 about potentialities and un -- unforeseens, but I don't 4 even anti -- anticipate that because, like I said, I'm 5 gonna nip it in the bud before it even happens. I
6 <inaudible>

7 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: But you understand 8 from my -- from my perspective, I have to look at the 9 unforeseen. That's what they asked me to do is guess the 10 future.

11 INMATE SIRHAN: Okay. And I respect that.

12 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: So --

13 INMATE SIRHAN: And I, you have my pledge that I will 14 always look to for safety and peace and nonviolence. I 15 have been disciplined-free for more than half a century.

16 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: That -- that -- 17 that's not in dispute.

18 INMATE SIRHAN: And that should show --

19 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: It's not about -- 20 it's not about whether you figured out how to do time, I - 21 - I know you can do time, it's not about that. But here, 22 think of it from this perspective. There are some that 23 might say you -- you be released, you'd see yourself as a 24 victim because you spend your whole life in prison, and if 25 you say, I --

1 INMATE SIRHAN: Not <inaudible>

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: well, let me finish, 3 I'm just playing the -- the other side's advocate. We 4 don't have a DA here, but I have to consider all sides, 5 right. And they could say, he could be so angry about 6 spending all that time in prison that once he's released, 7 he somehow wants to, you know, rectify that or rebel 8 against the system because of it. What would you tell 9 those people?

10 INMATE SIRHAN: I disagree with them outright. I am 11 grateful to having had my life spared from the gas 12 chamber. I value my life so much that I would never allow 13 myself to risk it, or allow myself to put myself in 14 jeopardy again, period. And you have my solemn word on 15 that, and I'm never gonna violate it. You know, once when 16 I -- when I was, when I read that, um, parole member, uh, 17 Commissioner, uh, James Overs parole granting --

18 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Uh --

19 INMATE SIRHAN: decision. Please --

20 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Go ahead.

21 INMATE SIRHAN: And -- and he -- he --

22 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: You said the same 23 thing in your last hearing, but go ahead.

24 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, yes, uh, okay, you know why.

25 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Yeah. I've read all

1 of your comments, I've read all of your Attorney's 2 briefings on past hearings. I we -- we've read all of 3 that. So, we consider all of that, I get it, okay. That's 4 why we're not, you may be thinking right now, well he's 5 not talking to me about all the good stuff. Well, the good 6 stuff's in the record, we have it. I have the 7 commendations from Correctional Officers for you. I have 8 your good work history. I have your educational upgrades.
9 I have your lack of discipline. We have all that. Those 10 aren't risk factors. I'm trying to concentrate on the 11 things that I think might still make you dangerous and 12 trying to satisfy myself whether or not it's an 13 unreasonable risk. So that's why I'm asking these 14 questions. I know you want to tell me about all that good 15 stuff. Trust me, I've read it. Okay, and it's being 16 considered. But we're focusing on the areas that we think 17 still might be a risk.

18 INMATE SIRHAN: <inaudible>

19 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And at this point --

20 INMATE SIRHAN: <inaudible>

21 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: at this point it was, 22 the substance abuse which I don't give a whole lot of 23 weight to necessarily currently, it was the anger 24 management and emotional intelligence. It's the lack of 25 responsibility and the lack of insight, which we've talked

1 about some. Okay. But at this point, I am going to turn it
2 over to the Deputy Commissioner. Are you doing, okay?
3 We've been going now for about an hour and a half. Do you 4 need a break?

5 INMATE SIRHAN: I'm good -- I'm good. Unless others
6 are need a break.

7 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Ms. Berry, I'm 8 looking at you. Do you want a break? I cannot hear a thing 9 you're saying.

10 INMATE SIRHAN: She's mute.

11 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: I'm fine. Thank you.

12 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. All right. It's 13 just a natural break I think and I, some other folks might 14 want one and rather than get started with Commissioner 15 Meighan and then have to take a break, I am gonna take a 16 break at this time. It's 9:57. We will reconvene the 17 hearing at 10 minutes after 10, give everyone a chance to 18 take a comfort break. Okay?

19 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: All right.

20 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And we'll see 21 everyone back on the call at 10 minutes after 10, We're in 22 recess.

23

24

25

1 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: On the record.

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. We are 3 back on the record for the subsequent parole consideration 4 hearing for Mr. Sirhan. Today is August 27th, 2021. All 5 the parties that were previously present I believe are 6 present. I'm going to verify that here momentarily. I can 7 see Mr. Sirhan. I can see Ms. Berry. I can see Mr.
8 Groubert. We have the Deputy Commissioner. I can see Mr.
9 Deble. I can see Douglas Kennedy. I can see Ms. Abreu. Um, 10 Ms. Watson, are you there? Ms. Watson are you there? I can 11 see Ms. Bohdan and Mr. Schrade.

12 OBSERVER/REPORTER WATSON: I -- I'm here, I'm sorry.

13 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. That's okay.
14 I'm just verifying we still have everyone. Um, Mr. Robert 15 Kennedy, are you there?

16 VNOK ROBERT KENNEDY: Yes.

17 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. Thank you. And 18 then, uh, no offense Mr. Mahoney, but whether you're there 19 or not we're gonna start. So as far as, um, all the 20 parties being present, we have everyone and we're gonna at 21 this time have Deputy Commissioner Meighan is going to ask 22 you some questions, Mr. Sirhan. She may cover some of the 23 same, uh, areas as far as the crime and other issues that 24 she wants to go into to determine offender change. Uh, and 25 then she's also gonna talk to you about what you've been

1 doing overall and especially since your last hearing.

2 Okay?

3 INMATE SIRHAN: Sure, yes, sir. Thank you.

4 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Can you see her on 5 the screen?

7 Yes.

8 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Yes. Okay. And she 9 is, um, I think has a voice that's as loud as mine, so you 10 should have no problem, but if for some reason you don't 11 hear her, make sure you let us know. Okay?

12 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, sir. Thank you. All right.

13 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. Go ahead,
14 Commissioner.

15 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Good morning, Mr.
16 Sirhan.

17 INMATE SIRHAN: Good morning, Ms. Meighan.

18 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: It's Meighan, but 19 that's okay, everyone ruins it, but that's fine. Deputy 20 Commissioner is good enough. All right, Mr. Sirhan if I 21 ask you now the top two causative factors for the 22 commitment offense, what would your answer be?

23 INMATE SIRHAN: Positive factors for the commitment 24 offense. Positive? <inaudible>

25 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: No, causative, sorry --

1 sorry, causative C-A-U-S-A, causative.

2 INMATE SIRHAN: Causative. Hmm. It -- it would have 3 to be the Middle East situation. It would have to be that, 4 but, uh, again, I want to express my utter remorse for 5 everything that took place that night whether I'm 6 responsible for it or not.

7 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Okay. Well, I just want 8 to touch on the causative cause I think that's been, you
9 know, flushed out already many times before. I just wanted
10 to hear what you think is the top two causative factors
11 for the commitment offenses. You gave me the Middle East 12 situation and I'm assuming you're talking about the trauma 13 that you had, um, endured in your life, is that correct?

14 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes.

15 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Okay.

16 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes. And the number two, I would -- I
17 would attribute to -- to the liquor, that -- that, I 18 wasn't, couldn't control of my -- my wits and my senses in 19 full control, that my sense of responsibility, personal 20 responsibility was -- was -- was, I -- I didn't, I just 21 didn't have it that night, that evening.

22 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Okay.

23 INMATE SIRHAN: and I regret that.

24 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: All right. Now, if I
25 ask you at the time of the commitment offense, now, I want

1 to ask you, what were your character defects at the time
2 of the commitment offenses, sir?

3 INMATE SIRHAN: Uh, ign -- ignoring that basic 4 principle of not, of -- of, uh, mixing guns and liquor. I
5 -- I -- I disobeyed that -- that, uh, that injunction, you 6 know, that you're not supposed to mix guns and -- and 7 liquor and -- and I did that. That was the biggest flaw in 8 my -- in my -- in my, in -- in -- in my training and in my 9 values because, uh, it did lead to a very disastrous, very 10 tragic, uh -- uh, event.

11 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Okay. Now we all have 12 character defects. No one amongst us are perfect. Right?
13 So now I understand that you say one of your character
14 defects, you said, was it, um, mixing alcohol, you know 15 and guns so it sort of sounds that you were reckless.
16 That's what I got from that.

17 INMATE SIRHAN: Eh, yea, -- yeah, definitely.
18 Definitely.

19 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Okay. Was there any 20 other character defects you've, um, had at the time of the 21 commitment offense?

22 INMATE SIRHAN: You know, I was so young that, and -- 23 and -- and so self-assured, so impulsive, so know it all 24 type, you know, that -- that was one of the -- the -- the 25 attributes of -- of youths and the sense of recklessness,

1 the sense of bravado and, you know, I was just a young 2 man. I wasn't really in control. I wasn't mature to -- to 3 really sit back and consider and think and -- and evaluate 4 and -- and -- and think of the consequences of my actions 5 and my thoughts. And right now, eh, I'm a, uh, it's 6 different with me, you know, --

7 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Okay.

8 INMATE SIRHAN: it, uh, the -- the idea that -- that 9 I would be, uh, reoff --, you know, reoffend, and you, and 10 I really appreciate your concern, your responsibility, 11 your -- your obligation to the public to make sure that 12 whoever you release, whoever is in front of you, like I am 13 now, is not gonna reoffend or recommit crimes or re --, 14 uh, you know, hurt anybody else or -- or in any way, or 15 just, uh, you know, break the law because I just, I -- I 16 don't have it in me anymore.

17 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Okay. Mr. Sirhan don't 18 -- Mr. Sirhan I don't want to, I don't like interrupting 19 you, but I want you to stay on point with my question. I'm 20 only, um, I want you to stay on point because all I'm 21 asking you about is character defects. All right. You gave 22 me a -- a wide list, alrighty and I appreciate that. Were 23 there more defects you had that you can recall?

24 INMATE SIRHAN: 53 years ago, I honestly can't recall 25 that any -- any --

1 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Where you -- where you
2 say you were angry?

3 INMATE SIRHAN: I -- I -- I must have -- I must have 4 had defects. I must have. But to -- to -- to, you know, to 5 give you a list of them --

6 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Yeah.

7 INMATE SIRHAN: eh, I don't -- I don't, I can't put 8 my finger on -- on --

9 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Okay.

10 INMATE SIRHAN: I would -- I would say anger would 11 have been, uh -- uh, um, a character defect. I would say 12 that impatience would have been a character defect. I
13 would say, uh, a lot of things that -- that, uh, that I
14 experienced or anybody would experience with could cause, 15 uh, defects, especially this, uh, of anger and, uh, and 16 just, uh, and just ignoring, uh, sense, ignoring my better 17 judgment, ignoring my -- my -- my conscience, because, uh, 18 --

19 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: All right.

20 INMATE SIRHAN: this is a horrible event and it goes 21 against everything I value in life. I, you know, my -- my 22 -- my spiritual upbringing, my church upbringing and it, 23 it's -- it's -- it's unbelievable.

24 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Okay.

25 INMATE SIRHAN: It's unbelievable to me <inaudible>

1 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Well, thank you for 2 your honesty, Mr. Sirhan, but I want to stay on point
3 here. Um, now I'm gonna get into some post-conviction 4 factors and, um, now what I see here is that you've had 5 numerous laudatory chronos and I think it is for the 6 benefit to read those into the record, cause I didn't see 7 much in the past, but I've seen, um, now. I saw that, um,
8 for instance, you had one from January 4th, 2021, a 9 laudatory chrono from a Correctional Officer Mack and he 10 wrote about, basically by your character, and to quote in 11 pertinent parts, the Correctional Officer observed your 12 willingness to help and with the cooking staff and 13 complete specific tasks in a timely manner, and, uh, they 14 view you as a genuine in your conduct and your attempts to 15 rehabilitate yourself. And the Correctional Officer's 16 opinion, they believe that the inmate has demonstrated 17 remorse and has dealt with his incarceration in a positive 18 manner. Mr. Sirhan has been a model inmate and the 19 Correctional Officer believed that you will continue to do 20 this if you should be released. And that was from the 21 Correctional Officer Mack from Facility C, EOP Complex. I 22 also saw another, um, a laudatory chrono I see was 23 submitted, it was in the record, uh, August the 25th, also 24 2021 from a Correctional Officer Corkran, also attesting 25 to your character and your demeanor. You've also, um, and

1 I also note that your Attorney had also submitted that 2 too, um, recently, I appreciate that. That one states in 3 pertinent parts, that Mr. Sirhan was always respectful to 4 both staff and inmates alike, they observe you and one of 5 your greatest attribute is to navigate the inmate
6 population, never surrounding yourself with negative 7 influences, always following orders when directed, and 8 it's the Correctional Officer's professional opinion that 9 you have exhibited attributes of rehabilitated individual, 10 and he believes that you will succeed, um, in society. You 11 also had a, um, one an October 23rd, 2020, um, that was in 12 the packet, um, as well, I have it at page 205, and that - 13 - that Correctional Officer also attests to your character
14 and your merits, and that was dated October 23rd, 2020.
15 And the Correctional Officer states in pertinent parts, 16 what was a long written up, but let's, they observe you as 17 -- as well and they observe you on a daily basis and you 18 exhibited no unusual behaviors. You were always conforming 19 to the rules and regulation. You worked in the culinary, 20 you attended your group meetings, church regularly. They 21 say you have a upright in your character, respectful in 22 your conduct and staff and peers without any defiance, you 23 are polite, well spoken, you exemplify a rare model inmate 24 description. You're very respectful to the staff. Um, they 25 also observed that, um, you're committed to your recovery

1 and reformation. You appeared to spend much of your spare 2 time reading, educational literature, exercising, being 3 pleasantly available to other inmates and academic mentor.
4 And there was one in 1983 letter where the staffs
5 commended you for your meritorious efforts in assisting 6 them. Um, so we had four and I thought that was mentioned, 7 especially the three recent ones, cause I didn't see many 8 of that in the past. Um, is there someone in the, um, 9 waiting room Commissioner that got sent out?

10 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, let me add, uh, 11 --

12 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Okay. Thank you.

13 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Commissioner, if I can 14 briefly interrupt, I just received a phone call and I'd 15 like to convey to the Commissioner, um, the wishes of that 16 person that just called.

17 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, it depends, who 18 is it.

19 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Um, Robert Kennedy Jr. just 20 called and he said he's trying to send something to the 21 Commissioner. So, I have, um, given him the appropriate 22 email contact, so I just wanted to convey that message. I 23 don't --

24 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well --

25 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: know if he's attempting to 1 join the hearing or send something --

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, we lost --

3 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: but I feel like --

4 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: are you talking about 5 the same person that we already have?

6 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: No, this would be Robert 7 Francis Kennedy II.

8 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Gotcha. And we did 9 receive a letter from them already. So, I don't know if 10 he's trying to resend that or not, but we do have a letter 11 already if that's what he's talking about.

12 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Okay. And just so --

13 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: and when we get to -- 14 when we get to Victim Impact, I'll touch base with you 15 then.

16 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Okay. Thank you.

17 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Yes.

18 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Sorry for the interruption.

19 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: All right, Mr., um, 20 where was I? Oh, all right, Mr. Sirhan, um, --

21 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: You had just finished 22 the positive chronos I think.

23 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Thank you. I -- I
24 believe I'm done. I -- I mentioned that there were three 25 recent ones and I -- and I spoke about the 1983 one. Um, I

1 wanted to also note, Mr. Sirhan, if you were given a
2 parole date and the Board, already, we already established 3 for the record that on December 17th, 2013, that you have 4 a detainer, it's an ICE Deportation under A number 5 206265918, um, but nonetheless, we still have to look at 6 both sides. If you were given, um, a parole date and 7 you're granted parole, uh, and the Board orders you to 8 participate in a transitional home for six months, would 9 you comply?

10 INMATE SIRHAN: Definitely would comply, with this 11 observation, please. Ever since I got, uh, my neck cut, 12 it, uh, that incident made me, uh, mistrustful of 13 intentions of inmates because this guy, he crept up on me 14 without any notice. I didn't even know this injury had 15 occurred until other inmates were telling me about it.
16 Now, if I go into a transitional setting where it's 17 similar kinds of inmates, eh, my safety would be a little, 18 it would be a concern. And that's what worries me about 19 the transitional housing. Although I realized the value of 20 transitional housing in terms of re -- re -- 21 reconditioning the inmate to civil society and to, you 22 know, to normal life on the streets, but -- but again, 23 safety wise, I would -- I would be just a little bit extra
24 cautious myself if I were in a transitional -- 25 transitional housing setting. We own our own home. We have

1 plenty of space to live in and, uh, in -- in that regard I 2 would prefer to be home, to be with my brother than to be 3 in the transitional housing, but I will comply with all of 4 your directions.

5 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Well, we do know this 6 is a --

7 INMATE SIRHAN: without any --

8 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: a public, we know this 9 is a public interest case, but my question was just 10 hypothetically speaking. I just wanted to know whether or 11 not you would be compliant. It's just basically a simple 12 yes or no --

13 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes.

14 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: uh, answer.

15 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes. Believe me, I -- I would be, 16 ma'am.

17 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Okay.

18 INMATE SIRHAN: I would be, 100% --

19 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: I do note --

20 INMATE SIRHAN: compliant <inaudible>

21 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: for the record, okay.

22 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes.

23 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: I -- I got your 24 response. Thank you so much, sir. I do note for the record 25 that you do have a letter from your brother and I'll just

1 review it in the record. Um, and just for the record,
2 before I go reading his, um, brother's, uh, support letter 3 into the record, I just want to note that there were 4 several responses from the public and we received numerous 5 responses from the public noted, actually more than -- 6 more than 100 responses I've counted, um, that supports 7 the inmate's release and there were some also that opposed 8 the release of the inmate. Um, now back to what I was 9 stating that you, I did see a letter of support and it
10 came from your brother, Munir. Um, I also read that, well 11 your brother had been convicted of a felony for possession 12 of a controlled substance also. Um, I just have to note 13 that for the record, I saw that in the packet that was 14 submitted to me. Um, but nonetheless, how old is your 15 brother?

16 INMATE SIRHAN: Again, he, he's -- he's, he went to 17 the -- he went to see the doctor yesterday, he told me 18 that on the phone. He's improving, but his medical 19 condition is still -- still, uh, less hopeful than -- than 20 -- than it should be. Uh, he's seeing doctors for his eyes 21 and, uh, and other ailments and, uh, I'm very, uh, to be 22 honest with you, just humanly speaking, I'm very worried 23 about his -- his, uh, --

24 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Okay.

25 INMATE SIRHAN: his condition.

1 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: How old is he -- how 2 old is he.

3 INMATE SIRHAN: He's a couple of years, three, four 4 years younger than me.

5 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: All right. So, the 6 letter that I have here, was it your brother that wrote 7 this letter or did someone assist them in writing this 8 letter?

9 INMATE SIRHAN: I don't really know. I don't know how 10 he -- how he, uh, got it together and sent it to you. I, 11 he told me that he sent you one, he sent you, and he said 12 that he sent an earlier one but, uh, it wasn't 13 acknowledged by the staff in -- in Sacramento, so he wrote 14 a subsequent one.

15 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: All right.

16 INMATE SIRHAN: I'm -- I'm not, I don't know the full 17 details of that.

18 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Okay. Just asking if 19 you knew.

20 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes <inaudible>

21 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: All right. So, January 22 4th, 2021, the letter states that your younger brother, as 23 you stated and, um, he said that he understands that, um, 24 if he's not permitted to be here, basically, he says that 25 he has a home, the retirement home that he lives in is the 1 family home and if, even if you're not able to stay here, 2 um, he's willing to sell that family home and go wherever 3 you are deported to -- to support you. And he's willing to 4 live out his last days and times with you in a quiet, 5 peaceful manner. That's according to your brother here and 6 it's signed, it's, uh, written by Munir Sirhan, M-U-I, M-7 U-N-I-R and your brother's last name S-I-R-H-A-N. Um, and 8 he has a letter of support for you, and he also had two 9 neighbors who supported you too that was here in 10 California. I can't understand their handwriting, but they 11 did indicate that they were neighbors and dated January of 12 2021. Um, so I just wanted to put that on the record. Now 13 I want to move on a little bit. Let's see, um, I want to 14 get to the RVRs that we have here. Now, these RVRs, you 15 only have two RVRs, and these are in 1972, one was in 16 1970, uh, in both, the 1972 you're 28 years old, the other 17 1970 you're 26. You had, uh, three 128A's, um, just for 18 the record, the first one was threatened officer May 8, 19 1972. Um, this, uh, second one was behavior which could 20 lead to violence September 2nd, 1970. Then you had three 21 128A's, March 3rd, 1976, um, where you were, um, cursing

22 at an officer, uh, April 10th, 1990 Correctional Officers
23 say he was horse-playing, March 3rd, 2010, Correction
24 Officer observed, uh, you, um, looking through a trashcan 25 of Correctional Officers. These were reviewed the, um, in 1 past transcripts, so I'm not going to review them. Um, but 2 what I would like to ask you is about the 2016, February 3 17th, 2016, the attempt to manipulate staff, um, chrono,

4 that's in the, um, C-file. And the reason why I'm asking 5 this, sir, because in the past you have res --, has used 6 your anger and your coping mechanism was, um, to threaten 7 someone or to threaten harm, um, even in the, there's one 8 part where you even in 1975, you were granted parole, they 9 took away your parole, you made a statement to the staff 10 and communicated to the staff to tell the Governor that if 11 he wasn't released, he was going to engage in an agreement 12 with the Soviet Union against the United States. So, 13 there's been a pattern in the past, and then there's this 14 recent February 17th, 2016 incident. Basically, when I 15 read it, um, you told the Correctional Officers, first of 16 all, do you recall that incident before I go any further, 17 Mr. Sirhan?

18 INMATE SIRHAN: Is that the confidential one, and --

19 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: No.

20 INMATE SIRHAN: if it is, I know nothing --

21 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: No, I don't know 22 anything of, uh, okay, I'm talking about well I'll -- I'll 23 read some of the facts to you because I have it here in a 24 nutshell for you. Basically, you had reported that you
25 were being harassed by an inmate, this is in February

1 17th, 2017, um, you indicated. Um, so the Correction
2 Officer did their research and tried to see what happened
3 and you said that you're being harassed again. Um, when it 4 came up in my parole hearing and then he asked if I had 5 any problems with him, you said that there's an inmate -- 6 you said that there's an inmate working in kitchen, he's a 7 Mexican man name and he's a senior cook. All right. You 8 don't like, he's like a shot caller and you didn't like 9 the way he uses his power to make you do work and shitty 10 jobs. Um, so the Correctional asks, Officer asks you, has 11 he ever specifically threatened or harassed you and you 12 said no, but he gives me these looks, you know, mean 13 looks, um, and he asked you, then you made a statement to 14 the Corr --, um, to the inmate, you said, um, to the fact 15 that, you know, go meet me to the back of the restroom and 16 they wanted to know why you're saying that, because I want 17 him to know, the other senior cook inmate that I'm not 18 scared of him and I can hurt him really bad. All right. So 19 that's the incident I am --

20 INMATE SIRHAN: <inaudible>

21 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: talking about, right.
22 Um, so, first of all, do you recall this incident now that 23 I've read you in a -- a short synopsis of it?

24 INMATE SIRHAN: Recall it vaguely, but that, it that,
25 all the details are not accurate, ma'am. I -- I -- I did

1 not see him as a threat. He was, he had just been hired 2 to, uh, to that spot and he was trying to establish 3 himself along with his, you know, uh, Spanish Latino 4 workers and trying to take ahold and control of the 5 kitchen. I had no support at the time and I still don't 6 have any support in the kitchen because I just do my own - 7 - my own, uh -- uh, assigned job instead of work as a, you 8 know, with a gang type of a -- a group of people. And that 9 is what triggered this whole incident with this guy. And 10 he was always pushing his weight around and interfering 11 with my -- with my routine. And I had seniority over him 12 though he had a -- a -- a higher ranking what was a -- a 13 description, job description than I did and he wasn't that 14 much experienced. And I felt that I had to, I <inaudible>
15 the -- the -- the operation of the kitchen mandated, you 16 know, that he be, you know, uh -- uh, let the staff know 17 about his shortcomings in that regard.

18 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Well, you know, it 19 happened in 2016, you've taken a lot of programming, okay, 20 regarding emotionally intel -- intelligence, anger
21 management, you know, a lot of different conflict -- 22 conflict resolution, um, programming, you know. Now you're 23 looking back at this at 2016 aspect, okay, you're looking 24 at it now, all right. Do you think it was wise for you to 25 say, meet me around the restroom, I want to know if, um,

1 you know, to let him know I'm not scared that I can hurt
2 him really bad. You think that was wise to make that?

3 INMATE SIRHAN: That -- that part, that -- that part 4 I don't think is accurate, but the idea of -- of -- of 5 challenging -- challenging him like that, it a -- it's a 6 part of the prison culture, ma'am, that if you show 7 kindness, if you show passivity, that -- that -- that 8 other inmates would interpret it as weakness, a personal 9 character weakness. And when that, when they -- when they 10 noticed that, when they see it -- it's -- it becomes a 11 part of their picture of you. And then they, I become 12 their whipping boy. And not just this guy's, everybody 13 else's whipping boy because I do not respond the 14 provocations that they would have brought me. And that is 15 why I had to like, you know, hold my ground with this guy, 16 because he was constant. It wasn't just a, an occasional,
17 uh, incident. And it -- it -- it builds up -- it builds 18 up, you know, the -- the tension and the, just the 19 constant, eh, having to have a -- a disagreeable coworker 20 and staff knew that. They saw it, they observed it, and 21 they let it happen. They -- they let it persist. And it's 22 -- it's painful when you see that happen.

23 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: But her question is, 24 Mr. Sirhan -- Mr. Sirhan, her question is --

25 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes.

1 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: looking at it now, do 2 you think you had other options? They may not have been 3 your favorite options --

4 INMATE SIRHAN: Oh, definitely, I would have --

5 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: other options.

6 INMATE SIRHAN: I had, I -- I -- I used my, the best 7 options available at the time, but in retrospect now --

8 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: No, you didn't -- no 9 you didn't.

10 INMATE SIRHAN: In retro --

11 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: No, you didn't. What 12 had been -- what had been your best option at the time?

13 INMATE SIRHAN: Eh, letting staff know that this 14 process was going on, this problem --

15 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And then quit your 16 job if you have to.

17 INMATE SIRHAN: I could have, but again --

18 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Was the job more 19 important -- was the job more important than your freedom 20 or then being written up or anything like that?

21 INMATE SIRHAN: But I was assigned there, sir. I 22 don't know --

23 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: I don't care.

24 INMATE SIRHAN: if that guy was assigned --

25 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: I don't care. So,

1 think about it. We're trying to see if you've matured --

2 INMATE SIRHAN: Okay. In -- in -- in retrospect -- in 3 retrospect I -- I might have done that, I should have done
4 that, but, uh, I didn't anticipate this being, uh, this 5 crucial an -- an issue, because it happens all the time in 6 the kitchen.

7 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: We don't know how 8 crucial it is. And I know what happens in the kitchen and 9 I get it. And I know what a shot caller is and I know what 10 happens when guys bring their guys in and they want to 11 take over, whether it's the kitchen or the yard crew or 12 whatever. I know how it works. But what I'm trying to 13 figure out is whether you're mature enough to say, even 14 though I'm in the right, this is the conversation you and 15 I had. I'm going to give up something that I'm in the 16 right about.

17 INMATE SIRHAN: Definitely. Definitely. This is a 18 part of the healing process and a part of dealing with 19 anger issues and a part of just being human, Mr. -- Mr.
20 Barton.

21 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Yeah, so, so, you 22 could've --

23 INMATE SIRHAN: I have no <inaudible>.

24 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: you could've fixed --

25 INMATE SIRHAN: I could have.

1 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: it -- it didn't get 2 fixed.

3 INMATE SIRHAN: And I -- and I did the, talk with 4 this guy, eh, subsequently, and I did make peace with him 5 and we, and -- and -- and resolved the issue with him. And 6 in fact --

7 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, that's --

8 INMATE SIRHAN: later on -- later -- later on he was 9 caught with misconduct and he was -- he was dismissed from 10 his job, he was fired.

11 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. I don't doubt.
12 But our point is, let's say you get paroled and you start 13 working part-time somewhere and you feel you're being 14 treated unfairly. And it could be that you are being 15 treated unfairly. Okay. Uh, Ms. Berry, why are you seeming 16 frantic?

17 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Thank you. Because my, uh, 18 the audio went out, uh, when you were speaking and I -- I,
19 it's asking me to dial in manually. Can you hear me?

20 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, no, I can see 21 you and hear you. Can you hear me?

22 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: I can now, but I, it, that's 23 why I panicked for a little bit.

24 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Sometimes the 25 bandwidth with this many people and the Deputy

1 Commissioner was experiencing too, sometimes the audio
2 gets garbled and what -- what I suggest is you turn off 3 your video when that happens, and that might increase your 4 bandwidth and make your audio better.

5 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Sure.

6 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And that will go for 7 anybody if they're trying to get better audio, you can 8 turn off --

9 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Thank you.

10 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: the video. Not you, 11 Mr. Sirhan. Okay. So, Mr. Mr. Sirhan, my point was, you're 12 in a job on the outside and, you know, let's say you're a 13 janitor and they hire some young 20-year-old and he's 14 trying to tell you how to do things, this, that, and the 15 other thing, and your prison mentality, your prison 16 culture that's been entrenched after 50 years of 17 institutionalization creeps up and, you know, I'm not 18 gonna take that from this kid. I'm, you know, I'm gonna 19 stand up for myself. Do you see that leading to potential 20 good things or bad things?

21 INMATE SIRHAN: Well, first off, I'm not gonna look 22 look for that problem. I'm not gonna invite --

23 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: It may find you -- it 24 may find you.

25 INMATE SIRHAN: But even if, exactly, and when it

1 comes, I have the -- the tools, the psychological tools to 2 address the guy and try to resolve the issue peaceful -- 3 peace --

4 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: But do you have -- 5 but do you have the humility to say --

6 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, I do. Yes, I do. I'm sorry, it 7 was my mistake. I'll walk away. Exactly. That's my -- 8 that's my strategy, walk away and avoid confrontation and 9 hassles with people. I have done that so many times
10 recently because they, people, ever since I got injured, a 11 lot of people again see me as being vulnerable and they 12 try to confront me, talk -- talk very nastily to me and I
13 just nod and walk away because I don't want any trouble.
14 And it's the right thing to do, because I realize that 15 they're young people, they're, they haven't matured. They 16 haven't really sobered up from their -- from their, uh, 17 from their, uh -- uh, from there, impet --, uh, what's the 18 word? What's the word? I lost the word.

19 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: It's okay.
20 Impetuosity. But but be that as it may --

21 INMATE SIRHAN: What's -- what --

22 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: be that as it may, my 23 concern is that you would value that job over potential 24 negative consequences, like a fight.

25 INMATE SIRHAN: Definitely -- definitely, it -- it's

1 -- it --

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: So, what if he had 3 taken -- what if he had taken that challenge and said, 4 yeah, let's go meet and wanted to get in a fight with you.
5 Would you have fought him?

6 INMATE SIRHAN: This guy with the -- this guy with 7 the 150 was a --

8 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Anybody -- anybody.

9 INMATE SIRHAN: I doubt it. I don't think so. Because 10 most people, that is their -- that is their invitation, 11 that is their cockiness.

12 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Again, I get it -- I 13 get it.

14 INMATE SIRHAN: And once you challenge them --

15 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: A lot of it is power, 16 I get that, but my point is, would you be willing to quit
17 a job, <inaudible> --

18 INMATE SIRHAN: Definitely.

19 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: a job that, to avoid 20 that negative situation?

21 INMATE SIRHAN: I would quit the job, I would give 22 everything to avoid it because it is to me, the long-term 23 values, the long-term benefits of being free, outweigh all 24 kinds of risks that this situation would, uh, would bring.

25 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, I'm just trying

1 to see you under ---, if you understand. Even back in 2 2016, that might've been the better option.

3 INMATE SIRHAN: And -- and in retrospect --

4 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Quit your job
5 <inaudible> later and then reapply.

6 INMATE SIRHAN: And then, and that's, and -- and I 7 did keep the job because I -- I had good reports from most 8 of staff. And, eh, well, and this guy had a -- had a -- he 9 had -- he had the friendship, he had, uh, he had the in 10 with the staff and they -- they -- they let him have a lot 11 of latitude and --

12 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Mr. -- Mr. Sirhan, I
13 know how it works. You don't have to explain prison 14 culture to me or the ins and outs. Trust me I know. I'm 15 not, but -- but I'm not concerned with that. What we're 16 concerned with is how you evaluate situations, how you 17 make appropriate choices even when they may not be fair 18 for you. Do you understand?

19 INMATE SIRHAN: Oh, yes. I -- I have forfeited a lot 20 of advantages.

21 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay.

22 INMATE SIRHAN: You know, just for the purpose of 23 avoiding hassles and difficulties --

24 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And that's what we're 25 trying to -- that's what we were trying to figure out. Go

1 ahead, Commissioner.

2 INMATE SIRHAN: And that's what I -- and that's what 3 I would do when I'm on the streets too.

4 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay.

5 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: All right. Thank you,
6 Commissioner. I think you did a great job with that. Um,
7 Mr. Sirhan, if I ask you at the time of the February 17th, 8 2016, what do you think were your character defects at 9 that incident at that time?

10 INMATE SIRHAN: Uh, being wanting to be assertive 11 more than I am now, lacking a little bit of humility and 12 understanding the entirety of the picture that is, uh, 13 that is, that I was -- that I was involved with, or in.
14 And, uh, that is a character defect because I -- I -- I 15 was impul, uh, not impulsive, I was too quick to -- to -- 16 to, uh, to respond to that guy's, uh, provocations, which 17 I feel free that I am now doing that with, uh, with 18 people. Due to my age and due to my self-interest in 19 remaining, in -- in wanting to comply with the Parole
20 Board's rules and my nature just doesn't -- doesn't 21 include it. I haven't, I've never been violent with -- 22 with people in prison and, uh, and that's my -- my policy, 23 and my -- and my temperament.

24 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Okay.

25 INMATE SIRHAN: I don't see myself as <inaudible>

1 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Do you think -- do you 2 think you have a problem with lack of respect for 3 authority?

4 INMATE SIRHAN: No. I -- I try to obey the rules and 5 I respect authority. I -- I was surprised even when -- 6 when this, uh, when one of these chronos, uh, spoke about 7 my respect by following the staff's orders and 8 instructions and direction. That's -- that's is -- that is 9 -- that is routine. That is what I do all the time. Other,
10 I've seen, and I've seen defiance of that of the staff's 11 orders, you know, by -- by other inmates and I've seen how 12 they behave even and how they were handled by staff too.

13 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: All right. Thank you. I 14 think the Commissioner did a great job with the anger
15 management; you had your details on there. I appreciate 16 you had upgraded and did all your work. I noticed that you 17 were started to enroll in maintenance and repair. Is that 18 something you're still going to pursue or?

19 INMATE SIRHAN: Well, it -- it -- it, this, uh, 20 COVID, uh, new, this COVID protocol in the prison is still 21 active to some, uh, degree with older inmates and 22 vulnerable inmates and they removed me from being a cook
23 to this job and, uh, I don't know what the, how it's gonna 24 develop, uh, later on, but, uh, I, then they took notice 25 of the fact that -- that, uh, that I am under what they

1 call medical COVID precaution and they're -- they're aware 2 of it and they're -- they're concerned about it and that's 3 why they -- they want to distance me from the kitchen. In 4 fact, --

5 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Okay. But no, let me
6 ask you --

7 INMATE SIRHAN: They used to --

8 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: wait, Mr. Sirhan. Are 9 you, my question was maintenance and repair, or is that 10 something you are still going to pursue or is that what 11 you're interested in? Cause that's what you're assigned to 12 right now.

13 INMATE SIRHAN: Uh, yes, uh, out, if we, eh, when I
14 am resume my job --

15 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Got it.

16 INMATE SIRHAN: I will be doing that -- 17 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Okay. I got it.

18 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, yes.

19 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Okay. So, it's 20 something you're interested in pursuing.

21 INMATE SIRHAN: Right.

22 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Okay. Thanks.

23 INMATE SIRHAN: <inaudible> and they want me to do 24 it, I'll do it. I -- I don't want to defy any -- any --

25 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: No, no. If you're

1 interested in it, you should do. I mean, you understand?
2 It's not what they want, if you're interested in 3 maintenance and repair and that's what you're interested 4 in, then that's definitely something you should continue 5 on, right. All right. So, I had, um, I have a final 6 question here for you actually. I've heard in all the past
7 transcripts and I've read, you're able, when I ask you 8 about the victims, you're able to advi -- um, to, um, 9 specifically state, you know, all the direct victims,
10 right? You named all of them in the past. So, I don't want 11 to hear you listing that again, uh, at least I don't, um, 12 at this time, cause it's -- it's part of the record, we 13 already know. Um, so if I ask you, what is the impact on 14 victims indirectly? What is your answer.

15 INMATE SIRHAN: That brings up this, the ripple 16 effect of the crime and -- and the harm, the injury, the 17 pain of the family, of their, uh, of -- of their extended 18 family and their friends, the community, the -- the -- the 19 ambassador staff, and the -- the country, the world. This, 20 uh, Senator Kennedy was the hope of the world as far as I,
21 as -- as I can say, and, uh, it, I injured and I harmed
22 all of them and, uh, it pains me to -- to -- to experience 23 that -- that, the knowledge that I'm responsible for such 24 a horrible deed, if I did in fact do that. And whether I 25 did or whether I did not, I'm still responsible for being

1 there and -- and, uh, and probably causing this whole 2 incident, through my own gun or other guns.

3 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Do you hate the United 4 States of America pol -- political process?

5 INMATE SIRHAN: No, I don't. No, I don't. But I -- I
6 do disagree with some of the legal, uh -- uh, processes.
7 My Attorney should have at least on when we were appealing 8 this case on the basis of act -- actual innocence, they 9 should have at least given us a hearing on, uh, on the -- 10 on the -- on the merits and they didn't do that. They, a 11 lot of prisoners they get hearings, they get due, some due 12 process, uh, consideration, but, I don't, my Attorneys did 13 not.

14 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Okay.

15 INMATE SIRHAN: And, uh, it's regrettable -- it's 16 regrettable.

17 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Do you --

18 INMATE SIRHAN: but, uh, that's how --

19 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Okay. Let me ask you 20 this next question. Do you dislike the fact that United 21 States of America supports Israel in its plight?

22 INMATE SIRHAN: In -- in Israel's plight?

23 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Yes.

24 INMATE SIRHAN: I would say that the United States
25 should treat the Israelis and the Palestinians equitably

1 and fairly.

2 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: I understand that.

3 INMATE SIRHAN: <inaudible>

4 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: I understand that. And 5 I -- I think that's a very fair assessment from you. Um, I
6 won't, yeah, I won't dispute that. But I was just asking 7 you, you know, I want to know how you feel towards us 8 because your commitment offense was a cry, the attack on 9 the American process system and and electoral candidate.
10 So, I'm just asking you, currently, do you hate or dislike 11 or angry with the American --

12 INMATE SIRHAN: I have no quarrel -- I have no 13 quarrel with any human alive, ma'am, in America, in 14 Israel, in Palestine, anywhere. I -- I -- I want to make 15 my peace with life, with all human beings.

16 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: All right.

17 INMATE SIRHAN: I will denounce any -- any tendency
18 to -- to, uh, to violate that, uh, that, uh, that attitude 19 that I have now. It took me a long time to -- to arrive, 20 to get to it and, uh, I want to honor it by -- by -- by 21 keep, by adopting it as my life pattern.

22 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: I have to say for the 23 record, you know, throughout the process and the 24 Commissioner has pressed you hard at times, your demeanor
25 is very calm, um, which is quite different than I've read

1 in prior transcripts. Um, maybe that's attributed to age,
2 I don't know or maybe it's because of what you did some, a
3 lot of programming I see this year and, um, last year, a 4 tremendous amount of programming. Uh, what do you think 5 that's attributed to?

6 INMATE SIRHAN: I think it's -- it's a little bit of 7 -- of -- of both. I think the aging and just learning how 8 to evaluate human beings and learning from them. And if -- 9 if -- if a person is, uh, is just empathizing with the, 10 he, whoever it was that you say that I would say I was, 11 you know, contentious with, um, must have tried to provoke 12 me, to stress me, to see how I would react and, uh, and,
13 uh, I foolishly, you know, responded in -- in like manner,
14 but, uh, I wouldn't do that again ever. And if I -- if I
15 think that, you know, problematic with you today, I -- I 16 would apologize and I would ask you to help me overcome
17 it.

18 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: So, let me ask you, 19 this is my last question. If you were given a grant today 20 and that grant was taken away, um, would you be angry and 21 to threaten the Board or the --

22 INMATE SIRHAN: I would --

23 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Governor?

24 INMATE SIRHAN: I would be -- I would be 25 disappointed. I would lose a little bit faith because it -

1 - it -- it of the repetition of it, you know, because 2 America's is word is -- is big and it should have hold.
3 When you, when I was given that parole date in 1975, to 4 me, that was a promise. And I -- I've vouched myself to -- 5 to -- to uphold my end of that bargain of that grant of 6 parole to be a -- a good citizen, to make my peace with 7 society, to make amends to with society and I'm willing to 8 do that again, regardless of the length of time that you 9 have, eh, you know, uh, found me unsuitable since, uh, um, 10 that rescission. I -- I have no quarrel with any human 11 alive. And, is, I'm not saying that just to please you, 12 it's -- it's -- it's my disposition now. It's my 13 inclination and it's - it's my mental attitude towards 14 this whole, uh -- uh, just being alive.

15 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: I don't have any 16 further questions at this time, Commissioner. I will 17 submit on the entire record here, the C-file, the master
18 10 day and all the Attorneys on documents and support 19 letters in opposition and nothing further.

20 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. We just 21 received a correspondence, another family member, uh, 22 looks to be a -- a support letter from Robert F. Kennedy 23 Jr. So, I'll read that at the appropriate time when we get 24 to victim impact.

25 INMATE SIRHAN: Okay.

1 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Um, Mr. Sirhan, I
2 have one last area I need to question you about. We talked 3 about this at the beginning, however, um, uh, we didn't go
4 into it in detail at that time, because I was only asking 5 the questions to determine whether or not you, um, could 6 understand what we were doing and could participate in the 7 hearing, and that's your medical conditions. And the 8 reason I go into this now at this point is because it is 9 something we're required under the law to consider, your 10 age, your long-term confinement and any physical, um, 11 disabilities that you have. So, I'm going to, uh, I'm 12 assuming you're okay with this since your Attorney 13 submitted, uh, a release and actual medical records. Are - 14 - are you okay with that?

15 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

16 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And for your benefit,
17 Ms. Berry, we have access to everything you submitted.

18 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Okay.

19 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: I mean, I -- I look 20 up the medical records myself, but I don't generally put 21 them on the record unless an inmate has either, uh, 22 expressly waived his right to privacy or he's asking. So,
23 at this point, given your waiver, um, your file shows
24 medical diagnoses as follows: Atrial fibrillation, and I 25 understand you're taking some heart medication for that?

1 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. And that also 3 probably covers the bradycardia, right?

4 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, and they're giving me another 5 medication relief for that.

6 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. Well, yeah, you
7 have an anticoagulation problem. Um, the one that your -- 8 your Attorney doesn't talk about too much, but I, and I 9 don't know the extent of this, um, I'm not a doctor, even 10 though I'm reading the records here, it says chronic 11 kidney disease, but I know you're not on dialysis. So, um, 12 is that something that is, uh, you gotta to get treatment 13 for or what -- what's going on with that?

14 INMATE SIRHAN: It seems they attribute, they, I, 15 they attribute to age, the GFR level is a little bit, um, 16 lower than it should be.

17 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: So, is that is that 18 controlled by medication or what?

19 INMATE SIRHAN: No, it's -- it's an age problem, it's 20 a deterioration of the kidney --

21 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Oh, gotcha, okay.

22 INMATE SIRHAN: - issue.

23 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: But currently your 24 kidneys are working. It's not like you need a transplant, 25 It's not like --

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: - you need dialysis.

3 INMATE SIRHAN: - no, I don't need any -- no, I'm 4 good -- I'm good in that regard.

5 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, yeah. I guess 6 good is a relative term, but it says here, you also have 7 obviously the -- the issue with your neck. Um, I imagine 8 there's scarring tissue there and that's causing pain and 9 stiffness, correct?

10 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, sir.

11 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And then the 12 shoulder, again, is that arthritis, is that just, uh, age?

13 INMATE SIRHAN: It's -- it's, uh, what happened is 14 supposedly, I haven't read the medical, uh, records on 15 this injury, but it, when the, when that fellow attacked 16 me, he severed my -- my neck muscle as well as the, uh, 17 uh, juggler and when they -- when they reconnected the -- 18 the muscle, it shortened -- it shortened it a little bit, 19 and it reaches the sternocleidomastoid muscle, it reaches 20 into the shoulder and that's where they uh -- uh, the in - 21 - uh, the discomfort is.

22 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, and I've 23 noticed throughout the hearing you slumped to your left, 24 does that alleviate the discomfort?

25 INMATE SIRHAN: It -- it helps a little bit, yes.

1 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. And then,
2 um, I -- I didn't know, cause there was something about a 3 fall that you suffered off a horse or something like that,
4 some accident that stopped your jockey career and I didn't 5 know if this was a long-term thing from that or not. See, 6 I do read your file.

7 INMATE SIRHAN: And I respect that and I admire your 8 -- your thoroughness.

9 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: So, this doesn't have 10 anything to do with that though.

11 INMATE SIRHAN: No, no.

12 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. Any other 13 medical conditions you feel are debilitating currently?

14 INMATE SIRHAN: None. None.

15 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. All right. At 16 this point, I'm going to ask your Attorney if she has any 17 clarifying questions, uh, she would like to ask you. Ms.
18 Berry.

19 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Uh, thank you. Um, yes. Uh, 20 during the break, when Mr. Sirhan and I had a moment, he 21 did, um, --

22 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Ms. Berry -- Ms.
23 Berry, don't testify, just ask him the question.

24 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Oh, oh, oh, I, you're gonna 25 allow me to. I thought I had to ask you to ask the 1 question.

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: No, the DA's -- DA's
3 generally ask them through us. You're his Counsel, you can 4 ask him directly. If I feel it's irrelevant, or if I feel 5 it's not clarifying, I'll jump in and -- and stop you. But 6 you can ask him the question directly and you can answer
7 directly Mr. Sirhan.

8 INMATE SIRHAN: Thank you. Thank you.

9 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Uh, Mr. Sirhan, why are you 10 not in the same mindset as the young 24-year-old you were 11 back then. Give us an example.

12 INMATE SIRHAN: It's -- it's age, experience, 13 observation of human life, and it's just the -- the his -- 14 it's -- it's just the desire to live life in a, uh, 15 amicable friendly way now as opposed to my young, you 16 know, uh, eh, unsettled kind of a person that I was in -- 17 in, uh, what at -- at my age in -- in the, at 24 years 18 old. And, uh, it, uh, it -- it's really a part of the 19 maturation process and, uh, it -- it -- it's working, uh, 20 its way through me. Even at this age, I feel that I -- I 21 am older than all of you guys here and appear on the -- on 22 the screen. So, I -- I have, eh, I don't know what else to 23 say, it's just that I'm just growing old.

24 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Thank you. Um, there was 25 another question that was asked earlier. Um, you were

1 talking about your empathy when you were a young child, 2 um, uh, when you experienced, um, the bombing and the -- 3 the discord in, um, Jerusalem and I think that you were 4 going to expand on your answer as far as your empathy. Um, 5 did -- did you want to add something to that?

6 INMATE SIRHAN: Well, it's the imp -- the, feeling, 7 you know, when you're a victim, when you experienced, eh, 8 you know, war and -- and, uh, and -- and destruction and,
9 uh, and just the, and the -- the dispossession of your -- 10 of your home and your property and -- and -- and your 11 family members, it, uh, it's painful, not just for the 12 aggressor but the victim too, the victim of that, uh -- 13 uh, you know, agg -- aggression. And it take, everybody is 14 -- is -- is hurt in that process. It's not just, eh, it's 15 not a win-lose kind of a situation because we have to live 16 with each other. And in order to do that, you know, 17 harmony has to prevail eventually.

18 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Thank you. And just to follow 19 up, um, there was a question about this 2016 incident, um, 20 and that incidentally is the same year you had your, um, 21 last parole hearing. So, with the -- the, um, training and 22 introspection that you have gained since that 2016 time 23 period, tell us what you've learned since then.

24 INMATE SIRHAN: That there are solutions to the most 25 difficult problems if, uh, handled properly and if -- if

1 dealt with in a responsible and nonviolent way. And, uh,
2 that would be my method of, uh, of handling, uh,
3 unpleasant situations, the violence or whatever the issue 4 might be. But my favorite one, to be honest with you, is 5 to just walk away and avoid it from the get-go just by 6 observing it. If I sense it is gonna be a negative 7 problem, I will walk away rather than to rationalize and 8 keep thinking about it and dwelling on it and -- and try 9 to solve it. Because if -- if -- if it's not gonna be a -- 10 a positive, uh -- uh, positively resolved, uh, then just 11 walk away because, uh, that's -- that -- that satisfies my 12 needs and my -- and my -- my concerns that, uh, I'm not 13 hurting anyone and, uh -- uh, and I'm safe.

14 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Okay. Um, since your last 15 parole hearing, um, did you have a chance to meet, um, 16 somebody who is involved in this case personally, um, a 17 next of kin. I'll try not to be leading, Commissioner, I 18 just --

19 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Counselor -- 20 Counselor --

21 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Yes.

22 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: It's not necessary, 23 it's not relevant to our decision one way or the other.

24 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Sure. Sure. Okay. Um, I -- I 25 intended on, um, discussing that in my, um, summation to

1 you, um, so I did not want to, uh, speak from --

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, there's 3 evidence in the record, I think that's who just wrote us a
4 letter.

5 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Okay. All right. Very good.
6 Then I will -- I will, um, withdraw that. Mr. Sirhan, um, 7 there has been, um, an issue in your past hearings about, 8 um, your lack of remorse. And I think it's important that 9 this Board and everyone here, um, how you have 10 internalized, um, if at all, um, your, um, conduct and how 11 that has changed since the 2016 hearing.

12 INMATE SIRHAN: You know, I -- I, in assessing, I 13 would have, I would like to include the -- the -- the 14 Robert Kennedy Jr's, uh, meeting, because it -- it helped 15 me really express and show the -- the -- the sorrow and 16 the -- the self-condemnation reproach that I experienced 17 and I still do for me responsible for this incident to -- 18 to -- to take place because I can't -- I can't absolve 19 myself fully. I can't wash myself fully. It's a part of, 20 uh, it's a part of my thinking every day that I'm alive 21 every in myself. That's all I think about. Why did this 22 happen? Why am I here? How can I help myself, you know, 23 surviving, living and -- and enduring, and, uh, can well 24 imagine the -- the victim's, uh -- uh, fears and -- and 25 pain and suffering that they experienced too, uh, in this

1 case too, because there's no, they -- they can't be -- 2 they can't be -- they can't be healed up because it's -- 3 it's a -- it's a, it's a real loss and -- and --

4 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. Mr. Sirhan,
5 hold on a minute. Mr. Sirhan you're -- you're breaking up.
6 I'm going to ask if Ms. Abreu and Mr. Deble and Mr.
7 Groubert don't mind taking their videos off for a moment
8 so that we can maybe save some bandwidth, um, I appreciate 9 that. Don't leave the call, but, um, okay. So, Mr. Sirhan 10 I -- I got most of your answer, and I understand you had 11 that meeting and I do have a letter from, uh, Robert 12 Kennedy Jr. now that was submitted to us today, which will 13 be read at the appropriate time under victim impact, which 14 he's requested, um, but how do you -- how do you speak to 15 those members of the Kennedy family and for that matter
16 members of the public or members of the other victims'
17 families, or the other surviving victims who feel that you 18 should never get out of prison. I mean, is that an 19 unreasonable thing for them to feel because of the pain 20 they've suffered?

21 INMATE SIRHAN: I appreciate their pain that they've 22 suffered. I appreciate their -- their opposition to my 23 release on parole, but there are laws that, uh, that 24 govern this area. And believe you me, I include, I -- I 25 want to address that issue of the victims, all of them,

1 Mr. Schrade, Mr. Stroll --

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. You -- you can 3 do that in your closing - you can do that in your closing 4 statement.

5 INMATE SIRHAN: Okay.

6 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: I just wanted to see, 7 and you answered my question that those feelings are 8 reasonable on their part. Trust me, as judicial --

9 INMATE SIRHAN: Oh, I do.

10 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: - officers we are 11 aware of what the law requires us to do, but I just wanted 12 to, because you were talking about those that may be, 13 there has been, um, some type of, uh, restoration or more 14 reconciliation, but there are some that there hasn't, and 15 I want you to acknowledge that.

16 INMATE SIRHAN: Oh, I -- I -- I agree with that and 17 all I can offer is my humblest apologies and -- and 18 expressions of remorse and regret for -- for what I did.
19 And, uh, there's no explanation for that.

20 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay.

21 INMATE SIRHAN: And -- and I accept responsibility.

22 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Like I said, you will 23 have an opportunity for a closing statement. I don't want 24 you to have to go through it twice. Ms. Berry, anything 25 else?

1 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: No. Thank you for the 2 opportunity.

3 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. At this time,
4 um, we go to what we call closing statements, Mr. Sirhan
5 and in the past, we start with the DA, there is no DA
6 present. We do, as I say, have one letter in opposition
7 from law enforcement and that letter is in the record. I'm 8 not going to read it. Both myself and the Deputy 9 Commissioner have reviewed it, um, and we certainly are 10 required to consider it, and we will. But at this time, 11 we're going to give your Attorney an opportunity to give a 12 closing statement regarding your suitability. And then you 13 can give a closing statement if you choose to, you're not 14 required to. And then after that, I will go through the, 15 uh, victims and victim family members that want to speak 16 and I'll read the, uh, letter that we have. We also have, 17 as I indicated some confidential letters, which we are 18 aware of and consider, but we don't read in the record
19 pursuant to those persons requests that qualify as victims
20 or victims next of kin. So, with that, Ms. Berry, um, go 21 ahead.

22 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Thank you. Um, as this Board
23 knows, um, the law presumes release. The Board is aware 24 that parole is to be granted unless it finds that Mr.
25 Sirhan, eh, presents an unreasonable risk to the danger of 1 society. That means there is a presumption for his 2 release. That has been codified in the Penal Code and it

3 has been echoed by our Supreme Court in the in re Lawrence
4 case. Um, before I get into the particulars in this case,
5 and I think, um, Commissioner, you -- you did mention them 6 early on, but there are some key differences at this 7 hearing, um, that we haven't seen in any of the other 8 hearings. One is Mr. Sirhan's significant progress in his 9 journey of self-reflection and insight. And I'm gonna get 10 into that in a little bit and I think that he -- he has a 11 statement that will also show that. Um, but in addition, 12 there've been good, the legal and policy changes that make 13 this hearing very different, uh, from his 2016 hearing and 14 all previous hearings. Um, and in my view these changes, 15 um, warrant a finding of -- of suitability for Mr. Sirhan.
16 Um, first of all, as was noted early on, the District 17 Attorney's Office is not here opposing release. Um, they 18 have a new policy in place, um, with basically a -- a, um, 19 a statement that, um, they are not in the position to 20 assess the risk, um, factors at this stage in the game and 21 so they are leaving it to the Board to make that 22 determination based on the Risk Assessments that have been 23 prepared, um, their -- their policy is that they will not 24 oppose if CDCR's determination the prisoner is, um, of low
25 risk of recidivism. And as we know, uh, the 2021 Risk

1 Assessment came in as a low risk of recidivism as have 2 many -- many previous Risk Assessments, um, done for 3 purposes of, uh, suitability determination. Um, so Mr.
4 Sirhan fits squarely within the Los Angeles District
5 Attorney's Office, um, policy, um, that supports release.
6 Uh, another key change since the 2016 hearing is, uh, that 7 Mr. Sirhan's youth must be considered as a mitigating 8 factor, making him less culpable for his crimes. Um, the 9 legislature mandated that the cou -- that this Board 10 consider his youth at the time of the offenses and, um, in 11 fact, give it quote "great weight". Um, as, uh, 12 Commissioner, you -- you mentioned, um, his unstable 13 childhood, which, um, in the past may have been used as a 14 reason to find him unsuitable, uh, can no longer be used 15 for that purpose. Instead, it is to be used for purposes 16 of understanding who the young man was at the time that he 17 committed these crimes and to look at all the subsequent 18 rehabilitation and maturation when determining whether or 19 not he still poss -- possesses a, an unreasonable risk, 20 uh, to the public. He falls squarely within in the 21 youthful offender law, um, as defined by the legislature
22 and through the California Supreme Court in its Franklin 23 decision. Mr. Sirhan was 24 years old, so the Board must 24 consider that. A third key difference of this hearing, um, 25 as was mentioned, and, um, Commissioner, you went through,

1 um, a, uh, very thorough, um, uh, job of going through the 2 different medical conditions that Mr. Sirhan has but this 3 difference is that the legislature now mandates that the 4 Parole Board give quote, "special consideration", um, to 5 Mr. Sirhan's time served, his diminished physical 6 condition and his reduced risk of future violence given 7 his elderly age. Um, we went through what the different, 8 um, uh, ailments he now suffers, um, and Penal Code
9 Section 3055 incidentally, um, also coincides with, um, 10 the Los Angeles District Attorney's new special directive.
11 Um, both of them were guided by research that shows that 12 individuals simply age out of crime, including the most 13 serious violent crimes. Um, statistics demonstrate that,
14 um, those over 54 had just a 4% recidivism rate and I 15 believe that George Gascon, um, does cite that in his 16 special directive. Um, Mr. Sirhan statistically has an 17 extremely low recidivism rate simply based on his age. And 18 then additionally, we know through the Department of 19 Corrections psychologist, their Risk Assessment that he 20 personally is a very low risk of violence as has been 21 consistent with his past, um, Risk Assessment evaluations.
22 So, these three key changes, um, the DA's policy, youthful 23 offender and elderly, um, prisoner consideration all 24 support a finding of suitability, um, in this matter. Um, 25 so I want to talk about, uh, the factors and -- and just

1 simply, um, remind the Board that the onl --, that the 2 only issue for this Board is to determine whether or not 3 he presently is a current danger, presently a current 4 danger. The Board can't require an admission of guilt, and 5 this Board has not been delving into the facts, um, 6 because the Penal Code, uh, does not allow for an 7 admission of guilt for purposes of, um, granting parole
8 and that's, um, Penal Code Section 5011. But a sticking 9 point at previous parole hearings has been whether, um, 10 Mr. Sirhan has accepted responsibility for all crimes of 11 which he was convicted, um, as -- as -- as if they were 12 requiring an admission of guilt for everything. Um, so 13 just -- just a quick reminder since we all have read the 14 prior, um, hearings that, um, requiring an admission of 15 everything is impermissible, um, by the Penal Code. Um, 16 another thing that the court cannot rely on, um, is, et, 17 to find him unsuitable, is this notion that his actions
18 changed history so he must be locked up and stay locked
19 up. Time and again in den -- in denying, um, Mr. Sirhan's 20 suitability, past Boards have declared that he's 21 responsible for changing history, that he disenfranchised
22 millions and the gravity of those facts or assumed facts, 23 um, are used to justify a finding of unsuitability. But 24 the law is clear. A finding of unsuitability cannot be 25 based on immutable or unchangeable facts at all. 53 years

1 after the commission of the crime, the facts are only 2 minimal, minimally relevant for purposes of exploring 3 whether today, currently, Mr. Sirhan has reflected on his 4 crime, his contrite is remorseful, and whether he has 5 gained the insight into the triggers and causes of his 6 behavior from that day. The Board must refrain from 7 relying on the facts of the crime to make its finding of 8 unsuitability if it were to go that way, um, because such 9 a reliance would ignore all of his rehabilitation. It 10 ignores the Board's obligation to give great weight to 11 youthful offender factors and Mr. Sirhan's subsequent 12 growth and rehabilitation, and it would ignore the Board's 13 obligation to give quote, "special consideration" to age-14 related factors that significantly reduce the prisoner, 15 Mr. Sirhan's risk of future violence. Um, the Supreme 16 Court has, and subsequent appellate courts have ruled that 17 where an inmate's record indicates he's no longer 18 dangerous, the circumstances of the offense committed do 19 not generally support unsuitability for parole and the 20 only exception is where there a rational nexus between 21 those facts and current dangerousness, and I submit to 22 this Board that, um, this exception is not, um, supported 23 by the record. Um, respectfully this Board cannot legally 24 base a finding of unsuitability relying on an argument 25 that this was a political assassination. Um, let's be

1 clear, Mr. Sirhan was convicted of the generic
2 premeditated statute for murder, just like countless other 3 vic -- convicted murderers who have been released by this 4 Board. Additionally, calling this a political 5 assassination and then basing a finding on that claim,
6 belies the evidence in this case. Um, and the evidence I
7 referred to here has to do with post, uh, prior, um, Risk 8 Assessments, where doctors have opined, um, that because 9 of the political undertones of this and the potential 10 political, um, motivation that causes Mr. Sirhan to be 11 less of a risk and -- and specifically Dr. Pollick in his 12 opinion in 19, um, that was recognized in the 1985 parole 13 hearing, um, he opined that the risk of re-offense is very 14 remote since the crime was politically motivated. We heard 15 that echoed by Dr. Dry in, uh, 1987. Um, again, Dr. Dry 16 opined that the political motive for the offense makes 17 Sirhan's violence potential very low. And then we saw most 18 recently, um, at the last parole hearing it came up with 19 Dr. Sahni, um, Risk Assessment, uh, for the 2016 hearing, 20 uh, Dr. Sahni said Mr. Sirhan's risk relates squarely to 21 the crime itself, rendering him a low risk of future 22 violence. Um, so these experts in conclusions show there's 23 no nexus between the political nature of Mr. Sirhan's 24 crime and his current danger, um, his current danger 25 level. Um, given these expert opinions over time, the

1 Board would need evidence to prove that these experts
2 failed to detect or underestimated Sirhan's current danger
3 in their risk evaluations and we've seen no such evidence.
4 Um, another area that the Board should refrain from, uh,
5 being swayed by is an oft repeated argument, um, by, uh,
6 prosecutors in -- in past hearings that Mr. Sirhan got a 7 lucky break and avoided the death penalty, so he should 8 never be released. Um, it's been stated by the District
9 Attorney's Office --

10 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Counselor, that's not 11 even -- that's not even a legal argument, so you can --

12 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Yeah, and -- and that's where 13 I was going with that, but however it has been mentioned 14 and it was mentioned that, uh, the comments from the 15 District Attorney's Office, um, that were made in previous 16 hearings would be considered or, uh, or have been reviewed 17 anyway by this, uh, Board. So, I wanted to dispel any 18 argument that, um, uh, or any justification that -- that 19 could be used as a basis to, um, keep him in custody. He 20 did not get the death penalty because as we know, the US 21 Supreme Court ruled that death penalty statutes like the 22 one used in Mr. Sirhan's case were ruled unconstitutional 23 under the 8th amendment. Um, and -- and I also want to 24 suggest that this Board should also refrain, um, from 25 deeming one victim of this event as more important than 1 other victims in other, um, cases. This Board in -- in the 2 past has appeared in my view to give this particular 3 decedent in this case more value than decedents in other 4 cases. Um, they have appeared to treat the decedent victim

5 here because he's a Kennedy has somehow a life more 6 valuable than countless other victims of murder, where the 7 Board has released the killers. But a human life is a 8 human life, all worthy of the same consideration and a 9 prisoner's rehabilitation and suitability for relief, for 10 release are just that as well. They are the same, no 11 matter who the victim was. And it's important to remember 12 that Mr. Sirhan was not a political, uh, this was not a 13 political assassination, he was convicted of generic 14 premeditated murder. And again, just like the countless 15 other prisoners convicted of first-degree murder who have 16 now been released by you, um, he should be trea -- treated 17 the same and seen under the same standard. Now I -- I've - 18 - I've gotten this impress, uh, this impression from past, 19 um, Board hearings that I've read that have to do with 20 this case that, um, there's this need to feel that the 21 Board has to advocate for the late Senator Kennedy, um, 22 assuming they know what he would have wanted. Um, but with 23 due respect, um, we -- we do know what he would have 24 wanted and that is that the decision that the Board should 25 make is to release Mr. Sirhan. How do we know that? We

1 know that through people who actually knew Robert Kennedy.
2 We know that through his longtime friend and confident,
3 Paul Schrade. We also know it through his son, Robert 4 Kennedy, um, who has publicly spoken for release of Mr.
5 Sirhan, um, and, um, while I haven't seen the letter he 6 has just, um, recently sent, um, since I spoke with him
7 last night, I assume it is in favor of Mr. Sirhan's 8 release. Um, there's no conjecture bottom line as to -- to 9 what Mr. Kennedy would have wanted, Senator Kennedy. This 10 Board cannot rationalize denying parole in what it feels 11 is respect for the Kennedy's because we know Senator 12 Kennedy would've what -- what he would've wanted. He 13 would've wanted justice and due process for Mr. Sirhan and 14 that means a finding at this point of suitability for 15 release. Um, and I would also just simply state that, um, 16 any tendency to deny parole based on what the Board thinks 17 is appropriate for the Kennedys would also ignore the 18 other direct victims in this case. Um, the vic -- victim's 19 bill of rights applies to all victims of the crime
20 equally. Paul Schrade was a victim. William Weisel was a 21 victim. The late William Weisel, um, an ABC news reporter
22 who received a bullet to his stomach on that evening, um, 23 made a public statement in 2011 that he supported Mr.
24 Sirhan's release if the experts found Mr. Sirhan of little 25 risk to the public. The experts did find that. They found

1 it previously to that and they have since. And Paul -- 2 Paul Schrade, um, he is now 96 years old, as a victim of 3 the crime, for over 40 years now, he has advocated for the 4 release of Mr. Sirhan. He comes before you today in his 5 twilight years, pleading with you to do the right thing
6 and release Mr. Sirhan because he is suitable for release.
7 The evidence that we have before us and the, all of the 8 central file, um, and -- and what we presented for this, 9 the 65-day packet, the 10-day packet, everything there 10 supports a finding of suitability. There's nothing that 11 shows he is currently dangerous. He's been consistently 12 assessed low risk by CDCR for many -- many years, over 13 many parole hearings. He has no criminal record other than 14 this case, which is very dated. He has no serious 15 custodial rules violations since 1972, 49 years ago. He 16 has a classification score of 0 and psychiatrists and 17 psychologists over the years have concluded he has the 18 insight into his offense and learned to self-regulate 19 against any triggers to re-offend. He has expressed 20 remorse, and there's nothing that shows he is currently 21 dangerous. Um, as we touched on, um, his -- his unstable 22 youth, um, and the state of mind, the frame of mind, he 23 was as a young, um, man trying to figure out his life
24 after just, uh, recently losing his sister to leukemia, 25 um, he was living in some turmoil within his head. The --

1 the Board needs to consider that, or it must consider 2 that, um, his youth, what was going on in his particular 3 life and the hallmarks of youth, which we all know based 4 on the unrefuted neuroscience, that the brain is still 5 developing until we're in our, well into our mid 20s. The 6 -- the prefrontal lobe, which is responsible for decision-7 making, for impulse control, um, weighing the risks and 8 the benefits, the cost benefit analysis, all of that is 9 still developing well into our 20s and because of that, 10 the legislature has mandated that you consider that when 11 considering his culpability and look at who he was then, 12 and the strides that he has made since then. Um, I, this 13 hearing has been going on a long time, and I know that 14 <inaudible> read this, you've demonstrated that 15 Commissioners, um, you know, a lot about Mr. Sirhan's 16 childhood and the tumultuous life he had as a, uh, toddler 17 in the Middle East with the bombings, um, and, uh, seeing 18 his older brother run over right in front of him. Um, uh, 19 --

20 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: <inaudible> brief
21 also which is in the record.

22 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Sure -- sure, yes, it's in 23 the record as well as in the record from, um, the Franklin 24 hearing, which has been forwarded to you, so I -- I don't 25 need to repeat that since it is in the record and, um, I

1 don't want to lose you. Um, so I -- I would ask that you 2 consider the -- the time that he spent in Israel and the 3 time coming to the United States, where he was in his life 4 and particularly where everybody is in their lives and 5 look at his demonstrable records since he's been in to see 6 that he is not the same young individual, the young dumb 7 person that, um, we all are when we are a lot younger and, 8 um, in my view that supports, um, a release from custody.
9 Um, Dr. Megan Williamson also brings up in her report, she 10 was the doctor who was appointed by the court to evaluate 11 Mr. Sirhan for purposes of, um, developing youthful 12 offender mitigation. Um, she has opined that Mr. Sirhan
13 suffers from complex PTSD as a result of, um, the trauma 14 he experienced as a child, um, again, that is in her 15 report and I would ask that you consider that and how he 16 reacts or rather did react to situations, um, when he was 17 a lot younger. She tells us that, um, uh, PTSD can disrupt 18 memory, it can disrupt awareness and it can lead to 19 impulsive behavior. So, we have that on top of what we 20 already know that every person whose brain is not fully 21 developed yet, which would be all of us, um, added to Mr.
22 Sirhan's makeup at the time he committed these crimes. Um, 23 as far as rehabilitation, um, it was outlined earlier, he 24 -- he did earn his AA degree. Um, he did graduate Magna 25 cum laude, he had an impressive 4.0, um, to get his AA. He

1 has almost enough college for credits to earn his BA
2 degree and I think the question was asked if he's done 3 that. Um, but I think, um, the record establishes from 4 prior, um, hearings, that there haven't been the 5 resources. At one point they had told Mr. Sirhan that they 6 didn't have the ability to accommodate his high level of 7 education, and while he did not articulate that today, 8 instead focused on his -- his time being spent, um, with 9 insight, um, I suspect that that is one of the reasons, 10 um, given that that was the state of affairs, um, for so 11 long that there simply wasn't, um, the -- the 12 opportunities offered to allow him to -- to attain that, 13 um, higher degree. He's maintained his work assignments.
14 Um, he is consistently reported to be a reliable and 15 respectful worker. Um, he participated in the category X
16 psychological program. That was something that the 1984 17 Board had recommended that he complete. It took a very 18 long time, several years for CDCR to comply with that 19 recommendation to transfer Mr. Sirhan so he could do that 20 program. Um, that was because of, um, their decision that 21 there were safety concerns with transferring him and 22 allowing him to do that. Nevertheless, he did it. Um, he 23 got that completed and Dr. Dry in 1986 opined that Mr.
24 Sirhan should be considered for release after completing 25 that program. Um, Mr. Sirhan is suitable for release now.

1 He -- he's -- he has the level of insight, um, and has 2 learned to self-regulate that, um, would lead to a finding 3 of suitability. He completed that psychological 4 counseling, um, before the 1990 hearing and there he 5 explained to the Board, um, that that program taught him
6 about triggers, influence -- influencing his conduct 7 during the crime. Um, he explained to the Board then that 8 the Arab Israeli conflict is no longer a focus in his life
9 and he has learned to not make things he cannot control 10 his business. I -- I bring that up today because, um, 11 sometimes Mr. Sirhan isn't as articulate as we want him to 12 be, um, and particularly I think it is also, um, it 13 depends on who the person is that is asking him questions, 14 um, the -- the dynamic. So, knowing that he has told you 15 that in the past, um, I did want to remind you of that.
16 Um, back in 1994, um, the Board, um, quoted Dr. Martin.
17 Um, Dr. Martin was, as you know, another one of the, uh, 18 psychologists who had assessed Mr. Sirhan's, um, risk 19 level and found him to be a low risk and the Board 20 considered Dr. Martin's report to be the most 21 comprehensive evaluation it had seen thus far. And Dr.
22 Martin said that Sirhan seems fairly clear on the 23 causative factors of his crime. Um, so we have doctors who 24 are telling us that they, through their extensive talk, 25 uh, conversations with him, he has expressed that to them,

1 um, and I'd ask the court, uh, the Board to consider that,
2 um, if it is finding that perhaps today, he wasn't as 3 articulate, um, as, um, it would have wanted. We do know
4 that doctors who had more time with Mr. Sirhan when Mr.
5 Sirhan wasn't so much under the gun have made the decision 6 that he is clearer about the causative factors, um, that 7 led to his crime. Um, more recently, Mr. Sirhan completed
8 a six-month substance abuse program, um, his -- his files 9 replete with positive programming, uh, Dr. Williamson in 10 her, um, Franklin papers goes through the list of 11 programming that he's done. She makes a really, um, a 12 decent record or a list of the programming that he's done.
13 Um, I just did want to point out as far as what he's done 14 since just over the last two years and I think Deputy 15 Commissioner, you did -- you did, uh, um, recognize that 16 he's done a lot of self-help programming, a lot of 17 programming into his insight, but I did want to, for the 18 record, um, indicate, and I -- I don't need to name them 19 all because I -- I trust that the two of you have looked 20 at all of this, but he has done, um, I would say roughly 21 20 different programs just over the last two years. Um, 22 during a time of COVID when the programming isn't as 23 available to the prisoners because of the protocols, the 24 safety protocols, um, yet he has still done, uh, this 25 programming and I think that he has really demonstrated,

1 um, to this Board today and through the work that he's 2 been doing, that he is a different person and is, um, now
3 ready to be released. Um, the chronos were -- were talked 4 about as well. I had marked, um, for myself to mention 5 them. Um, one thing I did want to just also highlight with 6 respect to the chronos, um, that, um, the Deputy 7 Commissioner mentioned was the laudatory chrono that we 8 received just within the last couple of days from J.
9 Corkran. Um, while there was a -- a good summary on the 10 record, um, here today regarding what that said, um, one - 11 - one part I thought was, is missing that I -- I think 12 would be notable for the record is that this Correctional 13 Officer, um, has noticed Mr. Sirhan's nonviolent 14 predisposition. And that really is a key factor for this 15 Board to consider because that's what this is all about, 16 right? Does he have the capacity to still be violent? And 17 this Correctional Officer Corkran who has a lot of contact 18 with Mr. Sirhan found him to have a nonviolent 19 disposition. So, I -- I, um, point that out to the Board 20 as well. Um, I know that Mr. Sirhan has -- has done a lot 21 of programming the last couple of years. Um, he's trying 22 to improve himself. He's working within the confines of 23 the adminis --, uh, the -- the administrative staff there 24 and what is allowed, um, COVID has further restrict -- 25 restricted that. He was in administrative segregation

1 after he was, um, stabbed, um, but he still found a way to 2 do his programming and I think he should be, um, commended
3 for -- for that. He also reached out in an untraditional
4 way. There are resources that he was able to find that 5 were not being offered at his institution in his yard. His 6 yard, Yard A, does not offer programming currently. I 7 don't know if that is because of COVID or if it's just 8 because of the nature of the individuals that are there,
9 but nevertheless, undeterred, Mr. Sirhan had found a way
10 to do the programming. Um, he found ways to -- to rehabil
11 -- rehabilitate himself despite the lack of resources. Um, 12 he sought out other inmates. What they did was they got 13 together whenever they had yard time and they would work 14 on these -- these, um, didactic, um, theories. They would 15 work with -- with insight. They would do these workbooks.
16 He's been doing a lot because he is now at the point in 17 his life where he realizes that he was missing the mark, 18 and he is now doing the work and has done the work, um, to 19 give him that insight so that we can feel confident that 20 he is not a risk if he were to be released. Um, Jennifer 21 Abreu who is with us today and is an advocate for Paul 22 Schrade, I believe will, um, discuss some of the work that 23 Mr. Sirhan has been doing, um, through her organization, 24 which is called Redemption Row. Um, Mr. Sirhan, has told 25 you he -- he has a greater understanding today than he has

1 in the past. Um, he better under --

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: You're -- you're 3 repeating yourself, ma'am.

4 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Okay. He better understands 5 the precursors. Um, he has consistently expressed his 6 remorse. He takes responsibility for the conduct and how 7 he ruined the lives of, um, the actual victims and the 8 indirect victims. He, um, we will hear from Robert Kennedy
9 Jr., and like I said, since, I don't know what that letter 10 says, um, Mr. Sirhan did note that he did meet with 11 Robert, um, Kennedy Jr. and I could tell this Board that 12 based on my conversations with, uh, Kennedy --

13 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: No, you can't -- no
14 you can't. You're not allowed to testify.

15 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Sure. His plans for the 16 future, um, Mr. Sirhan, um, if he's allowed to stay in the 17 United States will reside with his brother Munir in the 18 house that they own in Pasadena. Um, Mr., uh -- uh, Munir 19 Sirhan has told us that he owns the house, um, free and 20 clear, so there's not gonna be an issue with whether or 21 not, um, these two older gentlemen, um, have enough means 22 to be supported. Mr. Munir Sirhan has told us that based 23 on his, um, social security, um, he can provide for the 24 two of them, um, and so we don't need to worry about any 25 financial issues in that regard. And I would just, um,

1 just make one correction, I believe, uh, there are four 2 letters from neighbors. Um, the first round of -- of, um,
3 documents we received in the 65-day packet I believe only 4 included two. Two others were, um, added later. These are 5 --

6 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: We have -- we have 7 them all.

8 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Neighbors of Munir.

9 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: We have them.

10 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Sure. Okay. Thank you. Um, 11 Ms. Abreu I think will also be telling you that, um, she 12 will be offering her support to Mr. Sirhan. Um, he has -- 13 he has told us that he is interested in pursuing his, um, 14 his religious activities and so he would have that also as 15 support out there. And, uh, victim Paul Schrade, um, based 16 on the, um, statement that he has already made, we know 17 that he would offer his friendship and support to Sirhan.
18 So Sirhan has, um, a lot of support out there, a strong 19 support system for him, for his transition back into 20 society. Um, before I wrap this up and -- and, um, I -- I 21 appreciate you letting me know if I -- I was repeating 22 myself, but, um, should this Board, um, make a 23 recommendation that he is unsuitable, which I don't 24 believe the evidence here can support that, but should 25 this court make that decision, I would ask that, um, the

1 Board, given Mr. Sirhan's age, given Mr. Schrade's age,
2 and Mr. Sirhan's, um, reduced risk of violence with each
3 passing year, that the next hearing be set at the minimum 4 time, the three years, um, that is allowed for under -- 5 under the, um, Penal Code Section, but hopefully we don't 6 get there because, um, this Board will agree that, um, Mr.
7 Sirhan is finally suitable for, uh, release. Um, I think 8 it's important also to view Mr. Sirhan's confi -- 9 confinement through the lens of the sentencing laws at the 10 time of the offenses. Um, today murder, the punishment for 11 murder is much harsher today. Somebody convicted of the 12 crime, they receive 25 to life in prison. Um, it's not 13 uncommon for us to see with enhancements people getting 14 sentences that are beyond their natural life, 75 to life 15 or 160 years to life. But that's not what, how we need to 16 judge Mr. Sirhan.

17 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: It's -- it's 18 irrelevant, Ms. Berry. It's irrelevant. Both elder --

19 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: And I just want --

20 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: and youthful offender 21 would make him eligible even if he had --

22 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: that's right.

23 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: 100 to life.

24 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: That's right. Back in 19, uh, 25 88, actually yes so.

1 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay.

2 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Okay. All right. Sure. I
3 would just summarize, um, that we have the Risk
4 Assessments that have been very low for a very long time.
5 And with the new laws that this Board must consider, which 6 is that he is an elderly prisoner that you must give great 7 consideration to, um, because he was a youthful offender 8 and all the programming that he has been doing and his 9 demonstration of his remorse and his, um, articulation of 10 his insight, that this Board at this time find him 11 suitable for release.

12 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. Thank you.
13 And just to correct, I think you misspoke, but it's -- 14 it's great weight to the youth offender factors and it's 15 special consideration to the elderly factors.

16 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Thank you. I -- I

17 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: So, we have the --

18 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: that's correct.

19 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: the actual standards
20 in the record. All right.

21 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: That's it, yeah.

22 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Thank you. Um, --

23 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Thank you.

24 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Mr. Sirhan, this is 25 your opportunity to tell us anything you want us to know

1 before we, uh, go to victim's statements and then decide 2 your case. Um, do you have a closing statement you want to 3 read, or what do you want to do?

4 INMATE SIRHAN: Say a short, it's a short comment and 5 it really deals with the victims. As we come into the 6 conclusion of this Board hearing, I realized that advanced 7 age and health risks may prevent Mr. Paul Schrade and 8 myself from ever meeting again. I would like to use my 9 closing statement to personalize -- to personally
10 apologize, not only to Mr. Schrade again, but to Mr.
11 Stroll, to Mr. Evan, Mr. Weisel, Mr. Goldstein and Mr.
12 Kennedy. Over a half a century has passed and young 13 impulsive kid that I was does not exist anymore. Mr.
14 Schrade and surviving family members of the Evans,
15 Weisels, Strolls, Goldstein and the Kennedy families, I 16 want you to know that I have tried to live my life 17 dedicated to never creating another victim or using 18 violence again. My exemplary record is unheard of within 19 CDC prison system, but it is not a testament of my own 20 merit, it is an a rather a debt -- debt of honor to those 21 who were affected by the chaos of my actions way back that 22 night in 1968. I have grown into a humble, balanced man, 23 educated myself, having earned my Assoc -- Associate's 24 degree. I have completed and even facilitated cognitive 25 based self-help groups and I am constantly conscious about

1 living peacefully, even in this dangerous and violent
2 environment. It is my greatest wish to return to society
3 as a man, one who has a lot to offer, one who has overcome 4 not with a few overcome -- a mistake -- overcome, not with 5 words, but with actions. I only take it -- it -- it only 6 takes a few seconds to make a bad choice that will create 7 a ripple effect and create a lost life, a lost lifetime.
8 My creed today is to find myself in others and find common 9 ground and not be so quick to harm or judge. I will 10 continue and I have, as I have for the past half a century 11 on this path, regardless of today's decision. Insight and 12 love are constantly developing new paths and I am on that 13 journey to progress. Thank you.

14 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Thank you. Okay. Now 15 we're going to go to the various, uh, family members that 16 want to speak, and we will start with the one surviving 17 victim, um, Mr. Schrade. Again, I don't know, I've seen 18 him come and go from the screen with Ms. Bohdan. I don't 19 know if he wants to speak in person. We have read his 20 letter. We have read the, his comments he made previously 21 from prior transcripts, but at this time, Mr. Schrade, 22 maybe Ms. Bohdan you can facilitate, uh, does he want to 23 make any comment in addition to what we already have?

24 VICTIM SUPPORT BOHDAN: <inaudible> do you want to?

25 VICTIM SCHRADE: No.

1 VICTIM SUPPORT BOHDAN: Thank you, Mr. Commissioner.
2 Paul does have a few words he wants to state, and we, he 3 wants also the record to reflect that he did provide his 4 prerecorded video --

5 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: We have it.

6 VICTIM SUPPORT BOHDAN: - statement, as well as --

7 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: We have it.

8 VICTIM SUPPORT BOHDAN: <inaudible>

9 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: We have all of it.

10 VICTIM SUPPORT BOHDAN: So, he's going to say a few 11 words now.

12 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay, go ahead, sir.

13 VICTIM SCHRADE: First of all, I, uh, pleased that 14 the hearing is going so well. I, in hopes that, uh, Sirhan 15 will be released. Uh, I know I've been working with his 16 brother, uh, through this long period and know that he 17 will have a good home to go to. I have great respect for 18 his brother, Munir. What is not really often said about 19 this case is that Sirhan was not the shooter of, uh, my 20 friend, Robert Kennedy. There was a second gunman 21 involved. The forensic bullet and witness evidence is 22 clear that he did not do it. There's a second gunman who 23 was never identified, but it was covered up by the Los 24 Angeles Police and the District Attorney for 52 years. He 25 is innocent of the murder of Rob, my friend, Robert

1 Kennedy. And I un -- I've been able to work with Robert 2 Kennedy Jr. and his family to inform them and keep them,
3 uh, on message so that we finally get Sirhan's removal 4 from this prison environment. I'm hope that we'll do that 5 today.

6 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Thank you, sir.

7 VICTIM SUPPORT BOHDAN: Can I have just one moment.
8 <inaudible>.

9 VICTIM SCHRADE: I already did say that, didn't I.

10 VICTIM SUPPORT BOHDAN: <inaudible>

11 VICTIM SCHRADE: Okay. Uh, I just received a copy of 12 Robert Kennedy Jr.'s letter.

13 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: I -- I have it sir.
14 We'll read that into the record.

15 VICTIM SCHRADE: That's very good. And I support 16 everything he says in that letter.

17 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay.

18 VICTIM SUPPORT BOHDAN: Thank you.

19 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. Ms.
20 Bohdan, you don't have any comments I take it, in addition 21 to what's already been said and what we have in the 22 record?

23 VICTIM SUPPORT BOHDAN: Um, well your honor, to the 24 extent that I'm permitted to comment through, um, what I 25 have worked with Mr. Schrade on, I would --

1 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. We're -- we're 2 losing --

3 VICTIM SUPPORT BOHDAN: - indicate that he supports 4 all of --

5 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: - we're losing --

6 VICTIM SUPPORT BOHDAN: <inaudible>

7 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: - we're losing your 8 audio. I'm getting everyone --

9 VICTIM SUPPORT BOHDAN: I would indi -- okay, can you 10 hear me now?

11 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Yeah, that's much 12 better.

13 VICTIM SUPPORT BOHDAN: Okay. I turned off my screen, 14 so I'll just speak without a screen.

15 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Yeah, that's better.

16 VICTIM SUPPORT BOHDAN: Um, to the extent that, um, 17 Mr. Schrade can, he's listened to all of the arguments by 18 Counsel today, and he certainly supports the analysis of 19 the law by Mr. Sirhan's Counsel. He, um, he himself has 20 met with Mr., um, Sirhan. He believes that he has remorse 21 and that remorse was expressed. He understands, um, his 22 perspective of the case, which is based on decades of 23 research and for him this boils down to a matter of due 24 process and justice, but even setting aside some of the 25 factors, the court, uh, the Commissioners may be

1 constrained to not consider today such as the re-
2 litigation issue. Even setting that all aside, Mr.
3 Schrade, knowing full well that he did in fact receive a 4 bullet, um, to his own body from Sirhan, still supports 5 release based on all the factors that have been 6 highlighted today by Sirhan and his Counsel. Thank you.

7 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. And just so the 8 record is clear, I recognize you're a support person.
9 Typically, representatives get to speak. I was extending 10 you a little more given the age and the obvious, um, 11 difficulties that Mr. Schrade has in expressing himself.
12 So, I appreciate that you limited it to that. So next I'm 13 going to, uh, go to, uh, victims' family members. We'll 14 start with Douglas Kennedy. Would you like to make a 15 comment? You're on mute. You're on mute, sir. I appreciate 16 that, but okay, go right ahead, sir.

17 VNOK DOUGLAS KENNEDY: Yeah. Uh, my name is, uh, 18 Douglas Kennedy, I'm the 10th, uh, child of, uh, Robert 19 Kennedy. Um, I am very grateful to, uh -- uh, be able to 20 participate today, um, and, uh, I thank the Commissioners, 21 uh, for their, uh, for your, uh, work and is a very 22 difficult, uh, job you have and a lot of responsibility on 23 your shoulders and, uh -- uh, I'm grateful for your 24 service. Um, and I'm, uh, first and foremost, uh, 25 overwhelmed by just, uh -- uh, being able to, uh, view,

1 uh, Mr. Sirhan, uh, face to face. Uh, um, I -- I think 2 I've lived my life, I think he mentioned, uh, in -- in 3 fear of -- of both him and his name, um, and, uh, in -- in 4 -- in one way or another. And, um, I am greatf --grateful 5 to, uh, today see him, uh, as -- as a human being, uh, 6 worthy of compassion and love and, um, and, uh, the -- the 7 -- the, I -- I -- I'm grateful for that experience, um,
8 and, uh, I do, uh, wish him well in his life. Um, uh, I, 9 the -- the only I, and I -- and I really do believe that 10 anybody who any prisoner who, uh, is found to be a, uh, 11 not a threat to themselves or the - or the world should be 12 released. Uh, I -- I -- I believe that a -- a -- applies 13 to, uh, everyone, every human being and including Mr.
14 Sirhan. Um, and, uh, if the Board does find him, um, to 15 be, uh, not a threat to himself or others, I think they 16 should release him. Um, I -- I would just like to note a - 17 - a -- a couple things that, um, that I did notice, uh, 18 some -- sometime I -- I was very moved by, uh -- uh, Mr.
19 Sirhan's, um -- um, uh, expression of remorse, um, and -- 20 and at times it brought tears to my eyes and, uh, and 21 affected me very deeply. Um, uh, I -- I do -- I do wish, 22 uh, he had not, uh, added a qualifier at times that said 23 if I did this, um, and I know there's been some 24 speculation that he was not the killer or, uh, of my 25 father, um, but, uh, he did bring a gun to, uh, the -- the

1 hotel that night and, uh, he did shoot it, uh, with the 2 intention to kill, uh, my father. So that -- that's 3 enough. Uh, I don't think we -- we need to get into 4 anything else, uh, or -- or have any other qualifiers, uh 5 -- uh, that -- that -- that's enough just to say, uh, just 6 -- just to leave it at that. Um, I -- I -- I would also, 7 you know, I know, uh, Ms. Berry mentioned a couple of 8 things that, uh -- uh, her, she expressed a regret that 9 this is all about Robert Kennedy. I -- I don't think 10 anybody, uh, wants to, uh, put Robert Kennedy's life above
11 any other human being's life. Um, uh, I think the only 12 reason it is in this case is because, uh, his intention 13 was to kill Robert Kennedy and, uh, had some, uh -- uh, 14 collateral, uh -- uh, lives that he also, um, affected.
15 Um, uh, I would also, um, uh, just my -- my own personal,
16 uh, I, and I call it more of a hope than anything, I -- I 17 -- I did hear, um, Mr. Sirhan, uh, express, um, in an 18 emotional way, uh, the -- the his, uh, his continued, um, 19 uh, what he called empathy for, uh, the Palestinians, uh, 20 at that time in 1968. I -- I would, that -- that to me did 21 not, uh, look like, uh, rehabilitation. That to me looked, 22 uh, like a justification and it did not look to me like 23 empathy. Um, it looked, uh, more like a justification for 24 -- for something he did, and I just my own personal, uh, 25 belief is that, uh, and -- and I was glad to hear Ms.

1 Berry describe it as a trigger. Um, this is a trigger and,
2 uh, any -- anything that's a trigger I think probably 3 should be avoided. Um, and so I heard Mr. Sirhan say, well
4 he wants to be a, um, an agent of peace in the Palestinian 5 Israeli crisis. I personally would hope that he would just 6 avoid that -- that topic and, uh, even -- even the fact,
7 uh, I recognize that he was affected by it, I recognize 8 that fact. I -- I would urge him to, um, to, uh, delve 9 into that part of -- of his psyche and -- and get in touch 10 with that stuff rather than the, uh, the trigger that led 11 him to violence, uh, that night. Um, uh, so, uh, I -- I 12 am, uh, grateful to be able to speak today. I am grateful 13 to, I -- I'm looking at you, I'm looking at Mr. Sirhan, 14 uh, right now. And, um, and, uh, I -- I do have some love
15 for you, for him, and, um, and I -- and I do wish him well 16 in his, uh, life and rehabilitation. That's it. Thank you.

17 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. Thank you,
18 sir. And just so, um, my record is, and obviously you 19 heard things maybe differently than I did, but I was doing 20 the questioning of him and I indicate in my notes, not 21 that he was seeking out to be a peacemaker, like join the 22 UN, but my hypothetical is if approached and people put a 23 microphone in his face or he was asked about being a 24 peacemaker, what would he do? And his -- his answer I 25 thought was that he would then advocate for peace. So, um,

1 and we'll, you know, the record is --

2 VNOK DOUGLAS KENNEDY: Yeah, yeah, and if I -- if I 3 could respond to that --

4 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Sure.

5 VNOK DOUGLAS KENNEDY: I -- I -- I think that, um, 6 that -- that, uh, that, uh -- uh, to me, in a more
7 appropriate, if -- if -- if I may, uh, a more --

8 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: No, I understand what 9 you're saying, but for <inaudible> --

10 VNOK DOUGLAS KENNEDY: -- appropriate -- a more -- a 11 more appropriate response to say I don't want anything to 12 do with that conflict, that's a trigger for me and I don't 13 and -- and -- and I don't want anything to do with it, I 14 have no business in it and, uh, and -- and I will leave it 15 to others to work that out. I have to focus on myself and 16 -- and -- and the tragedies of my own life and that's what 17 I'm going to focus on, rather than anything political.
18 Because unlike Ms. Berry, I -- I know she's probably 19 talking about technical, this was a political 20 assassination. So, you know, it, that -- that might be a 21 technical term that she's talking, but this was a 22 political assassination.

23 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Thank you, sir.

24 VNOK DOUGLAS KENNEDY: So, uh, so anything political 25 --

1 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: <inaudible>

2 VNOK DOUGLAS KENNEDY: - yeah, okay, great. Thank you 3 very much.

4 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. And, uh,
5 let's see, did I lose him? I don't think so. Uh, Robert 6 Kennedy are you still there? I can't hear you.

7 VNOK ROBERT KENNEDY: No comment.

8 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. All right. And 9 then, um, representatives on behalf of Mr. Schrade, I'll 10 start with, uh, Ms. Abreu. Again, as was indicated in the 11 past, uh, the comments should be to the Panel, not to Mr.
12 Sirhan directly. Um, so you can now speak regarding victim 13 impact.

14 VICTIM'S REPRESENTATIVE ABREU: Hi, good afternoon.
15 Um, --

16 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And just so you know, 17 I had some problems. When Mr. Kennedy was speaking, I took 18 myself off video momentarily, I was still listening, but I 19 was having some auditory problems. So, if you see my video 20 move it's because I'm trying to make sure I can hear 21 everything, okay? But I'll try to come back on as soon as 22 I get the little prompt saying that my signal is clear 23 again.

24 VICTIM'S REPRESENTATIVE ABREU: And I -- I may also 25 have to switch off my video, um, just if in the event the

1 bandwidth is not strong enough, it might stick. So, um --

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: I can tell you -- you 3 already look like a bad movie. Your lips are moving, and 4 then we hear <inaudible>

5 VICTIM'S REPRESENTATIVE ABREU: Okay. I'll just go
6 ahead and take it off then. Okay. Um, thank you for giving 7 me the opportunity to speak, uh, before the Board today,
8 as a victim support representative for Mr. Paul Schrade.
9 Mr. Schrade, as this Board knows, continues to be an 10 impactful and passionate advocate and activist of human 11 labor and civil rights and he was <inaudible> confidant to 12 both the late President John F. Kennedy and his younger 13 brother, Senator Robert F. Kennedy during his presidential 14 campaign. Mr. Schrade's lifelong commitment to the 15 equality of all Californians, comes once again before this 16 body, as a victim in the shooting at the Ambassador Hotel.
17 It's important to respect and listen to victims of 18 violence who have been traumatized. It validates their 19 experience and provides insight on the impact the 20 <inaudible> had has had on their lives, which in turn 21 affects many others. Mr. Schrade has the right to be 22 treated with dignity and respect throughout the criminal 23 justice process brought forth by Marsy's law. Therefore, 24 as his victim impact representative, I will be unpacking 25 the empirics of Mr. Schrade's reasoning in advocating for

1 Mr. Sirhan's release today. My name is Jennifer Abreu and 2 I am the President and outside representative of 3 Redemption Row, California. It's a secular public charity
4 organization providing compassionate centered curricula
5 with academic value, which encourages the incarcerated 6 population to apply sociological insights towards real 7 life scenarios and problems, decreasing personal shame, 8 antisocial attitudes and violent behaviors. Prior to the 9 pandemic, I was active inside maximum security prisons 10 throughout Southern California as an alternative to 11 violence project prison coordinator. In my tenure, I've 12 worked with high risk, high security prisoners, mostly 13 active and former gang members in Level 4 facilities. I 14 have provided <inaudible> of evidence-based workshops and 15 have graduated thousands of incarcerated individuals in a 16 program specifically designed to mitigate violence while 17 incarcerated and to reduce California's obscene recidivism 18 rate. Additionally, I hold multiple degrees from the 19 University of California, San Diego, in political science 20 and sociology with a concentration on public law in the 21 carceral State. My years spent in both academia and prison
22 classrooms with some of California's most violent 23 offenders will provide experiential and evidential merit
24 to Mr. Schrade's plea of release for Mr. Sirhan to this 25 Board, to millions of Californians who are invested in

1 their public institutions and officials. On the California
2 Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation website, it
3 states that quote, "the purpose of a parole suitability
4 hearing is to determine whether an inmate currently poses
5 an unreasonable -- unreasonable risk of danger to society
6 if released from prison. In 2016, this Board found Mr.
7 Sirhan unsuitable for parole stating that the Panel does 8 not find significant evidence of positive rehabilitation 9 and convinces us that if released, Mr. Sirhan would not 10 pose a potential threat to public safety. In his 11 incarcerated tendency, Mr. Sirhan has participated and 12 cooperated fully in a wide variety of prison programs 13 before his 2016 hearing. To augment his decades long 14 record of positive programming, Mr. Sirhan rigorously 15 pursued cognitive behavior therapy programs grounded in 16 data verified to reduce California's recidivism rate by 17 half, proving to the Board and Californians he is prepared 18 and eager to be a positive part of society. Although 19 numerous programs are available to prisoners which 20 facilitate rehabilitation that Mr. Sirhan has participated 21 in, and also led as a group mentor for decades, the 22 Alternatives to Violence project supersedes the rubric of 23 other program because his academic based curriculum, which 24 has demonstrated a reduction in violence within the 25 facility and post-incarceration. The Alternatives to 1 Violence project is a proven model of success. Data shows

2 that graduates of the program decrease the recidivism rate 3 by 33% in the first three years post release. No other 4 program in CDCR outside of education can claim such an 5 accomplishment. If the State's recidivism rate is at 65%
6 graduating from AVP reduces an incarcerated individuals
7 recidi -- recidivism metric by half. Because I specialize 8 in high risk, high security prisoners who benefit the most 9 from the AVP curriculum, Mr. Sirhan was directed by his 10 peers to become highly involved in the nonviolent model of 11 conflict resolution under my supervision. The core AVP was 12 designed by leaders of the civil rights movement and was 13 originally and liberally applied by the student nonviolent 14 coordinating committee and by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
15 while desegregating the Jim Crow South. Through weekly 16 meetings and correspondence material, Mr. Sirhan is an 17 active participant, not only in his own nonviolence 18 training but also as a mentor and example for hundreds of 19 others. Being discipline-free for half a century, 20 possessing a classification score of 0 and a CSI score of 21 1, Mr. Sirhan has set the benchmark in rehabilitation and 22 is an extraordinary example of the model prisoner. When we 23 look to examples of situational violence, twice Mr. Sirhan 24 has been brutally attacked during his incarceration, the 25 last resulting in his throat being cut by another prisoner

1 with the intent to kill him. Both times, Mr. Sirhan did
2 not respond with violence, even in self-defense. Other
3 mitigating factors which continue to reduce Mr. Sirhan's 4 chances of re-offending and being a threat to the public
5 include his age. A 2017 corrections outcome evaluation 6 report indicates that prisoners over the age of 55 are 7 significantly less likely to recidivate and those who are 8 -- then those who are 25 or younger. Mr. Sirhan has 9 obtained a college education and graduated with an 10 impressive 4.0 GPA, developed marketable skills and made 11 realistic plans for his release. From a policy
12 perspective, the aging of the prison population matters 13 because all else equal, older prisoners are much more 14 expensive to incarcerate. At least one of the reasons this 15 is true is that older prisoners are more susceptible to 16 costly chronic medical conditions, all of which apply to 17 Mr. Sirhan. A stated reason for the significant length of 18 homicide sentences is fear that those who have killed
19 before will kill again. It matters whether this popular 20 belief is actually true. It's imperative that Californians 21 know that people who commit murder are least likely to re-
22 offend compared to other violent offenders. In fact, data 23 shows that those convicted of property crimes are more 24 likely to recidivate than those convicted of a serious 25 crime. The bureau of justice statistics is a primary

1 statistical agency of the Department of Justice. Their 2 research represents the largest cross-section of criminal 3 justice data available for analyzing recidivism rates by 4 crime type. Taken as a group, the BJS studies suggest that 5 individuals released after serving homicide sentences
6 generally re-offend at a lower rate than individuals 7 released after committing other kinds of crimes.

8 Furthermore, in California, a study examining criminal 9 releases for prisoners serving life sentences, discovered
10 that of the 860 murder prisoners paroled by the Board 11 after 1995, only five had new crime re-incarcerations for 12 any crime, that's less than 1% and none recidivated
13 through crimes potentially subject to life imprisonment 14 indicating a lower recidivism rate than any of the other 15 studies. Excuse me. Um, the incarceration rate for 16 individuals released after an initial incarceration for 17 murder is the lowest of any category of violent crimes, 18 such as robbery, rape, and homicide. Notably the motor for 19 non-negligent manslaughter re-offense rate is lower yet 20 among older releases. Finding suggests that there are 21 diminishing returns to very long sentences, even for 22 homicide, and that the vast majority of individuals 23 released after serving a sentence for homicide are not 24 dangerous. An abundance of research suggests that 25 lengthening already long prison sentences has little to no

1 deterrent effect on violent crime.

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Ms. Abreu -- Ms.
3 Abreu.

4 VICTIM'S REPRESENTATIVE ABREU: Yes.

5 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Can I stop you for a 6 moment. I -- I appreciate you're representing Mr. Schrade
7 and I appreciate that, um, your credentials, but your, I -
8 - I don't know that we need a thesis on rehabilitation.
9 This Panel is well aware of the statistics and all of the 10 information that you're asserting, um, so if we could kind 11 of gear it towards the victim impact and, um, that area 12 rather than, you know, reciting statistics and studies 13 that the Board is already well aware of, it would probably 14 be a better use of time.

15 VICTIM'S REPRESENTATIVE ABREU: Okay. Um, I'm going 16 to stay within the scope of rehabilitation.

17 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. That's fine.

18 VICTIM'S REPRESENTATIVE ABREU: Okay. Thank you. Um, 19 so when we look to the law, um, in regarding Lawrence and, 20 um, with five decades at behavior-free living and 21 education, positive programming, um, which is evidence-22 based, low to non-existent Risk Assessment scores and 23 situational violent encounters, which Mr. Sirhan did not 24 retaliate, we must compare the totality of his 25 rehabilitation to others who have been convicted of the

1 same crime and worse, which this Panel has paroled
2 recently. Mr. Demosley was convicted of a first-degree 3 murder with robbery acquiring thirty-six 115's --

4 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay, so now I am
5 gonna stop you Ms. Abreu --

6 VICTIM'S REPRESENTATIVE ABREU: Okay. That's --

7 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: cause you're going 8 well beyond. You're making a legal argument and -- and 9 what we're allowing you to do is give victim impact in 10 place of Mr. Schrade. Um, I don't know how long whatever 11 you have prepared is, um, but we are, we do have other 12 speakers and we are mindful of that time, so if, again, if 13 you confine it to what is actually relevant to the victim 14 impact, um, that Mr. Schrade would express, I would 15 appreciate that.

16 VICTIM'S REPRESENTATIVE ABREU: You bet. So, any 17 comparative analysis of other, um -- um, situations we 18 have to look at the totality. What I would like to bring 19 up is that Mr. Paul Schrade advocates for the release of 20 Mr. Sirhan, as the only living victim of Mr. Sirhan's 21 actions 53 years ago. I'm sure it isn't often that this 22 body encounters a victim of a violent crime supporting the 23 release of the offender. This is why the Board must take 24 into consideration Mr. Schrade's testimony as a victim and 25 close family friend of Senator Kennedy and the deceased's

1 own son, Robert Kennedy, Jr. Mr. Schrade sits before you
2 today because he finds the extraordinary accomplishments
3 of Mr. Sirhan's rehabilitative efforts, which make him
4 suitable for parole and empirically less of a public 5 threat than former validated gang members and other 6 assassins, political assassins, which have been granted
7 parole by this Board. Based on these reasons outlined 8 above, my professional opinion and victim, um, and -- and 9 victim, Mr. Schrade's wish align. Mr. Sirhan does not 10 require additional incarceration and must be granted
11 parole today. Thank you.

12 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. Thank you.
13 And just for the record so we're clear for anyone 14 reviewing it, we're accepting those comments, uh, as far 15 as Mr. Schrade's, uh, desire to be heard as a victim, but 16 we cannot give any extra weight, uh, to your expert 17 opinion because we, uh, cannot allow expert opinion 18 testimony at this hearing. So, in the context of Mr.
19 Schrade's desires to share information about 20 rehabilitation of the inmate, um, we will consider that.
21 Next, we'll ask Mr. Groubert. Do you have any comments
22 that you want to make as a representative from Mr.
23 Schrade?

24 VICTIM'S REPRESENTATIVE GROUBERT: Um, yeah, actually 25 I do. It, you know, I had a lot of other comments, but I

1 wanted to talk about, um, I wanted to talk about the 2 alcohol situation, the memory blackouts if that's 3 possible. You touched on some great stuff, um, of doing
4 blood alcohol tests when you were, I'm a big law
5 enforcement supported by the way, and I am also a drug 6 counselor. I'm also a, uh, group, uh, therapist. I'm also 7 an interventionist and a, uh, sober companion. The Kennedy
8 family and other families in America have been riddled 9 with drug addiction and alcoholism as you're well aware.
10 And I'm 33 years sober in Alcoholics Anonymous and I deal 11 a lot with law enforcement and I deal a lot with the 12 prison system in the State of California. And I just 13 wanted to offer the idea that possibly when he's released, 14 he could be mandated to Alcoholics Anonymous,
15 Commissioners, as a spiritual program. Commissioner, 16 Deputy Commissioner Meighan, when she was talking about 17 character defects, all I kept thinking about was step 6 of 18 the 12-step program that AA offers. The character defects 19 that she kept mentioning, all I kept thinking about was 20 AA, and I know that Sirhan has been in AA in the prison
21 system as have many people I've sponsored on the outside 22 over the years, uh, Commissioners. And I just wanted to 23 put that out there as a possibility for when and if he's 24 released that you could see a way to mandate a number of 25 meetings per week for him in Pasadena, where I've gone to

1 meetings quite a few times, I've lived in Pasadena. Uh, 2 this would be a wonderful spiritual community for him to 3 use on the outside world as many former inmates have over 4 the years. Uh, some of them are very famous. Some of them
5 are close friends. And I think at the end of the day, this 6 is not to minimize it, but a black-out drunk driving
7 incident with death. The person who is the drunk driver
8 who can't remember the actual collision is not questioned
9 about that blackout and the numbers that he's involved 10 with here, which is four Tom Collins, which adds up to 11 roughly a 0.16 BAC and I -- I believe that Commissioner, 12 uh, Barton knows what that means, cause that's almost an 13 enhanced DUI at 0.16. If you have four Tom Collins at that 14 level, that speed, with his size, and as the Commissioner 15 pointed out, his tolerance was very low. His judgment was 16 impaired. His ability to function was impaired. And I
17 think what we have here, forget about all the mumbo jumbo
18 about hypnosis and conspiracy and everything else, I think 19 underneath this entire situation is an alcoholic blackout 20 from having that level of alcohol in his system for that 21 short period of time. And when you come out of a drunk 22 driving crash, and you come out of a situation like that, 23 you may not remember the impact into, uh, into another 24 car. You may not remember the impact of a -- of a bank 25 robbery in a blackout. You guys have dealt with this for

1 decades -- for decades these types of crimes. The other
2 political stuff I'm not concerned with. What I'm concerned 3 with as a drug counselor and as a sober member of 4 Alcoholics Anonymous for 33 years, is that this is so 5 reminiscent of dozens and dozens and dozens of other 6 members in AA that I deal with on three to four times a 7 week when I go to meetings. If I don't go to meetings, I
8 get angry. I want to kill somebody. I mean, the anger 9 situation that I see and hear today seems like a guy who 10 doesn't have a spiritual program that he could use on a 11 daily basis, that's just my interpretation of it. I mean, 12 you guys are gonna do what you're going to do. And you 13 know, so many people come out of -- of institutions in 14 California with court cards, Commissioner Barton, as 15 you're well aware and we deal with this all the time. This 16 is not unusual for us. We have a special relationship in 17 Alcoholics Anonymous with the prison system in this State 18 and -- and as do others in other States, and I'm merely 19 here to get rid of all the other stuff that people are 20 talking about. I'm more concerned about him being in a 21 blackout during the incident and being asked over and over 22 and over again, hypnosis and -- and different grillings, 23 why can't you remember the incident. And it just speaks to 24 me, to seem so familiar to other people that I'm known in 25 AA who led wonderful, spiritual, sober lives after the

1 incident that they went through, that they can't ever
2 remember. And you guys know this stuff. You guys hear this 3 every day in your jobs. He's just another guy who was in a 4 blackout and did something that he can't remember, in my 5 humble opinion. This is just my opinion. And I --I just 6 want to offer if you're ever going to let him out, to do 7 and live the final years of his life in Pasadena, I would 8 offer to be a temporary sponsor to help in the transition 9 into Alcoholics Anonymous. I've lived in Pasadena; I've 10 lived on Michigan and Colorado. I know the meetings there.
11 I'd be willing to help him to make that transition, 12 whether you send them to a halfway house or not, which, 13 uh, may or may not be, uh, viable here. I just want to put 14 myself out there to offer to help him to make that 15 transition into that, you know, 12 step world, if that's 16 what you guys seem to want to do. And that could involve 17 court cards that can mandate, you know, three, two-three 18 meetings a week Commissioners, as we do all the time. We 19 do this all the time, you guys and I. So, I just wanted 20 to, you know, cut through all the extraneous stuff in this 21 case and get to the bottom of it. And I think that's the 22 bottom of it for release and parole and being pardon or 23 whatever the situation here is, I think that this is a man 24 who's obviously done his time, he's done it well and he 25 regrets and has remorse for his victims. And I think the

1 first three steps of the program he's already worked and 2 Commissioner Meighan is talking about step 6, whether 3 inadvertently or not, that's what she was talking about, 4 his character defects. And I, you know, I just want to 5 offer that to you guys as another angle to this, uh, 6 possible ending of this, of the story internally here.

7 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And we're both very 8 familiar with the 12 steps as well as potential conditions 9 of parole, but thank you for --

10 VICTIM'S REPRESENTATIVE GROUBERT: Yeah.

11 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: All right. Um, I 12 think that's everyone that I have on my list. I do have 13 the letter that I'm going to put on the record received 14 today, August 27th, 2021 from Robert F. Kennedy Jr.
15 indicates as follows: This evening I learned that the Los 16 Angeles Sheriff's Department late today submitted a letter 17 opposing Mr. Sirhan's release quote, "on behalf of the 18 Kennedy family" end quote, please know that letter was not 19 at the direction of the "family", quote unquote, uh, 20 certainly not me. As you may know, I have been a strong 21 adv -- advocate for the release of Mr. Sa -- Sirhan since 22 I learned of evidence that was not presented to the court
23 during his trial. After years of careful investigation, I 24 arrived at the conviction that the story of my father's 25 murder was not as cut and dried as portrayed at trial.

1 While Sirhan clearly fired shots at my father, 2 overwhelming evidence suggests that these were not the 3 shots that took his life. I also understand that Sirhan's
4 guilt or innocence is not an issue in this proceeding. I
5 sought to meet with Mr. Sirhan and we spent several hours 6 together. During that meeting, I was impressed by the 7 genuineness of his remorse for the indisputable part he 8 played in my father's assassination. Sirhan wept, clenched 9 my hands and asked for forgiveness from me, from my 10 siblings and from my mother for his part in that tragic 11 evening's events. My father taught me to believe in 12 redemption and justice, his favorite quote from Esquis, 13 and I'm probably butchering that, um, is urge that we 14 should tame the savageness of man and make gentle the life 15 of the world. In my own life, I have experienced the 16 miracles of redemption and forgiveness. I believe that Mr.
17 Sirhan is redeemed. At 77, he is a gentle, humble, 18 kindhearted, frail and harmless old man who poses no 19 threat to our community. His release will be testimony to 20 humanity, compassion and idealism of our justice system to 21 which my father devoted his life. While nobody can speak 22 definitively on my, on behalf of my father, I firmly 23 believe that based on his own consuming commitment to 24 fairness and justice, that he would strongly encourage 25 this Board to release Mr. Sirhan because of Sirhan's

1 impressive record of rehabilitation. This action would be 2 consistent with the rule of law which requires Sirhan's 3 release, absent evidence that he currently poses a danger.
4 Mr. Sirhan was sentenced to life with the possibility of 5 parole. Parole is the rule and denial is an exception only 6 justified if the Board determines that Mr. Sirhan still 7 presents a high risk of danger to the community. I
8 understand that Mr. Sirhan has more than rehabilitated
9 himself. I further understand that his most recent Risk
10 Assessment performed by CDCR psychologists has confirmed 11 the many prior Risk Assessments which opine that Mr.
12 Sirhan does not pose a high risk of danger to society.
13 Should he be released, I offer to be a guiding friend to 14 him. I know that Paul Schrade has made the same offer to 15 Mr. Sirhan. Any opposition in Mr. Sirhan's release simply 16 based on the crime is contrary to the law and contrary to 17 concepts of redemption and forgiveness. I ask that you 18 extend the same consideration to Mr. Sirhan that you've 19 given to other lifers who have been convicted of murder of 20 whom you have released. Sincerely, Robert F. Kennedy Jr.
21 So that's the letter that we received today. As I 22 mentioned before, we do have confidential letters in 23 opposition, um, that we will also be considering and I 24 believe that is everyone that I have on the call, uh, has 25 been given the opportunity to -- to speak that is

1 authorized to speak. It is currently 12:30. We will 2 reconvene this hearing at 1 o'clock for pronouncement of 3 the Panel's decision. If we need more time, we'll advise 4 everyone at that time, but at this time we are in recess
5 until 1 o'clock. Thank you everyone.

CALIFORNIA BOARD OF PAROLE HEARINGSDECISION

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: On the record.

PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Good afternoon, everyone. This is Commissioner Barton again, and we are on the record for the 15th subsequent life parole consideration hearing for Mr. Sirhan CDCR number B21014. The time is now 1:05 PM. on August 27th of 2021. All the parties that were previously present for the hearing are with us again for pronouncement of the Panel's decision. This is a very weighty decision today that we have to make. We recognize that it has to be based on whether or not Mr. Sirhan continues to pose an unreasonable risk to public safety and any denial has to be based on evidence in the record of his current dangerousness. In making our decision, we are required by law to give great weight to the mitigating effects of the diminished culpability of youth as compared to adults, the hallmark features of youth and any subsequent growth and increased maturity in reviewing his suitability for parole. We are also required to give special consideration to his age, his long-term confinement and diminished physical condition. We also consider all other, uh, relevant evidence, including his entire Central file, his recent Comprehensive Risk

SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 1

1 Assessment, prior Comprehensive Risk Assessments,
2 additional documents he and his Attorney have submitted
3 for the hearing. We have numerous, uh, letters in support 4 and also letters in opposition to his parole from the 5 public that are considered. We've considered the testimony
6 of Mr. Sirhan, the comments of his Attorney. Uh, I think a 7 couple of times, uh, it was misrepresented on the record
8 that we have an opposition letter that was received 9 recently from Los Angeles Sheriff, it's actually from the 10 Los Angeles Police Department. It is dated August 26th of 11 2021, it is signed by Michael Moore. The Chief of Police, 12 uh, actually signed for him by Captain Jonathan Tippett, 13 Commanding Officer, Robbery and Homicide Division, so it's 14 actually the LAPD letter in opposition that we have. We 15 also have heard statements from surviving victim, Mr.
16 Schrade, from victim family members, um, victims'
17 representatives, which have all been considered. We also 18 have letters from victims' family members, uh, both the 19 one I read into the record as well as ones from others, 20 uh, that chose to remain confidential, but have been 21 considered. We've also considered Mr. Sirhan's, uh, 22 confidential file. There is information there that, um, we 23 reviewed. There was one entry from 2019 that both the 24 Department as well as our independent review found to be

1 unreliable and not relevant to the proceedings here today.
2 We talked to him about the rest of his record and, uh,
3 talked to him about the incident in 2016 also, which, um, 4 was something that was pertinent in the last hearing in 5 that it showed perhaps a lapse in judgment at that time, 6 um, but it's been five years since then. I will say both 7 myself and Commissioner Meighan, um, have spent hours
8 preparing for this case, and as I said, it's a weighted 9 decision. I agree with Mr. Kennedy and quite frankly 10 disagree with Ms. Berry that, um, this is not like any 11 other homicide. This is a political assassination and it 12 does have wide ranging impact, much more so than the 13 typical homicide that we see. That's not to say that any 14 life is any more sacred or missed than another in our 15 opinion, um, and we recognize that. And so that factor is 16 given the weight that we deemed appropriate and I will go 17 into that. Also, we note that the State of California and 18 he was convicted under California statutes is a 19 presumptive State, meaning to deny parole there has to be 20 evidence in the record of current dangerousness that rises 21 to the level of being an unreasonable risk of current 22 danger to public safety. We also recognize that it's not 23 our job to change anything that's been done by a 24 sentencing court. And so, we view Mr. Sirhan in the light

1 of having committed these offenses regardless of what 2 other information has been provided either by him or by 3 others. This Panel also notes that this is a de novo
4 hearing, meaning that while prior findings and information
5 in the file can certainly inform us in our decision, none 6 of that is binding. We make an independent decision based 7 on our own training, experience and moral conviction. And 8 I will say, while I know Ms. Meighan is a dedicated public 9 servant, I have 40 years in public service and have given 10 an oath to uphold the constitution of both California and 11 the US on numerous occasions at numerous levels. And I 12 certainly hold that oath to be what grounds my moral 13 convictions and decisions. In doing this job, I don't 14 think you could do it otherwise. Having said all of that 15 and taking into consideration the comments and concerns of 16 everyone involved, based on the legal standards and the 17 evidence that we have before us today, we're finding that 18 he does not, Mr. Sirhan pose an unreasonable risk to 19 public safety and we're finding him suitable for parole 20 today. Having said that Mr. Sirhan, bear with me because 21 this decision is gonna be reviewed by many eyes and so I 22 want to make sure that I'm thorough in giving the reasons
23 for our decision. Certainly, anyone else on the hearing, 24 you're not obligated to remain for purposes of the

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 4

1 decision, you're welcome to, but you're certainly not 2 obligated to after this point. You, however, Mr. Sirhan
3 are, so, well actually that's not true. You could absent
4 yourself at this point if you wanted to, but I recommend 5 you stay there. All right. So here are the reasons for our 6 decision and the analysis that we undertook. First of all,
7 we are cognizant of the law in this State, Penal Code, 8 Section 5011, the Board cannot require an admission of 9 guilt as a requirement for parole. California Code of 10 Regulations, Title 15, Section 2236 indicates an inmate 11 can refuse to discuss facts of the crime and the refusal 12 shall not be held against the inmate, and we are certainly 13 following those laws today. And I say that because, uh, 14 the two factors that we saw that were still problematic, 15 the first one being the aggravating factor of the crime 16 itself, we did give due weight to, and there are some 17 crimes that are so extremely aggravating that the crime 18 itself carries so much weight. In order to outweigh that, 19 the factors in mitigation have to be overwhelming. This 20 Panel found that today, that is the case. That the factors 21 in mitigation are overwhelming, such that they overtake 22 the crime, notwithstanding its atrocity, not with -- 23 withstanding its impact on not just the families and the 24 victims and the nation as a whole, perhaps the world as a

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 5

1 whole. And if you had been sentenced to life without 2 parole, that would be a different matter, but you were 3 sentenced to life with parole. And I had that brief
4 discourse with Ms. Berry about our sentencing laws today, 5 but over time laws change and we are bound as judicial 6 officers to follow the law that is existing now and the 7 law that existed at the time. And while I find this crime
8 to be extremely aggravated and I find your, uh, personal 9 responsibility for it to not be perfect, we felt that 10 those things are overwhelmingly outweighed by the factors 11 of mitigation that I will also go through. And having said 12 that, again, looking at the crime, there are times when we 13 see crimes that are horrendous, that 20 years doesn't seem 14 like enough to serve, 30 years, even 40 years, but to 15 serve 53 years or close to 55, I guess on this crime, uh, 16 I think it's '68 to now, I think it's 53 years, um, we 17 think certainly adequately has under the law justified the 18 punishment phase of incarceration. The other things, the 19 other goals of incarceration of course are rehabilitation 20 and to a certain degree incapacitation, and to the degree 21 that you are now 77 years old and we factor in those 22 elderly offender considerations, we think you're 23 significantly incapacitated also as far as committing 24 additional crimes, and I will go into that as well. But we

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 6

1 do find the crime itself to be extremely aggravated. There
2 were multiple victims, there was a US Senator, potential 3 presidential candidate, uh, it was done for, in your own 4 mind, what you told us today, under the influence of 5 alcohol and in response to anger over the Arab Israeli 6 conflict, and so that's political motivation whether you
7 want to call it that or not. And so, I don't want anyone 8 to view this decision and think that somehow, we set that 9 aside, we did not. We also do not set aside the fact that 10 you, um, are denying memory of the events. At one point in 11 time on the record, uh, you admitted committing the crime
12 and shooting everyone and then during hearings and later 13 discovery I suppose, uh, you came to the opinion that that 14 was basically under the undue influence of a perhaps, uh, 15 Attorney who had ethical issues. Then later you came to 16 the understanding that, um, you were still responsible and 17 today, and I want to say this because this is my notes in 18 the record, you have again taken responsibility for firing 19 the weapon, for bringing the gun there as we discussed, 20 um, and for being in, as I think Mr. Kennedy put it, in 21 the room, shooting a gun at people with malicious intent, 22 regardless of whether your bullets killed somebody in 23 particular or hurt someone in particular, you were there 24 taking that action and it certainly caused, um, damage,

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 7

1 certainly caused injury and potentially death. Even if it 2 wasn't your bullet, perhaps it was the distraction of your 3 firing that allowed someone else to fire, I don't know I 4 wasn't there. But I have to take the convictions as they 5 stand, which is you being responsible for the murder and 6 the assault with intent to commit murder. And so, in 7 considering that we looked at other Panels and what 8 they've done in the past, where they've analyzed your 9 claims of innocence or partial claims of innocence, which 10 is what we have today and made a determination that that 11 therefore by claiming that innocence, that it was somehow 12 implausible to the degree that it raised the question as 13 to whether or not you had true remorse, true insight, or 14 were lacking in personal responsibility. This Panel finds 15 that whether plausible or implausible, at this stage with 16 all of the other factors, you still do not pose an 17 unreasonable risk to public safety because of the second 18 prong of that test. The first test is whether or not it's 19 implausible. Even if we were to find it implausible, we 20 then would have to go to the second prong which would be, 21 okay, if his defense is implausible, does it rise to the 22 level that he's a current danger? And because of all the 23 factors that I'm gonna go through now, we believe that 24 that is not the case. And I say that again, because those

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 8

1 reviewing this, I don't want them to think that we're 2 making an expressed finding of plausibility, because as I
3 stated, even if implausible, we find that you no longer
4 pose an unreasonable risk to public safety. Having said
5 that, is your insight perfect, no. I don't know that 6 anyone's insight is ever perfect, but we think that you
7 have grown. And as was mentioned, in the last five years, 8 since your last hearing, there are several things that 9 have changed, not just the things that your Attorney 10 raised, which I had on my list, but, um, there are a few 11 more. Not only are you five years older at 77 and your 12 physical condition has worsened, you've also got the youth 13 offender factors, which was mentioned, and I'm gonna go
14 over those that apply. Whether or not there's DA 15 opposition doesn't even enter into the picture, at least 16 as far as our consideration or determination of the case.
17 Um, they obviously have opposed in the past and even 18 assuming they opposed it today, our decision would be the 19 same. But you've had five more years of discipline-free 20 time, but more importantly than that, five more years of 21 exercising good judgment. And as I said, decision might 22 have been different in 2016 when I personally feel you had 23 a lapse in judgment in that kitchen incident, you should 24 have just walked away and quit the job and not risk even

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 9

1 having words. That being said, it seems from our 2 discussion today that you've learned from that and you've 3 grown from that and so that has changed. There's been no
4 further lapses in judgment. We also see more programming, 5 significantly more programming in several areas of self-6 awareness that we think was beneficial, uh, both in how 7 you presented today. I wasn't present at the other 8 hearings, but from reading the transcripts and having been 9 involved in hundreds of hearings myself, at times in past 10 hearings you appear -- appear to be verbally combative, if 11 not, um, in some respects, uh, indignant. I did not sense 12 that today whatsoever. I actually sensed from your 13 demeanor and from your manner of responding, even when we 14 would interrupt you and try to bring you back on track, 15 because you do have a little bit of a tendency to stray, 16 um, we were able to do so without any visible reaction, 17 negative reaction on your part. And, um, so that was 18 evident to us too and I believe that that's a change. In 19 addition to which you have additional positive character
20 references from Correctional Officers. And as I said 21 before, we take that and give that great weight in -- in 22 this sense. We get letters all the time in support and 23 opposition, and obviously letters from family and friends 24 of yours are typically going to be supportive.

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 10

1 Obviously letters, oftentimes from victim family members 2 are going to be the opposite. Here we have a mix. But 3 nevertheless, we consider those people and their opinions
4 as valid, but they're also to a certain degree, um, 5 understood because of the positions they hold. And then we 6 look at letters from the public at general, and we have a 7 lot of letters in public here, and again, those are just 8 people's opinions that don't have the information that we 9 have in terms of everything in your record. And so, while 10 we certainly consider that, it's not given a lot of 11 weight. And then we move up to those letters from people 12 that see you on a day-to-day basis, so free staff, like a 13 kitchen supervisor or a volunteer leader or someone along 14 those lines that seen you work in programs, seen you work 15 with other inmates, seen you work, um, on the job, seeing 16 that you get along with others, you follow, you know, 17 people's direction, supervisors' direction and we see that 18 over time, um, your reviews have been excellent in that 19 regard. And then we get to that other level and that's 20 Correctional Officers who, in my experience, don't have 21 any incentive to write a support letter for any inmate. In 22 fact, at times they have disincentive based upon how maybe 23 their colleagues feel about them doing that. Having said 24 that you have three fairly recent letters, all of which

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 11

1 are Correctional Officers that, and we put them on the 2 record already, I don't have the names in front of me at 3 the moment, but I did read all of them. And each one of 4 them says basically the same thing, oh, here we go, 5 Correctional Officer Mack, Correctional Officer Nolan, 6 Correctional Officer, uh, Derek, each one of them says the 7 same thing, that they see you day in-day out, good days, 8 bad days when you know they're looking, when you don't 9 know they're looking and that your character is one of, 10 um, being a prosocial individual who following directions, 11 who avoid problems, avoids problem inmates and does not 12 display anger or loss of temper. And we know that that was 13 one of the things at play at the time of this crime, so 14 that is showing offender change from people who see you on 15 a daily basis. And so, we give those perhaps more weight 16 than we give others, because they see you on that daily 17 basis. And then we had the one, which while it's dated 18 from 1983, the reason it is even mentioned is because 19 within our own training and experience, when we look at, 20 um, whether or not someone is rehabilitated, we look at 21 not just can they do time, in other words, without getting 22 disciplined. And apparently not everyone realizes this, 23 but we do see many inmates who do 20, 30 years with very 24 few discipline write-ups. Now we see many that have a ton

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 12

1 of them too. So, I'm not saying that it's not exemplary, 2 but you're not the first person, you're probably the first 3 person I've seen that's done 53 years with only two that 4 were older 42 years old, but I've seen people with 30
5 years and no write-ups. So that alone though, wouldn't 6 necessarily, uh, in and of itself show that you've changed 7 although it is good evidence to your conduct, but we also 8 look for those things that show you've gone beyond that.
9 And the fact that you were willing to step in, assist an 10 officer when he was in potential danger and that officer 11 wrote of that, is also something that speaks to 12 underlying, uh, character trait and that was actually, uh, 13 several decades back. So, we considered those things. We 14 also considered the fact that when we look at one's 15 criminal history, that's one of the factors both under the 16 regulations and under our structured decision-making that 17 we have to consider. Not only do you have no prior 18 criminal history, which is a mitigator, you don't even 19 have any prior instances of violence in your record before 20 this crime. So, no prior instances of violence. And then 21 as I said, in the last 40 something years, no serious rule 22 violations of any kind, um, certainly no overt violence of 23 any kind. Your last even counseling chrono was in 2010, 24 which is over 11 years ago and everything else predated

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 13

1 into the 70s, um, and the one instance in 1990. So that is 2 also a mitigating factor in that your institutional
3 history is exemplary. Your lack of prior criminal record 4 is mitigating. You also, obviously had never been on 5 supervised release, so because you've never been convicted 6 of anything. As far as any substance abuse issues, we do 7 find that alcohol was a factor in this crime through your 8 own admission, but we also find that you programmed 9 considerably to address that both through AA, through the 10 substance use disorder treatment program and we are going 11 to put conditions in place that will reinforce your 12 sobriety and reinforce, um, your ability to maintain what 13 you've expressed to us, which is a conviction to be 14 alcohol-free for the rest of your life, so I'll get to 15 that when we get to special conditions. We also recognize 16 that you have, um, in prison as part of your adjustment, 17 you haven't joined any gangs. You haven't been involved 18 in, uh, a lot of the problems that other guys get them to, 19 into, with negative associations in prison. We see 20 upgrades in education, which is also mitigating, obtaining 21 your AA, taking other college courses. You've tried to 22 better yourself vocationally, there's a number of 23 certificates in the record, I'm not gonna recite them all.
24 You've completed the office services and related

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 14

1 technology course. Your work history, as I said, has been 2 steady and positive. Um, you listened to what the last 3 Commissioner said, which was, you know, increase your 4 programming, and we see that you've done that. Again, I'm 5 not going to necessarily list the 20 programs that you've 6 done, but we find your self-help programming, especially, 7 uh, in the last five years to be, um, commendable and 8 mitigating. You have completed several what I would call 9 cell-study or in-cell study, rather than what many have 10 done, which is sit on their hands during COVID and feel 11 like they didn't have to do anything to better themselves, 12 you have been able to complete self-directed courses in 13 stress, bouncing back resilience toolkit, uh, action plan 14 for relapse prevention, cognitive behavior therapy, again 15 the substance use disorder treatment which you actually 16 took for a longer period of time, 6 months I believe that 17 course was. Emotional intelligence workbook, communication 18 skills workbook, anger management in 2020, dealing with 19 your emotions in 2020. Um, you have gone, ongoing basis, 20 for the las -- off and on for the last 5 years to lifer
21 support group. You've gone through victim awareness, um, 22 Tai Chi. Looks like you were in gateway to recovery, 23 narcotics anonymous, uh, alcoholics anonymous and as you 24 said, you even assisted in running some of those programs,

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 15

1 facilitating some of those programs. So, we do find your 2 programming to be adequate and to be mitigating in the 3 terms that it addressed, um, the risk factor, as far as 4 your ability to recognize anger, emotional intelligence, 5 deal with stress, because we do find that there were 6 stressors at the time of this crime. There was the 7 potential for PTSD having gone through what you went 8 through as a child and then of course with your daughter, 9 your not, excuse me, not your daughter, your sister dying 10 recent, uh, recently before this. Um, while those 11 certainly aren't excuses whatsoever for your actions, they 12 are things that are considered because stressors that 13 someone is under at the time of the crime are things that 14 we can consider and have considered. In addition to that, 15 it appears that as I said, your insight has improved. You 16 talked about, today I think more clearly than in the past.
17 One of the things I noted in past transcripts when asked a 18 direct question, and this also has come up in your Risk 19 Assessments, and I don't know if this is because you had 20 legal actions pending, or because you were cautioned, uh, 21 in the past by other Attorneys about what you said or how 22 you said it, but it always appeared that you would evade, 23 you would kind of skirt the issue, you would give answers
24 that weren't really direct answers, but today we felt you

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 16

1 were very direct in saying, yeah, my feelings about the 2 Middle East, my use of the alcohol that night were two 3 major factors. You talked about, you know, character 4 defects of being selfish, impulsive, reckless. Um, we had 5 the discussion about even guns and alcohol being reckless 6 as something that is just ranks up there with stupidity.
7 And so as far as understanding your character defects, is 8 it perfect? No, I probably would have thrown some more in 9 there, but you also talked about lacking humility. You
10 also talked about being in, you know, I think you said 11 self-assured or cocky or something like that, but I would 12 put that as lacking humility. Um, and then the fact that 13 you certainly weren't seeking help from anyone else, we 14 see that also as something that has changed. Your 15 willingness to seek help from others that you didn't have 16 as a 24-year-old. So, we believe that your insight has 17 improved. It's certainly not perfect. Um, and as far as 18 coping skills, you know, when we talked about emotion 19 intelligence, you said that you do read, you do go out and 20 exercise, you meditate, um, you're willing to talk to 21 other people to resolve things. You certainly have taken 22 the classes on conflict resolution and dealing with your 23 emotions in a positive way. And that's why we had the 24 discussion we had about the 2016 incident, because I think

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 17

1 you summed it up later and maybe it was after the break,
2 you had some more time to think about it, I don't know,
3 but you said, yeah, now I have to look at the big picture
4 and I have to recognize that, you know, at that time it
5 was more about you may be feeling jealousy, that's another 6 character defect. You know, this guy got a job you felt 7 you should get and doggone if you were gonna quit the job, 8 you know, but it appears that you understand that that was 9 false pride and that that was something that you need to 10 get rid of, because certainly as you go out in life, 11 things may not be fair and you're gonna have to deal with 12 that on a day-to-day basis. So, we thought your not only 13 responses today were much better than in the past, but 14 your understanding of who you are and your ability to deal 15 with those things has improved. You also talked about 16 yourself being, um, I don't know if you used the word
17 ignorant, but you said ignoring what was going on. But I 18 think that that's common too amongst youth defenders. So 19 overall we found that offender change does, has existed 20 and not just based upon maturation of age. We know the 21 statistics; we know it drops significantly at 50 and at 60
22 recidivism drops dramatically. We also recognize that this 23 crime was situational in a certain extent in that you 24 weren't someone who had this long history of violence and

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 18

1 an escalating criminality that was going from thefts to 2 robberies to assaults, to, you know, shootings to murder.
3 I mean, for you, it was 0 to 100 in one instance, or may,
4 if there something more than 100, I personally, uh, think 5 that's high enough, but the reality is we've seen that 6 there has been off -- offender change, both because of the 7 elderly offender considerations, but also, I think through 8 your own reflection and growth, um, even in how you
9 approach these hearings. And so, I think that that to me,
10 indicates that you have internalized your programming. I 11 would agree with your Attorney, maybe it's a function of 12 age at 77. Um, you're not always able to articulate or 13 express your feelings exactly, there were several times 14 today you were searching for words, um, but we do look at 15 the conduct and we do look at, as I said, letters from 16 people that have seen you on a day-to-day basis and we 17 take that into consideration along with the work that 18 you've done and the discipline-free record that you have.
19 So, all of that shows us that there is offender change and 20 that it has been, um, ongoing. We're all a work in 21 process. Transformation doesn't happen overnight. We also 22 found your parole plans to be adequate. You have someone 23 out there with housing that's being offered in your 24 brother, even to the extent that he would assist you if

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 19

1 you were deported, um, and that's always one of the major
2 concerns are housing and financial support. It sounds like 3 he has that. That said, we also believe that after 50 4 something years, you can't not be institutionalized and we 5 believe that there should be some structured setting. We 6 would certainly leave it -- leave it up to parole to 7 ensure your safety wherever it is that you are placed, but 8 that'll be one of the special conditions as well. We also 9 believe that you have a support network. While you only 10 have the one brother left, there are obviously people on 11 this call and others that have pledged their support to 12 you. Um, it appears that you also may have the ability to 13 create a support network in your faith community once 14 you're, um, released. And so, we find that your plans 15 subsequent to release are mitigating, parole plans and 16 support network. And then that brings us to the Risk 17 Assessments, not only in 2020 by Dr. Cirimele wherein it 18 is opined that you are a low risk for violence, but 19 there's also a 2016 report by Dr. Sahni, S-A-H-N-I, and a 20 2010 report by Dr. Carrera, C-A-R-R-E-R-A, not -- not 21 leaving out the private reports that have been, um, 22 prepared by others on your behest, but even leaving those 23 out, and they of course are both positive as well, these 24 are three expert forensic psychologists who work on behalf

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 20

1 of the Board to prepare these assessments. And while they 2 are not certainly the end-all, many times I have given 3 things different weight than what they've given things.
4 But when I read through them all, there was one sort of 5 central theme that I saw and that is even recognizing that 6 you don't take complete responsibility for the actions, 7 even recognizing that your insight has been poor at times 8 with them, and that your answers to them have not always 9 been direct and they've even described you as evasive, 10 nevertheless, notwithstanding those issues, they've all 11 still come to the conclusion overall that you were a low 12 risk and that's for a lifer inmate. And not to 13 necessarily, um, take issue with Ms. Abreu, but I can tell 14 you that in the last 10 years the overall recidivism rate
15 for California prisoners has dropped from 65 to 45% in a 16 large part my belief is because we've re-instituted 17 rehabilitation into the prisons. But that's for general 18 determinately sentenced inmates. Lifers, somewhere between 19 8 and 10,000 now that have been released have recidivated 20 at less than a 1.5 to 2% rate. And what these ratings are 21 indicating is that you are considered by all three of 22 these expert psychologists, to be at the low end of a 1.5 23 or 2% recidivism rate. So, it is significantly lower than 24 the average recidivism rate for an average person being

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 21

1 released from prison and there are a lot of reasons for 2 that, obviously given people aging out of crime, people
3 having more time and more motivation to program. And there
4 are some programs I don't think you can help but learn 5 something about yourself even if you're just sitting in 6 the chair. So, we find that the Risk Assessment, the 7 current Risk Assessment as well as the two priors, support
8 this decision. And then we get to, um, mental health 9 issues. You're not currently diagnosed with anything on 10 the DSM-5 as far as a major mental, uh, disorder. However, 11 because there was mention of, you know, your impact of 12 your childhood and your Attorney certainly mentioned it as 13 posttraumatic stress syndrome, which we know can stay 14 repressed for many years and impact people differently, 15 depending on what triggers arise, we're also going to 16 order as a special condition that you take part in what we 17 call BHRP, which is Behavioral Health Reintegration
18 Program, it used to be called Parole Outpatient
19 Counseling, but I'll get to that when we get to special 20 conditions. So, in case someone is checking boxes, we find 21 mitigating your offender control, mitigating your, uh, 22 prior criminal or lack thereof history, mitigating 23 institutional adjustment, mitigating an offender change, 24 mitigating in parole plans, mitigating for programming.

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 22

1 And now we get to spa -- what we call case specific 2 factors, the first one of which is what we call the youth 3 offender factors. And this is important because if we were 4 on the fence again, in terms of the impact of the crime
5 and lack of responsibility, this factor in my opinion
6 would cause us to still, and looking at the scales, um, 7 give benefit to the inmate who qualifies as a youth
8 offender. Basically, what science indicates at this time
9 is that at that age our brains are not fully mature. Now 10 you were probably at the upper end at 24, as opposed to a 11 16-year-old, but nevertheless, when I talked to you about 12 where you at in your life, you were aimless. No doubt you 13 had some emotional growth stunted as a result of your 14 childhood experiences and the fact that that was ongoing 15 and I -- I quite frankly think that you still need to 16 explore that because even though you said you didn't seek 17 it out, it wasn't like you were looking for it, I think 18 that you had to have been keenly aware of it because of 19 how it impacted you, and certainly in your actions on the 20 day of the shooting. So, but when we look at that, we look 21 at overall, if those executive order functions are not 22 fully mature, what does that do to the individual? And in 23 your case, it's subjected you to basically immature 24 thinking, certainly bad judgment as we talked about,

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 23

1 having a gun when you're inebriated. You also didn't weigh 2 the long-term consequences of your actions. You were 3 impulsive. Um, there's even a section in the law that 4 talks about having a general mistrust and reluctance to 5 trust your Attorney resulting in working less effectively 6 with your Attorney and aiding in your defense. In your 7 case, it sort of turned on its ear a little bit in that at 8 least it's been represented that you may have trusted your 9 Attorney too much and not been able to effectively aid in 10 your defense, but it still falls under that rubric of 11 someone who's 24, who has not been exposed to the criminal 12 justice system. And then we look at all the other hallmark 13 features of youth, and you demonstrated what we call an 14 underdeveloped understanding of your responsibility for 15 your actions and decisions and you demonstrated impetuous 16 thinking. At some point, in my mind, regardless of how 17 many drinks you had, you had to make a conscious choice to 18 pull that gun out and pull the trigger and in doing so, 19 whether inebriated or not, in my mind there had to have 20 been for most of us, you know, some thought process that 21 proceeds that because your hand usually doesn't work on 22 its own. That said, your thought process, by virtue of 23 being a youthful offender, demonstrated significant 24 heedless appreciation of the consequences of your action.

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 24

1 In other words, it was very impetuous. It was very 2 impulsive. You didn't think about what was gonna happen to 3 the people that were shot, what was gonna happen to you,
4 what was gonna happen to the nation, what was gonna happen
5 to the world. I doubt any of that was gone through in your 6 mind ahead of doing what you did. So as a youth offender, 7 we have to look at whether or not you were capable of 8 change, or whether this evidenced what we call a depraved 9 character, in other words, entrenched criminality. And 10 oftentimes we see people come to prison and they get 11 worse. They join gangs, they commit perhaps even more 12 horrific crimes in prison than they did when they came.
13 That wasn't the case for you. We saw someone who, I think 14 you were immature in the 70s, that certainly shown by the 15 115's that you got then and some of the verbal outbursts
16 that you were, uh, making. Um, but I think that if, you 17 know, you came in at 24 and by the time you were basically 18 in your late 30s, certainly through your 40s and beyond, 19 um, you showed considerable maturity in avoiding 20 situations. As I said, I am keenly, maybe uniquely, other 21 than perhaps some of our Wardens that are on the Board 22 that understand what happens in prisons, aware of how 23 difficult it is to live in that environment, especially 24 being someone with high notoriety and avoid problems. So
25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 25

1 we recognize that in doing so, you had to exercise good 2 judgment on a daily basis and it appears again from the 3 laudatory chronos that you received that you did. And then 4 as I said, in the last five years, we felt that you've 5 engaged in more reflection and made a significant attempt 6 to think about the reasons and the impact of your actions.
7 You demonstrated maturity through impulse control, 8 developed prosocial relationships, stayed away from 9 negative influences, and it's resulted in all the positive 10 programming, the positive job reports, the -- the 11 positive, uh, letters of support from officers, certainly 12 the programming and results of that programming. So, under 13 the youth offender factors and giving great weight to 14 those factors, um, we felt that that is significant 15 mitigation as well, that hasn't existed previously in your 16 hearings. And then finally we gave special consideration 17 and considered to be mitigating your age of 77, the 18 various health concerns that you have, I'm not gonna 19 reiterate them, they're already in the record. Um, and 20 obviously I don't wish this upon anyone, but you're going 21 to continue to age and -- and that debilitation will only 22 increase, we don't see it as something that gets better 23 necessarily. So, we determined that those, that factor 24 also reduced your risk for future violence, uh, age, and

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 26

1 certainly the time that you served and the injuries that 2 you've suffered, uh, even most recently is something that 3 has additionally resulted in debilitation, at least in 4 terms of your, uh, neck and then we know about the 5 shoulder and the kidneys and those issues. Overall, we 6 look at, uh, these decisions, as I said, judicial 7 officers, and when they're examined, we are mindful of the 8 case law. We're mindful of Shaputis 2, in re Bush, in re 9 Rodriguez, all of which are contrary perhaps to your 10 Counsel's arguments, um, would in the past have found an 11 implausible denial along with attendant, lack of 12 responsibility or insight, along with the aggravating 13 nature of the crime, to be sufficient, uh, to deny you.
14 However, we did consider all of those things. And in 15 considering those things, we saw the improvement that 16 you've made and all of the other mitigating factors and we 17 did not find that your lack of taking complete 18 responsibility adds to current dangerousness. Based on 19 these findings, we conclude that you do not pose an 20 unreasonable risk of danger or threat to public safety and 21 are finding you suitable. This decision is not final. You 22 need to understand the Governor has discretion to be more 23 stringent or cautious in determining whether someone poses 24 an unreasonable risk to public safety and courts give much

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 27

1 deference to the executive function. But as far as our 2 decision within the law and the evidence that we are bound 3 to follow today as judicial officers, we are finding that 4 you are suitable. However, it will be reviewed. The 5 Board's legal team reviews this decision, that takes up to 6 120 days. The Governor has an additional 30 days to review
7 it. If something changes, you'd be notified in writing of 8 what that is, The Governor can reverse it and the Governor
9 can send it back to the entire Board, the other 16 10 Commissioners would then review the entire file. They 11 would not like me very much at that point probably, but 12 they would all do it and all of my colleagues are, um, 13 certainly, uh, in -- in my opinion, I know that past 14 Boards, through no personal intent have been disparaged 15 for their decisions or in some of the filings I saw that 16 they were, um, ascribed ill-intent, that they were making 17 their decisions just to reach a particular conclusion and 18 looking for any reason to do that. I have faith in my 19 fellow colleagues in their commitment to this job and 20 their commitment to doing what the appropriate thing is in 21 every case and treating every individual fairly. So, if 22 it, uh, ends up being that their review, I have every 23 confidence that they will do so and they may disagree with 24 me, but I also believe that they are all fair men and

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 28

1 women who take this job as seriously as I do. That said,
2 the reason that I'm saying this is, I want you to know
3 that for the next four to five months, until whatever 4 happens happens, you need to remain in your program, 5 whatever it is that you're doing, being on the job,
6 staying out of trouble, because even the slightest misstep
7 on your part, even a counseling chrono for putting up a 8 window covering or something that shows additional 9 recalcitrance or disrespect for authority could be enough 10 to have your grant rescinded. So that's why I'm trying to 11 make that clear to you. If you are released from prison, 12 you're gonna be subject to all the general conditions of 13 parole as well as the special conditions that I'm going to 14 impose in a moment. But before I do that, I have to ask 15 Commissioner Meighan, if she concurs and if she wants to 16 add to the decision. Commissioner.

17 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Concur. Nothing
18 further. Thank you.

19 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Okay. All right, sir.
20 That is our decision. These are the special conditions.
21 This is the part you really need to listen to. And what I 22 would also recommend, if -- if and when you live with your 23 brother, you let him read all of your parole conditions, 24 it's gonna be several pages that parole will give to you.

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 29

1 And then the ones that I am imposing right now is special
2 conditions. First, and while I appreciate your concerns, I 3 also appreciate that our Parole Division, um, are 4 perfectly capable of finding a suitable placement for you
5 in transitional housing and making sure that that's a safe 6 environment and we're gonna rely on them to do that, but 7 we are going to require you spend the first six months.

8 And the reason for that is we know that releasing people
9 sometimes straight out onto the street, I think I've done 10 it maybe two or three times with people that have more 11 than 20 years down, but that's because they had a very 12 strong support system, ongoing relationship with someone 13 and as you've said, your -- your brother has issues of his 14 own. So, for you to re-acclimate to society, we think it 15 would be better done in a structured setting. And so, for 16 the first six months of your release, you would have to go 17 to transitional housing. Now, if there's one close to your 18 brother that you think would be good and you want to 19 submit that to parole, they can certainly consider that.

20 Um, and any work you do in that regard, finding yourself a 21 suitable placement, if they, uh, check into it and it
22 meets their requirements, then I'm sure they'd be more 23 than happy to place you there, so you can work with them
24 on that, but we are going to require that. And of course,

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 30

1 all of this is in the backdrop that you're not deported.
2 We have no control over that. I don't know what's gonna 3 happen when you're released. I don't know if, you know,
4 ICE is gonna pick you up at that point or if something 5 else is gonna happen, but we have to look at it as if you
6 are being paroled to California. Second special condition, 7 um, and whether Mr. Groubert had suggested it or not, we 8 are going to require that you attend some form of 9 substance abuse counseling, preferably geared towards 10 Alcoholics Anonymous as opposed to Narcotics Anonymous or 11 something of that nature. We're not going to specify it 12 has to be AA cause oftentimes transitional programs have 13 their own substance abuse program in-house that you could 14 attend. You could also attend Celebrate Recovery at a 15 local church, or you could find another adequate program 16 that deals with, uh, recovery from alcohol and we're gonna 17 require that for that first six months to reinforce your 18 sobriety. While I certainly appreciate Mr. Groubert's 19 opinion, we also want you to succeed and not impose 20 something that would be difficult for someone perhaps of 21 your age if there are other issues. But we're gonna 22 require that you go for at least one -- once a week, and 23 you're gonna have to provide proof of that to your parole 24 officer, and if for some reason you don't attend a week,

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 31

1 you need to get prior approval from that parole officer.
2 So, for that six months you're gonna be required to go to 3 some type of alcohol treatment program, um, as authorized 4 by parole, so they'll work with you on that as well. So,
5 you've got to go to transitional housing, you have to go
6 through that, um, some type of alcohol recovery treatment
7 at least once a week for the first six months. I of course
8 recommend you continue it for the rest of your life, it 9 can't hurt you, that's for sure, but we're going to 10 require it for that timeframe. The third thing we're gonna 11 require is that you, as I said before, take part in BHRP, 12 that's what we call our Behavioral Health Reintegration
13 Program, it used to be called Parole Outpatient
14 Counseling. A therapist will meet with you, they'll assess 15 you, not like the forensic assessments necessarily, but 16 for any needs that you may have in terms of your mental 17 health. And they may give you direction to see them on a 18 regular basis or to do something else and you're to follow 19 their directions. So that'll be up to them whether or not 20 you need further assistance or not. Okay? So that's the 21 Behavioral Health Reintegration Program. And then finally, 22 again, I recognize that there are, there's a mix in terms 23 of feelings of victims, um, but we are going to order, out 24 of an abundance of caution, that you not, uh, initiate any

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 32

1 contact with any victims or any victim family members. And 2 it will be up to parole to authorize if they want to 3 initiate through parole, something with you. If there's 4 some type of, you know, restorative justice thing, where I 5 know you're already in contact with at least one of the 6 Kennedy's and Mr. Schrade, but even if you're gonna have 7 contact with them, you need to have that authorized 8 through parole. In other words, they need to know that 9 you're having that contact. And again, you can't seek it, 10 they would have to seek it. Okay? Um, ask the officer to 11 unmute your screen. Can you.

12 CORRECTIONAL OFFICER: Okay.

13 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Mr. Sirhan have you
14 heard everything that I've said?

15 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, sir. I have.

16 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Do you understand
17 everything I've said?

18 INMATE SIRHAN: Everything.

19 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Do you have questions
20 about any of the conditions that I've imposed?

21 INMATE SIRHAN: None, and I am willing to comply with 22 all of them.

23 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: And if you don't 24 comply, what happens?

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 33

1 INMATE SIRHAN: Trouble for me.

2 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, you get 3 violated on your parole and then what happens?

4 INMATE SIRHAN: Well, they'll -- they'll be repeat of 5 the same --

6 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Yeah.

7 INMATE SIRHAN: - the same problems as before and I'm 8 not going to allow that.

9 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Well, you'd come back
10 to prison on a life term. You'd be entitled to future
11 hearings, but you'd come back on a life term. So, you need 12 to understand all of that. If you have any questions about 13 your general conditions of parole, I recommend you sit 14 there and read through them before you leave the office.
15 And if you have questions you need to ask, and I would 16 recommend you have somebody assist you with that. Someone 17 that perhaps, you know, is maybe Abreu or somebody from 18 her organization, um, provided that you're -- you're out 19 and able to do that. Um, that would be my recommendation 20 to you. So, I want to be very clear. For the next four to 21 five months. You need to do everything that you're doing 22 and stay out of trouble. Do you understand?

23 INMATE SIRHAN: Yes, sir. Yes, sir.

24 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Ms. Berry, anything

25 SIRHAN SIRHAN B21014 8/27/2021 DECISION PAGE 34

1 else for the record? I can't hear you.

2 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Yeah. And no, nothing
3 further. Thank you very much.

4 PRESIDING COMMISSIONER BARTON: Thank you everyone
5 for your participation. That's the decision of this Panel.
6 We were adjourned on this case. It is 1:55 PM.

7 INMATE SIRHAN: Okay. Thank you all. Thank you.

8 VICTIM'S REPRESENTATIVE GROUBERT: Thank you. Thank 9 you.

10 INMATE ATTORNEY BERRY: Thank you. Have a good 11 weekend.

12 DEPUTY COMMISSIONER MEIGHAN: Off the record.
